A roughhouse occurred in a local pool hall, the other evening, according to rumors. Some brother, a trifle under the influence of joy juice, attempted to demonstrate to a cook how he should slice pickles. The cook didn't ask for suggestions and resented receiving them. No arrests were made and the ambulance was not called. Some men hustle almost as hard for a job as some women hustle for a husband. Scientists tell us that people should wed their opposites. That is why so many people are anxious to marry money. Imitation may be the sincerest flattery, but it is difficult to convince a girl that such is the case when she is presented with an imitation diamond. Few things taste as good when warmed over, a pretty good argument against letting your love grow cold.—Philadelphia Record. The best remedy for a heart-attack is another girl. Let us be thankful for our lot, even if it is not a lot. People hate to get a reputation for what they really are. The last thing you want is generally the first thing you get. A stolen kiss has cost many a man 50 years of matrimony.

A man likes to feel that he is loved, a woman likes to be told. BEREA NEWS. The ladies' aid society of Berea will give a bazaar and food sale at the lumber yard office Thursday afternoon and evening, June 17. They will also serve a creamed chicken supper, the proceeds of which will go to help build the Berea union church. The price of the supper will be 50 cents. Mr. Cass of Berea will donate a residence lot 60x140 feet, which will be auctioned off in the evening. Everybody invited.
