WOMAN WEIGHED ONLY 89 POUNDS

Was Dreadfully Run Down But Rapidly Regained Health Since Taking Tanlac

Mrs. W. H. Hoening, R. F. D. No. 1, Box 45, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, says: "About two years ago I was taken down with the 'flu,' which left me in a badly run-down condition and as weak as a baby. My stomach was left in such a bad fix I couldn't eat without suffering intense pain. I lost weight till I weighed only eighty-nine pounds. I was so nervous that any excitement would run me almost wild and sleep was almost impossible for me. "I heard how Tanlac was helping others who had been in a run-down condition and made up my mind to try it. I have gained back eleven pounds of my lost weight and am still gaining. I have gained wonderfully in strength, I eat just anything I want and I am feeling fine and enjoy living more now than at any time in the last eight years."

AT THE MOVIES

"From Now On," a William Fox feature starring George Walsh, is the attraction at the Imperial this evening, together with the Alliance high school junior class play, "Patty Makes Things Hum," under the direction of Mrs. Inice Dunning. The picture tells the story of the duping of a young man who just come into a fortune and of his efforts to regain the money out of which he had been swindled. Not until the very last scene does the action let up.

James Fenimore Cooper's "The Last of the Mohicans" is the feature for Saturday. The play is produced by Maurice Tourneur, who was responsible for "Treasure Island" and "The Blue Bird". The production is a graphic pictorial history of America in the early days and is unlike a number of literary classics in that it is interesting.

Sunday's attraction is "The Man Lost Himself," with William Faversham, noted stage celebrity, in the leading role. It is described as a mystery comedy drama with setting in London. It concerns the adventures of an American who goes to sleep one night as plain Victor Jones, of Philadelphia, and awakes the next morning as the Earl of Rochester, with a house full of ornate servants and disagreeable relatives, a beautiful wife from whom he is supposed to be estranged, and a reputation that makes him one of the most shunned men in English polite society. Poor Jones has an equally hard time living up to the title or trying to get away from it, and his numerous odd adventures are said to constitute one of the most remarkable comedy dramas ever presented on the screen.

AMERICAN LEGION NOTES

He-men from West Virginia to Texas have presented themselves as suitors to Sally, the otherwise unidentified young lady who wrote to the M. d.-West Veteran, Nebraska American Legion paper, outlining her requisites for a husband. Sally's timid appeal for a Legion member with a "great deep voice" who "swears when necessary, steps out late, isn't afraid to chew tobacco," has resulted in a number of letters to the American Legion Weekly from aspirants for her hand.

There is a dubious West Virginia swain, par example, who avers that he is a "West Virginia snake" and fears neither "man, devil nor beast," but who restricts his dissipation to staying out to lodge four nights a week and going to movies two night. "He he does not swear, he admits. A modest Wisconsin Lothario "can not stay out late at night or chew tobacco successfully, but can smoke." Endowed with a great deep voice, this veteran declares that he "lost it trying to hoe farm help in 1920."

Sally's plea of love inspired a lyrical Texas suitor to express himself in verse:

He should be broad and thick and long
With a voice for a curse or a song.
A sergeant of the line;
A gob of the deep sea brine.
A handsome cook or shavetail loot
Or a fightin' bold marine.
And if he's a hardboiled hembre
That'll fight till the cows come home—
Why then he's the guy for Sally
And to him we'll bare our duce.

A hungry rooster, who had missed his meals for five hours, made a fraction over $1.15 for each grain of corn he could gobble in a three-hour feast for the women of the American Legion's auxiliary in Cimarron, Kansas. After being sold twice and then auctioned off, the fowl netted $328 for the auxiliary. Placed in a show window for hours without his breakfast, the bird suddenly faced 1,000 grains of tempting Kansas corn. Guesses were sold at ten cents each as to how many grains he would eat. He tucked away 283 grains and retired for the night.

The first pilgrimage of gold star mothers overseas to visit the graves of their sons will begin about June 1, when 100 women of the American war mothers organization will sail for France on the steamship America. In France the mothers will be guests of the woman's auxiliary of the Paris post of the American Legion.

Colonel Hubert Work, of Pueblo, Colo., is the latest veteran of the world war and member of the American Legion to take a high administrative office under President Harding. Colonel Work has been named first assistant postmaster general of the United States. A practicing physician in Colorado for twenty-five years, Dr. Work served in the army medical corps during the world war, and was at the time of appointment a colonel in the medical reserve corps.

Sixty Sioux Indians, who served as intelligence scouts in the world war, will entertain delegates and visitors to the third annual convention of the American Legion at Kansas City next fall, with a tribal war dance.

Disabled veterans of the world war, nearly all of them overseas veterans and members of the Walter Reed post of the American Legion in Washington, D. C., have adopted what they term "the creed of the disabled man," which was commended by President Harding. The creed reads as follows: "Once more to be useful, to see pity in the eyes of my friends replaced with commendation, to work, produce, provide and feel that I have a place in the world, seeking no favors and given none, a man among men in spite of this physical handicap."

After spending almost an entire day talking about the movie bill the senate finally decided to lay it over until 2 o'clock Monday before taking further action. The committee reported out the house bill for discussion. Senator Beebe proposed amendments which, practically, amounted to a new bill. The substitute bill does not provide for a board of censorship. It specifies what pictures may not be shown and intends that it shall be enforced the same as other laws are enforced. It also provides for a $1,000 deposit which will be forfeited in case of violation of the law. The big dispute was over the adoption of the substitute. The vote was a tie. At the time this is written it is said that two or more senators who voted for the house bill are about to change their minds and that it will be killed.

Some FACTS About

Here are authentic figures from the Ford factory at Detroit. They show you just how many Ford cars and trucks have been built each month since January 1, 1921 and how many have been sold to retail customers, in the United States.

	Produced	Delivered to Retail Customers
JANUARY	29,883	57,208
FEBRUARY	35,305	63,603
MARCH	61,886	87,221
Total Production	127,074	Total Retail Sales 208,032

showing that actual sales for the first three months of 1921 exceeded production by 80,958 Ford cars and trucks!

April requisitions already specify 107,719 additional cars and trucks and the estimated April output of the factory and assembly plants combined calls for only 90,000!

These facts clearly show that the demand for Ford products is growing much faster than manufacturing facilities to produce and were it not for the dealers' limited stocks, which are now being rapidly depleted, many more customers would have been compelled to wait for their cars. It will be only a matter of weeks, therefore, until a big surplus of orders will prevent anything like prompt deliveries.

If you would be sure of having your Ford car or truck when you want it, you should place your order now. Don't delay. Phone us or drop us a card.

Be Generous With Yourself

You have been "good" to your friends for a long time. You have been a spender. No one ever called you penurious, or close, or tight. But what have you to show in return?

Why not be a "good fellow" to yourself, open an account with this bank and turn your generosity to your own account and credit? The results will show up in a short time, and of a most satisfactory nature at that.
