At present a fair-sized boom can keep going with no further equipment than a press agent and a typewriter. There is no excuse for lavish campaign expenditures.

Mathematics will probably never reveal just how much income tax bootleggers ought to have paid, but did not.

Uncle Sam wants the Turk expelled from Constantinople. This is one instance in which we are willing to interfere in European affairs.

Just think how much some of the works of the old masters would be worth, though, if they were done over in this day with house paint.

If anybody has Aladdin's wonderful lamp, which controlled the genie that built houses in a single night, now is the time for him to rub it!

Every possible effort should be made to round up a profiteer before county fair time so that folks can see what one of the critters look like.

Alliance finds itself listed among the 132 high schools which will secure $500 each in the annual distribution of funds for the support of normal training, having qualified to receive such a fund. There were some eighty-five schools who desired to participate, but who failed to qualify and are consequently "out in the cold." A total of $154,000 was appropriated by the last legislature for normal training for a period of two years, and the 132 schools in question will now receive a portion of that fund, according to the ruling of the state superintendent, warrants now being made out at the state auditor's office. Towns in this portion of the state to benefit by the $500 "donation" include Chappell, Gering, Mitchell, Scottsbluff and Sidney.

The magnitude of the various charitable, religious and educational "drives" of national or world-wide scope carried on in this country the past year or two is estimated by the national information bureau at $450,000,000 or more. The fact that all of this money has been raised means not only that the Americans are the richest people in the world, but that they are the most generous.

American clockmakers are swamped by the export demand. It is good to realize that Europe hasn't too much time on its hands.

Germany wants a bigger army than the treaty allows her, and pleads necessity. Her plea was antedated some time ago by the shivering camel which begged to be allowed to put its nose only under the man's warm tent and ended by ousting the man.—Ex.

There has been virtually no bloodshed in the Mexican revolution, says a dispatch from Mexico City. As a rule the Latin-American revolutions are composed chiefly of poetry, oratory, highway robbery, applause and a rush to the refreshment counter.—Exchange.

CHANGING THE LABEL

The small boy's parents had distinct ideas of discipline. The walls of the sitting-room were lined with tracts, and the cane was always kept behind "Love one another."

One day everything went wrong, and the little boy was whipt eight times.

After the eighth caning he said, between his sobs, "D-d-don't you think it's t-time to take the cane from behind 'L-love one another' and put it behind 'I n-n-need thee every hour'?"—Tit-Bits (London).

GOING UP

A very junior officer was trying his first case.

"Seven days confined to camp," he snapt.

"Beg pardon, sir," whispered the company sergeant-major. "You mustn't give a sentence like that. You—"

"All right, sir, fourteen days," retorted the sub.

"But, sir," pleaded the sergeant-major, "it's not—"

"Arf a mo', major," interposed the Tommy. "Don't check 'im again or 'e'll give me twenty-one. 'E ain't a horcifer—e's a lauctioneer!"—Tit-Bits (London).

OR AN OBOE?

Mrs. Jones: "Can't stay long, Mrs. Green. I just came to see if you wouldn't join our mission band."

Mrs. Green: "Heavens, don't come to me! I can't even play a mouth-organ!"—The Pepper Pot.
