

The Herald's New Serial
Watch for It

TAXI
AN ADVENTURE ROMANCE
by GEORGE AGNEW CHAMBERLAIN
COPYRIGHT THE BOBBS-MERRILL COMPANY

ROMANTIC, clever, ingenious, sprightly and dashing—a classic of gasoline and speed in which much blithe, some humor is blended with a charming love story.

Mostly about a young man who had too much money and too much time in which to spend it, but otherwise not enough employment. To remedy the deficiency, get a new angle on life and learn some things which he did not know about his beloved New York, he changed places with a taxi driver and learned plenty. Also the experience remodeled his existence, made him a worth-while citizen and brought aid to a number of people, among whom were several young women, who but for the timely intervention of the gasoline Sir Galahad, would have succumbed to the city's perils.

Then there was the case of the lovely girl born with a silver spoon in her mouth who lost it, became a chorus girl, recovered the spoon and—but you must read it—a new serial offering for these columns.

NOTICE.

In the matter of the Estate of Charles E. Hershman, Deceased: In the County Court of Box Butte County, Nebraska, State of Nebraska, Box Butte County, ss.

To All Persons Interested in the Estate of Charles E. Hershman, Deceased: Whereas, Harry E. Gantz of Box Butte County, Nebraska, has filed in my office an instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of Charles E. Hershman, late of said county, deceased, and said Harry E. Gantz has filed his petition herein praying to have the same admitted to probate, and for the issuing of letters of administration with the will annexed, to The Guardian Trust Company of Alliance, Box Butte County, Nebraska, as executor of said will, which will relates to both real and personal property.

I have therefore appointed the 31st day of January, 1921, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the county court room in said county, as the time and place for hearing said will, at which time and place you and all concerned may appear and contest the allowing of same.

It is further ordered that said petitioner give notice to all persons interested in said estate of the pendency of this petition and the time and place set for the hearing of the same, by causing a copy of this order to be published in The Alliance Herald, a newspaper printed and published in said county, three weeks successively previous to the day set for the hearing.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and official seal this 5th day of January, 1921.
