

ANGORA.

John King and family of Bayard motored to Angora on business last week.

Lloyd Miller of Bingham stopped off at Angora for a brief visit with relatives the first of last week. He had been in Wyoming on business.

George Venell was an Alliance visitor between trains Monday and went to Scottsbluff on the afternoon train, returning home at midnight.

Mrs. A. G. Stoner was in Angora home in Scottsbluff was in Angora first of the week on business.

Little Harry Barber who became suddenly ill at school Monday and was taken to his home is able to be back in school.

Neil Miller of the Robert Graham ranch is in Angora for a few days. He expects to go to Wyoming with his brother Lloyd Miller.

Mrs. B. E. Maybell has received word that her brother Kenneth who is attending High school in Scottsbluff is suffering from an attack of measles.

Mill Lillian Stoner was here last week making improvements to the buildings on her farm east of town.

There was a box supper at the Beister School near Linn Wednesday night. Several from Angora attended and report a good time.

J. Claude Clow of Halsey was visiting relatives in Angora last week. He had been to Bridgeport to attend the funeral of his nephew Glen Crow.

Mrs. Fannie Morehead, whose home is in Wyoming, is a guest at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Elmer Morehead.

Mrs. Emma Crawford of Broken Bow, who has been visiting at the L. D. Carnine home, left Tuesday for her home.

Mr. Shinsgang, who has been working in the Minatare lumber yard, came this week to be assistant in the R. S. Proudft yard at this place. Manager P. B. McCauley has been alone in the store and yard, except for Mrs. McCauley, who has been doing the bookkeeping, since the resignation of Leo Lewellen two weeks ago.

Mrs. Gordon Temple is working the third trick at the depot. Miss Leota Henderson has gone to Bayard to work in the telegraph office at that place.

L. Gates, wife and baby are at home in the section house. Mr. Gates is the new foreman and he and his family come highly recommended from their home at Lingle, Wyo.

Glen Crow.

Particulars of the death and funeral of Glen Crow have been received. The young man, whose death occurred on Thursday, May 6, was killed at Gering while switching a car. No one saw the accident, but the engineer said Glen was on the back of the engine uncoupling the first car. The car did not get fully in the clear and the engine bumped against it, crushing the young man. He lived two hours and was conscious until the last. When asked by the nurse if he wished to say anything for his folks, he asked her to tell his mother, which were his last words.

The death of this young man in the zenith of his young manhood shows that death is no respecter of persons. He was well and favorably known in this community. Last year he worked as a helper at the depot and his kindly disposition and ever-ready smile won him many friends who are grieved over his demise.

The funeral at Bridgeport Sunday was one of the largest ever held in that city. Six young men friends were the pallbearers and six young lady friends draped in white were honorary pallbearers and followed close behind the casket. The floral offerings were many and very beautiful. A wreath given by the business people of Bridgeport was an evidence that the young man was held in high esteem. His train crew and the Northport Sunday school, of which he was a member, sent flowers. Four days before his death, Mrs. Crow, his mother, gave a surprise party in honor of his eighteenth birthday. The young people were unusually jolly upon this occasion. It is told that when Glen blew out the candles on the birthday cake, he made the remark: "Just like one's life—soon blown out." Sympathy for the relatives is general in this community and friends are acquaintances are grieving with them.

A few more years of the present income tax system will enable Americans to rank as a nation of expert accountants.

The consumer can find comfort in the fact that for every profiteer who insists prices will remain high there are two honest economists who see a downward trend.

Didn't Phase Him

Socrates lifted his cup—"What's this stuff?" he asked. "Hemlock", replied the cup-bearer. "Oh!" said Socrates, "that's all right—I thought it was one of those d—d substitutes for beer."

Build a Home

Why begin your married life by living in a rented Home? Real happiness comes only through possessing a place you can call your own. Think of the thrill you will feel when—for the first time—you let yourself into Your New Home. There's a satisfaction that is difficult to beat—it's worth trying for. Notice the couples among your friends—the happiest—those who get the most out of life, are the ones who have built a Home of their Own. A New Home necessarily creates more interest in home life—a fondness for one's own fire-side and family.

In your New Home, you will enjoy in addition to peace and contentment, a feeling of security against the world's troubles.

The first thing to decide is the kind of Home you want to build. Will it be a Bungalow, a Cottage, or of good old-fashioned Colonial style? You have at your disposal all of the many plans in our office. And any of them may be changed to embody your own ideas of comfort and utility.

Build It Now

There is no reason for waiting until later to Build. Materials and Labor costs are not coming down. And even if they should, the item of rent saved—to say nothing of the other advantages—weighs heavily enough to overbalance the difference in costs.

Stop in our office at any time and we will talk the matter over with you.

The Biggest Shop Window in Box Butte County

—Where Most Buyers Shop FIRST

THE Biggest Shop Window in Box Butte county is 2,100 feet long.

As a matter of fact, it is a very unusual Shop Window, but it is one in which nearly 75 per cent of the people of Box Butte county who have money to spend shop first—generally before buying a dollar's worth of every-day home needs.

This Big Shop Window follows no geographical lines or is it in any one location. More than 2,100 people, allowing a foot for each person, can "shop" in this Window at the same time.

The Biggest Shop Window in Box Butte county is The Alliance Herald's Shop Window—the advertising columns of The Alliance Herald itself.

Eighteen hundred buying homes in the Alliance trade territory shop first in this Big Shop Window, and the merchant whose desire is to select the cheapest and most direct route to the purses of those who have money to spend cannot afford to overlook the possibilities offered in this Window. A display in this Window is your own Shop Window magnified. All haphazardly planned schemes to reach the buying public of this Kingdom of Alliance fall by the wayside unless there is concentration in this miraculously large Shop Window.

The Alliance Herald has no circulation records to break---

How do you judge oil?

These are the things that determine the true cost of a motor oil—the protection it gives the motor against wear, economy in fuel consumption, the size of repair bills for operation and upkeep.

Polarine stands high when judged by these standards. It cushions all engaging parts with a wear-preventing film that keeps moving parts snug-fitting, working easily with little vibration or noise.

Polarine has unusual stability under high engine heat. It assures a fuel-tight and gas-tight oil seal in the cylinders—maintains full compression and delivers maximum power.

Use Polarine and reduce motoring costs. It is sold where you buy big-mileage Red Crown Gasoline—at first class garages and service stations where this sign is displayed.
