SUCCESS ASSURED FOR CHAUTAUQUA

most responsive it has been their pleasure to have in several years.
In the morning the Junior chautauqua held its first meeting, under the supervision of Miss Bertha Melick and was accorded an exceptionally large number of enthusiastic Juniors. The local management states that the attendance was fully twice as great as that usually had on the first day. The interest displayed by the Alliance youngsters is credited to the splendid organization of the Campfire Girls and Boy Scouts under the leadership of Miss Josephine Ganson and Kenneth Hamilton, respectively.
The Junior chautauqua presents an opportunity for the young folks to enjoy lots of real wholesome fun. The week's program includes picnics, bacon fries, hikes, games, stories and best of all a field meet and parade on the last day, Saturday, July 10. If you were not there Monday or Tuesday be on hand at 9:30 in the morning and get your share of the fun.
The program for the remainder of the week includes some truly famous people. If the citizens of Alliance will appreciate the fact. Superintendent Williams, twelve years in chautauqua work for Standard, Redpath and southern circuits, feels conservative in saying that the six-day circuit schedule in the city of Alliance is second to none in his years of experience. Mr. Williams feels that every number is calculated to please the vast majority of the people but he wishes to call special attention to the eminent positions, in their respective fields, occupied by Mrs. A. C. Zehner, John Temple Graves, and the Czecho-Slovak band under the leadership of Jaroslav Cimera.
In 1917 eleven lecturers from the American chautauqua platform were called into consultation by senators, foreign ambassadors and the secretary of war. Of those eleven, Mrs. Zehner was the only woman called and Mr. Graves was also among those whose advice was desired. Jaroslav Cimera was for years assistant leader of Sousa's band. Mrs. Zehner will be heard tonight. (Tuesday), the celebrated band Thursday evening and John Temple Graves Friday evening of this week.

The Campfire Girls have charge of the refreshment booth at the chautauqua and will receive 100 per cent of the proceeds for their camping fund.
The chautauqua management, working in conjunction with the local ministers, has already passed the mark guaranteed to Standard system, and several days' sales of both season and single admission tickets are yet to be taken in. The reasonable charges for admission, combined with the unquestioned excellence of the entire program, insure both the financial and educational success of the venture.
—For Sale—Nine room house. Best part of town. Modern. Priced right and good terms. See Nebraska Land Company.
Special Agent T. J. Smith, who returned Tuesday morning with A. Modena from St. Joseph, Mo., charged with stealing clothing from "wet bunkies, tells of Missouri being "wet with all the streams overflowing." He got about 150 miles free rides on account of railroads being unable to operate.
Two aeroplanes arrived in our city Monday evening, one of the drivers being Bob Copey. The machines will be parked here for two days before being taken north to towns along the Northwestern.

HOLD SERVICES AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH
lecture from beginning to end, the speaker closing with a eulogy on the Christian flag and the Stars and Stripes.
Rev. Mr. Epler read the poem by M. C. Martz, "The Church Flag": The church flag, the world flag, in splendor is unfurled,
With messages from the Christ our King, unto the wide, wide world
Snow white and pure, white it floats upon the breeze—
A herald of the Savior's love to lands beyond the seas.
The blue field, the true field, and cross of crimson dye
Will draw the weary ones of earth to Him who dwells on high.
The church flag, our nation's flag, the cross above "Old Glory,"
Unite to send, to foe and friend, the blessed gospel story;
Then war shall cease, and perfect peace, forever and a day,
And swords and spears, with all their scars, shall never more hold sway.
The two flags, the true flags, the flags for you and me,
Bring heavenly peace and relief, and set the captives free.
The second of the union services will be held next Sunday on the Lowry & Henry roof garden, when Rev. J. Orrin Gould will speak on "Mofmonism From the Inside." It is expected to have a large choir and special music. The young people's meeting will be held next Sunday at the Christian church.
Following is the complete program given at the Christian church Sunday evening:
