COOL AND PLEASANT LOWRY & HENRY

ANGORA

J. H. Crow and wife of Bridgeport were here Sunday of last week for a brief visit with relatives.

Mrs. May Jamison went to Bridgeport the first of last week for a short stay.

Mrs. R. H. Atwell of Torrington, Wyo., was here Monday and Tuesday of last week visiting her nephew, Dave Atwell.

Joe Chapman, the popular Grainger man, was in Angora last week.

Mrs. Henry Rusk has returned from a visit with relatives in Wyoming.

F. B. McCauley went to Scottsbluff Saturday on business.

Mrs. A. A. Temple left last week for her home in York after a pleasant stay with her son, Gordon Temple and family.

Misses Helen and Doris McCrosky visited relatives at Gering last week.

Mrs. A. B. Marsh and Mrs. Lee Lewellen were business visitors in Alliance last week.

John Burry and wife were Alliance visitors last week.

John Sherlock, Frank Berry, Pete McLaughlin and George Workman were in Bridgeport Wednesday looking after business matters.

Mrs. Ethel Severs of Lincoln and little daughter, Noma Dale, were guests last week of Mrs. Severs' brother, Agent Temple and family.

Mrs. W. N. Thompson and Mrs. Claude Wilbur were on the sick list last week.

C. Lyle Carey and wife went to Bridgeport last Wednesday on business.

Mrs. W. R. McCrosky and Mrs. B. M. Kelly went to Scottsbluff Thursday of last week to attend to business matters.

Arthur H. Johns was the first to start threshing in this vicinity. He reports a fair yield in his wheat.

Eddie Rusk, the little four-year-old son of Henry Rusk fell from a wagon and broke his right leg Wednesday of last week. It was a bad break and the little fellow will be laid up for a long time as a result.

Mrs. H. A. Glau and children, Francis, Cynthia and Bill, left Monday of last week for California in their sedan. They expect to spend several days in Denver and from there will go to Trinidad, Ratan, Los Vegas, Albuquerque and other points of interest before they reach Los Angeles. Ms. Glau expects to join them after harvest is over.

Mrs. James W. Perkins was hostess to the Tri C club Thursday afternoon. There was a jolly crowd present and a nice time is reported.

Mrs. Ira Muzzy Dead

Mrs. Ira Muzzy died at her home in Angora Saturday evening, August 14th. Mrs. Muzzy had been in failing health for six years but was up most of the time and felt unusually well that day. She had eaten a lunch with some friends, got up and walked into the bedroom when she called to her daughter. They found her unconscious and she lived only a half hour. She leaves to mourn her, her aged husband, three sons, three daughters and two adopted daughters, besides many relatives and friends who loved the good woman. Mr. and Mrs. Muzzy would have soon celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at two o'clock. The Rev. King of Bridgeport, preached the sermon. The relatives left Monday night for Grand Island with the body where funeral services were held at the home of a daughter and interment made in the Grand Island cemetery. The entire community are sympathizing with the Muzzy family in their grief.

There was a special meeting at the home of Mrs. Mark Spanogie in Bridgeport last Wednesday of the Home Economic and Extension work of the state. Miss Stella Mathers, the state leader of Nebraska, and Mrs. Salesbury of Washington, who has charge of the Extension work in seven southwestern states were present, besides representatives from ten groups of the county. It was a most interesting reception. Miss Mathers presented a chart of the work being done by the Sunflower Community in Scottsbluff county. Mrs. Salesbury's talk in general about material for the busy woman, was much appreciated. Miss Elma Sturdevant, county demonstrator of Morrill county, made a short talk in which she told of the coming state fair and of Morrill county being asked to furnish the soap exhibit for the state. Morrill county women have gained quite a reputation with their soap making and Miss Sturdevant would be glad to get a bar of soap with directions for making from all who care to send to this exhibit and requests that the same be in her office by the 25th. Dainty refreshments of ice cream and wafers were served by Mrs. Spanogie. Mrs. R. K. Maybell and Mrs. B. M. Kelly, president and secretary of the Angora Community club, were present from Angora. The Group Leader, Mrs. W. R. McCrosky, was unable to attend but will have the data to tell to the club at the next meeting, which will be the 25th at the Kelly home.
