Superintendent A. G. Smart of the Burlington, met with the directors of the Alliance chamber of commerce last Saturday afternoon and took up with them the matter of securing additional sleeping cars for No. 42, for the accommodation of Alliance patrons. He explained that the company had to guarantee $8,000 revenue a year to the Pullman company and that the Alliance business would not justify it, if, indeed, it were possible to secure cars, of which there is a shortage. Mr. Smart agreed after a discussion to request the allotment of more berths on the Casper coach and on No. 42, which will give Alliance patrons sufficient service.
