ANGORA

M. Kelly of Bancroft, Neb., arrived Sunday for a visit with his sons, J. R. and Brian M. Kelly.

Mrs. D. M. Woods of Scottsbluff, is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. R. McCroskey, for an extended stay.

Mrs. Cash M. Dove took her little daughter, Dorothy, to Alliance Thursday of last week for an operation on her finger.

Frank Proudfit, of Lincoln, was here last week on business for the R. S. Proudfit Lumber company.

W. N. Thompson went to Alliance Friday to attend a meeting of the potato growers.

Mrs. L. L. Lewellen entertained Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. A. B. Marsh. There was a jolly crowd present and a most pleasant time is reported. Lunch was served at five o'clock which consisted of salad, two kinds of sandwiches, pickles, punch, ice cream, angel food and marble cake. The place cards were hand made and done in water colors—pink and white was the color scheme.

The hall Thursday night of last week did considerable damage east of Angora. Those whose crops were damaged were Frank Boodry, Lee Lewellen and A. B. Marsh.

John Shoopman has been supplying the local trade with fresh beef the last two weeks.

C. A. Giel, who lives two miles west of Angora, reports a severe wind and hail storm near Melbata where he has a farm. Mr. Giel estimates the damage to his place at $3,000.

Mrs. Paul Guszak happened to a bad accident Friday of last week while out gathering eggs. She was stung several times about the face by a bumble bee. The places were most painful and caused her face to swell and one eye to swell so she could not see.

C. D. Henderson returned last week from St. Joseph hospital in Alliance where he has been laid up for several weeks with a compound fracture of his right leg. He is able to get about on crutches but it will be a long time before the injured limb will be good as new.

R. K. Maybell and wife entertained at six o'clock dinner Sunday in honor of P. B. McCauley and family, who are soon to leave Angora. Those present besides the McCauley family were G. T. Temple, wife and little son, Mrs. A. A. Temple of York, and B. M. Kelly and wife.

Mrs. P. B. McCauley entertained a few intimate friends at a party at her home Friday night of last week. There was music and general visiting for amusement. Refreshments were served to the following guests: G. T. Temple and wife, J. W. Perkins and wife, A. M. Dove and wife, G. W. Venell and wife and Mrs. W. N. Thompson.

Mrs. Brian M. Kelly was hostess to the Tri C club Thursday of last week. There were three tables of 500 besides some who spent the afternoon in doing fancy work. The place cards were most unique. Each lady was given a card drawn with pen and ink to represent a book. On each little book was written the name of a noted author and places were found by matching these to other similar little books with the names of books written by these authors. It was most interesting and the places were soon found and a delicious lunch was served consisting of sardinian salad, bread and butter sandwiches, olives, cake, pineapple sherbet and ice tea. Those present were Mesdames McCrosky, Dove, Perkins, Lewellen, Thompson, Maybell, Jefferson, Venell, McCauley, Temple and Kelly. Mrs. D. M. Woods of Scottsbluff was a guest of the club. Mrs. James W. Perkins will entertain August 19th.
