

ANGORA

Mrs. R. K. Maybell, Reporter

Mrs. B. F. Harroff and little son arrived Monday from California. Morris Miller was in Bridgeport Tuesday and Wednesday on business. Miss Elma Sturdevant, county demonstration agent, will meet with the Community club on April 14 and give a soap demonstration.

George Workman of Alliance is the new owner of the pool hall. C. E. Lamberson, the former proprietor, has retired from business. Mr. Lamberson has not decided on his future plans.

The next meeting of the Angora Community club will be April 14 at the home of Mrs. Leslie Boodry. A large attendance is desired.

Mrs. A. B. Marsh, who lives six miles east of Angora, went to Alliance Friday and stayed until Saturday afternoon.

Miss Frances Glan, of Alliance, spent the week end with her sisters, Mrs. James Perkins and Mrs. C. M. Dove.

L. D. Carnine made a business trip to Bridgeport the last of the week. B. E. Maybell was in Alliance on Monday between trains.

Friends of Miss Alberta Glan will be pleased to know that she is doing some sightseeing along with her work for the Western Union telegraph company. She was recently transferred from Casper, Wyo., to Denver, Col., and this week goes to Salt Lake City. Before summer she hopes to be in California, where her parents, H. A. Glan and wife, have been spending the winter.

Mrs. Alvin Turman has received word of the death of Mrs. Henry Sutton, which occurred at Bayard Monday. Mrs. Sutton had undergone an operation for appendicitis, which was the cause of her death. The Suttons formerly lived in the Carnine and Lightner neighborhood and have many friends who will be grieved to learn of the death of this good woman.

Carnine-Lawrence

The wedding of Miss Mae Belle Lawrence and L. D. Carnine took place at Gering on Monday, March 22. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lawrence and has many friends in this vicinity. For several months she was assistant cashier of the Angora State bank and at present is stenographer in the Bridgeport bank. This bank has been unable to get anyone to take Mrs. Carnine's place and she will remain with them until they can find competent help. Mr. Carnine is a successful ranch and stockman and owns many acres of land northeast of Angora. His friends are numbered by those who know him and are busy congratulating him and wishing him and his bride long and happy life. The happy couple expect to make their home on the Carnine ranch.

Thursday afternoon was the regular meeting of the "Good Times" bunch, which met at the home of Mrs. W. R. McCrosky at the west edge of town. The ladies who make up this jolly crowd had practically their first business meeting since the organization of the club. The club has had since their first meeting only a temporary name—the G. T., and has been at work on a permanent name. At this meeting the unanimous suggestion resulted in the name of the "Tri C's," the meaning of which is known only to members of the club. Mrs. McCrosky, assisted by Mrs. B. M. Kelly, proved a charming hostess. Several interesting contests were solved. The guests were each given dunce caps with their names to go by throughout the afternoon. The initials of each member formed the basis of the name—such as Red Tomato, Easy Duck, Ripe Melon, Eager Kid, Happy Cat, Merry Mut, Old Masher, Energetic Tootsie and Red Pepper. The hunting game was played with much merriment, the rewards being very "tasty." Each guest had the pleasure of shaking hands with Queen Elizabeth. At 5 o'clock the hostess served a dainty two-course luncheon, consisting of salad, sandwiches, coffee, cake and fruit salad. Those present were Mrs. W. N. Thompson, Mrs. C. M. Dove, Mrs. R. K. Maybell, Mrs. B. M. Kelly, Mrs. Lyle Carey, Mrs. P. B. McCauley, Mrs. W. R. McCrosky, Mrs. A. N. Thurber and Mrs. J. W. Perkins. Mrs. Perkins will entertain April 17.

GET INTO DEBT

One hears on every side talk about the "housing problem." Are people not making more of a problem out of this than it really is? Are not nine people out of ten sidestepping the real issue? If the country is short of houses, why do not people build instead of paying exorbitant rent, about which they complain?

While building costs are high, wages are high in proportion, and it is no harder to build today than it was ten years ago under a lower scale of wages and prices.

The truth of the matter seems to be that there are too many people who do not wish to assume the responsibilities of home owning. Instead of putting their money into a home as their fathers did, they are buying all manner of luxuries which they try to make themselves believe are necessities.

Louis F. Swift, of Swift & Co., advises healthy working men of all classes to "get into debt," possibly as a panacea for the present hectic condition of mind obtaining among the general public, which seems to dictate that all earnings should be spent in a wild delirium of pleasure. The man who sets apart a portion of next month's salary for payment of an installment due on a home is a far better citizen than the one who is mortgaging that same salary for fleeting comforts and idle diversion.

Home owning is among the first principles of our form of government and is the very bulwark of our nation. Let the individual who wants a home, instead of complaining about the shortage of houses, get busy and arrange to build one.—Sioux City Record.

It is a little early to make crop prophecies for next season but it's a safe bet that the crop of presidential candidates will show at least a 100 per cent stand by next June.

Undoubtedly many people are interested in the theory of self-determination, but more are vitally concerned about the price of eggs.

If there was as much harmony of opinion as to who are the profiteers as there is as to what ought to be done with them the solution of the evil would be easy.

Farmer Boy

A Farmer Boy who was born in a small Middle Western community; who shucked corn to pay his way through school; who spent ten years at the Missouri and Nebraska Universities; who has been a resident of this state for years.

What other candidate is so well fitted to understand and fulfill the needs of the Middle West?

World Leader

A World Leader who cleaned up the most turbulent island in the Philippines; who led his company to victory up San Juan Hill; who beat the diplomats of Europe at their own game; who ended a World War three years before the most optimistic European "experts" had hoped.

What other candidate is so well fitted to guide America out of the maze of European complications which remain as our heritage of the World War?

If Nebraska could offer the nation only Pershing, the farmer boy and Nebraska citizen, it would offer enough. If it could offer only Pershing, the World Leader, it would do more than any other state can hope.

BUT NEBRASKA THIS YEAR CAN OFFER MORE. IT CAN OFFER PERSHING, THE FARMER BOY WHO BECAME A WORLD LEADER—THE MIDDLE WESTERN WHO LED THE AMERICAN ARMY TO VICTORY IN THE GREATEST OF WARS—THE NEBRASKAN WHO IS FITTED BETTER THAN ANY OTHER AMERICAN CITIZEN TO BE THE NEXT PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

NEBRASKA IS GOING TO MAKE THAT OFFER APRIL 20. DO YOUR PART BY GOING TO THE POLLS ON THAT DATE AND HELPING PILE UP THE BIGGEST MAJORITY ON RECORD FOR—
