

SCOTTSLUFF AUTHORITIES
RELEASE MEXICAN BANDIT

Another fiasco of the law occurred the first of the week when Scotts-Bluff county authorities refused to prefer charges against the Mexican suspect who was arrested here on the charge of being an accomplice in the city's recent shooting fray, says the Bridgeport News-Blade.

The Mexican in question was taken into custody by the local authorities following the theft of a Buick car belonging to O. L. Carpenter of Scotts-bluff. Following the murder of John Lindgren, he was arrested and held on the charge of being an accomplice in the crime. He was placed in the county jail at Bridgeport, where he remained in confinement until other members of the bustle escaped, when he was taken to Alliance for safe keeping. Last Monday he was brought back to Bayard by state agents who advised that he be turned over to the Scotts Bluff county authorities and prosecuted on the charge of auto theft.

There seems to be little question but what the Mexican was implicated in the auto theft for at the time of his arrest he was wearing a coat which was identified by G. L. Carpenter and which was in the car at the time it was stolen. However, the Scotts Bluff authorities did not see fit to prefer charges against the Mexican, as the evidence procured did not warrant holding him on the charge of being an accomplice in the murder he was released to follow the uneven tenor of his ways.
