

READ-BENNETT.

The wedding of Madison Read of Altamont, Kas., to Miss Hazel Bernice Bennett took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bennett, 516 Emerson avenue, at 6 o'clock Thursday evening. The Rev. Mearl C. Smith performed the ceremony, using the ring service. Little Emaline Grassman was ring-bearer. Mrs. G. A. Hillebrand of Crawford sang "O Promise Me" just preceding the ceremony and Mrs. M. C. Smith played the Mendelssohn wedding march during the service.

A decorative scheme of pink and white was carried out in the rooms and at the three-course wedding supper, at which plates were laid for twenty-eight. Pink and white roses and carnations were used.

The bride is a graduate of the Alliance high school, and has been in the employ of the Alliance Times. The groom is the owner of a drug store at Altamont, Kas. The couple will leave today for Kansas City on a honeymoon trip, after which they will be at home to their friends at Titamont.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hillebrand, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kieffe and Mrs. J. L. Elliott, all of Crawford, were among the out-of-town guests.

SALVATION ARMY TO LOCATE CORPS HERE.

Adjutant Cook and Captain Davis of the Salvation Army met with the Box Butte county advisory board at the county court room last evening, following the good roads banquet. These men looked over the situation, saw the need and were convinced that Alliance needs a Salvation Army corps in caring for the derelicts, destitute and unfortunates who drift in upon us here. They promised that within a week they would send a man and a woman of the Salvation Army here to establish a corps.

These people and their work must be supported locally and money that has heretofore been heterogeneously applied can be better used by the central agency and greater good accomplished.

If the people who insist on talking at the movies would say something worth hearing the audience would not miss the music so much.

GEORGE BRECKNER BUYS NEW EQUIPMENT

W. S. Hunter representing the Oxweld Acetylene company of Chicago, has arranged to install a large Oxweld low pressure generator for George H. Breckner, Alliance's welder. Mr. Breckner has gone to a large expense in installing this generator, but the demands of his increasing business make it necessary that he make arrangements to manufacture his own gas.

By this new addition to his equipment, Mr. Breckner will be able to at all times to meet any demands made upon his line of business and it will be a matter of much satisfaction to the surrounding country to know that all work can be done despite a shortage of acetylene gas. Alliance is to be congratulated on having a progressive and modernly equipped welding shop and Mr. Breckner deserves the support of the surrounding territory. The new machine will be installed within the next thirty days.

SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTIONS FOR SPUD INSPECTORS

Potato inspectors for the Alliance-Hemingford district are meeting in Alliance this afternoon for a school of instruction. W. C. Andreas, acting head of the state bureau of markets, and V. V. Westgate of Omaha, representing the federal bureau, are in attendance and are conducting the school.

The object of this instruction is to secure a more uniform grading of potatoes shipped out of the state to other markets. There have been a few variations between the state and federal rules, and on one or two occasions, cars which have been given grade No. 1 by Nebraska inspectors have not been accepted as that grade in other states.

These schools of inspection will be held in the various districts of Nebraska. Inspectors from the Rushville district held a meeting yesterday, and there will be a similar meeting in Scottsbluff tomorrow.

ARMY RECRUITERS ARE GETTING MEN

The army recruiting office, 302 Box Butte avenue, reports a number of enlistments during the past few days. Conditions of enlistment are so favorable that it doesn't require very much argument to convince the average adventurous lad that the army is just what he wants. The new army, with schools of various kinds, offers the best sort of technical training, as well as a chance to see the world.

Among recent enlistments are Raymond M. Tennant, Jess B. Martin and Thomas McGuire, who have signed for a year's training in the motor school of the Fifth-fifth infantry; John Walker, who has contracted for a three-year hitch in the infantry, with service in Panama; Carl B. Jenkins, with the air service in the world war, who has re-enlisted in the electrical school at Fort Omaha; Frank Jackson, who wants year of infantry experience; and Antonio Sala, for several years member of a band with the Italian army, who has re-enlisted in the musician's school at Camp Grant, Illinois.

Alliance has had an opportunity, in the good roads meeting yesterday, to realize the value to the city of such a building as the new Lowry & Henry garage. Every visitor to this city will go back home and tell strange tales of a garage that runs three stories high and covers more space than any garage they ever saw in a city of this size or one several times larger. The big dance floor, without a single column or pillar to mar its smoothness, furnishes room for almost any public meeting that will ever be held here. Three hundred people sat down to eat, and did not cover a third of the available space. The new garage is a big business proposition, and is a credit to the city. The roof garden, which will be used for entertainment chiefly, is an achievement. The good roads boosters met a cordial reception, as befitted the importance of their mission. They were a nice bunch of fellows, and appeared impressed by the quality of Alliance hospitality. Now that the roof garden is completed, we'll have room to entertain more of these delegations.

In politics, as in more romantic matters, broken hearts are usually soon mended.

A thrifty man might undertake to convert the tail of an $18 silk shirt into neckties. There's waste below the waist.

THE LAW OF ADJUSTMENT
Said the man with the hoe to the man with the pick, "I may be a most unintelligent hick, but, frankly, I envy the money you've made."

For the less that you labor, the more you are paid.

I'd like to know how to accomplish the trick."

Said the man with the hoe to the man with the pick.

Said the man with the pick to the man with the hoe:

"The way of the toiler is tedious and slow.

Just close up your farm till the middleman begs—

He'll soon pay two dollars a dozen for eggs;

For prices go up when production gets low."

Said the man with the pick to the man with the hoe.

Said the man with the hoe said, "I'm through with fatigue,"

And proceeded to join the Non-Partisan league;

And the obdurate middleman yielded at length—

For it seems that in union there sometimes is strength.

And the man with the pick, on the following day,

Saw his grocery bill—and struck for more pay.
