AFFECTION'S FOUNT

Wife (pleadingly): "I'm afraid, Jack, you do not love me any more—anyway, not as well as you used to."

Husband: "Why?"

Wife: "Because you always let me get up to light the fire now."

Husband: "Nonsense, my love! Your getting up to light the fire makes me love you all the more."—Quoted by the Watchman-Examiner.

DECLINE

Another good word gone wrong. Intrigue has brought up at last in the newspaper headline. Not the kind of intrigue that regaled us from the front page in the days of German plots and counter-plots, but the relatively new intrigue of literature, of belles lettres. "Blue," a "World" headline informs us, "Intrigues Mrs. Harding's Fancy." So far as we have been able to find out, this comes pretty close to being intrigue's debut in the headline business. Having debuted there with no turning back. We may expect to be intrigued morning and evening for some time to come. Eventually, we shall read of face powder that intrigues, of men's cordovan brogues that intrigue, of intriguing bargains in baby's rompers—of enamel kitchen ware, table linen, dish-washing machines, and chewing gum that intrigue.

And if the five-cent cigar ever comes back, be prepared to welcome it as the Nickel Smoke that Intrigues.

* For the benefit of the ladies, we might add that it was gendarme blue that did the intriguing in this case.—Life.

No wonder the fat man chuckled

I SWELLED with pride.
THE FAT man next to me.
WAS READING one.
OF MY cigarette ad.
AND I felt him chuckle.
NOW NO one had ever.
PRAISED THAT ad.
SO I had to ask,
IF HE liked it.
AND HE said, "Sure."
AND LAUGHED some more.
THEN HE said,
"LOOK HERE" and pointed.
AND WHERE I'd written.
"PURE TOBACCO."
THE PRINTER had set.
"PURE TABASCO."
AND THAT'S why the man.
THOUGHT MY ad.

WAS HOT stuff.
BUT THEN he said.
"FORGET THE ad.
I NEVER read 'em.
BUT LEMME tell you.
SOMETHING DIFFERENT.
THEY OUGHT to say.
ABOUT THAT cigarette.
AND THAT is this.
THEY SATISFY."
AND DARNED if I don't 'think.
HE REALLY believed.
HE WAS giving me.
SOMETHING NEW!

YOU can blame it on the printer if you don't see "They Satisfy" in a Chesterfield advertisement. But be sure of this—you'll find it in the cigarette every time. Wonderful Turkish and Domestic tobaccos, wonderfully blended—it sounds easy. But you'll find nothing else like Chesterfields. That blend can't be copied.

A World Necessity

WHAT makes possible the running of farms and businesses; the erecting of schools and churches and homes; the building of roads; the payment of wages; in short, the carrying on of human activities and life itself? It is saving, your saving, our saving, the saving of those who lived before us, that makes these things possible.

You couldn't borrow if someone hadn't saved and when you haven't saved enough for your own use you must pay others for the use of what they have saved. It's fair, isn't it?

But why not save for yourself, receive five per cent interest on your savings and accumulate enough to buy things you will want with your own money?

Opening a savings account with us will help you to do these things.

NUMERICALLY SPEAKING

Pat, lately over, was put to work in a railroad freight yard, but was later transferred to the telephone switchboard. The buzzer buzzed and he approached the instrument cautiously. "Hello," he vouchsafed. "Hello," answered a voice. "Is this eight-six-four-eight?" "I am not," retorted Pat wrathful. "Tis in the yards ye'll find the box cars."

I have had dizzy spells and headaches that came on when my kidneys were out of order. I can say that just a few Doan's Kidney Pills always regulate my kidneys and cure me of the attack. It Was a Profitable Joke For Both of Them

Two girls were working in the same shop several years ago. The question of saving money came up one day, but these girls said they could not spare anything from their small earnings.

But just as a joke one of the girls said: "I dare you to start a savings account with me and see who can save the most"—so they started.

A few years later, one of these girls quit working at the shop to get married. She was surprised to find more than $600 in the bank to her credit—a very welcome sum at such a time.

The other girl is still working and she continues her visits to the bank each week. Her account is well above $2,000 now, and it is growing fast. Her interest money each year is more than her first year's savings amounted to.

Perhaps this story will suggest a plan that will work as well for you.
