POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

I am a candidate for State Senator, Twenty-eighth Senatorial District, on the Republican Ticket, Primary Election, April 20, 1920.

I have lived in the district the past thirty years, and have been identified mostly with the mercantile trade, from which I have just retired.

I have given some study to the community interests of country and town, so that in matters pertaining to the farmer and the business man I believe I can serve both acceptably.

Below is a digest of the primary law for 1920: Precinct primaries, April 20, 1920. County conventions, May 11, 1920. State convention, May 13, 1920. Each voting precinct shall elect delegates to the county conventions at the primary election; also shall elect one man and one woman as member of the County Central committee for a term of two years. Women can vote only as follows: For school officers, presidential preference, municipal officers, county officers, except judge; delegates to the national convention, precinct officers, except justice of the peace; for county bonds and for township officers. Cut this out and keep it.

Soliciting your votes, I am
GEORGE E. GORTON,
40 Crawford, Neb.

GLADYS BROCKWELL AT IMPERIAL TONIGHT

"Broken Commandments" is the title of a new Fox photoplay starring Gladys Brockwell, which comes to the Imperial tonight. It presents the novel idea of two men throwing dice three times for possession of a girl—and finally throwing with loaded dice in order to lose, because he realizes it will be for her good. It's a new setting for the old triangle, and with Gladys in the lead ought to turn out a real thriller.

Added attractions are the latest Current Events and a comedy, "Flirt."

The lonely looking man is the one who has not been mentioned as a presidential possibility.

BILLIE RHODES FILM AT IMPERIAL SATURDAY

"In Search of Arcady," the latest production starring the mirthful Billie Rhodes, will be the attraction at the Imperial Saturday evening. As Barbara Chichester, the pretty mad-cap daughter of an American millionaire, who detests any man with a title attached to his moniker—goes a-Gypsying and unwittingly falls in love with a real English earl who is "traveling" as a peddler—Miss Rhodes has a charming role which suits her admirably. The production is the best the vivacious little star has made since "Hoop-La."

A Snub Pollard comedy and a Mutt and Jeff comedy complete a mighty entertaining bill.

On Sunday, per as usual, comes the installment of the serial, "The Invisible Hand." We know of at least fourteen people who are making a record on that serial. They haven't missed a single installment. Dorothy Dalton in "L'Apache" is the other feature. It's filled with startling adventures and inasmuch as the scenario is the work of a new nineteen-year-old writer, it ought to be good and wicked. A Big V comedy is also included.

Monday afternoon a movie program will be shown, but in the evening the Deming Theater company will present "The End of a Perfect Day." The afternoon bill features Charles Ray in "Greased Lightning," in which he takes the part of a youthful inventor in a small town. It's rich.

Ed Howe says:
I blushed when I read lately that the press agents have formed a national society. The intention, of course, is for the press agents to handle the newspapers by wholesale; instead of a press agent calling on each individual editor each agent will handle a hundred or a thousand. Editors have become very powerful; they have always been good fellows and well-informed. They should be ashamed of the press agents. The fact that there are more than twelve hundred press agents in the country, and that they have formed a national association, is evidence that they are doing well, that they get lots of stuff in the newspapers, and pay nothing for it. It is evidence that editors are easily "worked" and this is the fact of which they should be ashamed. The first consideration of editors should be their readers; their country. The editors know better than the press agents what is for the good of their country and readers.

Peace will not cure the household who acquired the war garden habit. Shake the hands of some people and give other people the shake.

Men have faith in what they believe only when they want to believe it.
