Let's go fishin'. Get your fishing tackle and rods at Thiele's. 45-46 Maybe some men like to go to prize fights because at a prize fight is one instance, at least, of where men's rights are still on exhibition. It seems to be the consensus among the allies that this proposed disarmament ought to begin with Germany.

Cops Kept Busy Keeping Hoboes Moving Onward

The Alliance police force and the Burlington special agents are being kept on the jump these days, keeping the annual spring influx of hoboes on the move. It's possible, of course, to curb the invasion by throwing every vag into jail, and if there were plenty of street work, this might be profitable. Under present circumstances, however, the city would simply have to set up a boarding house. The number of hoboes riding the rods is said to be larger this year than ever before. Every freight train is infested with them and even the passenger coaches are not immune. Chief Jeffers estimates that as many as eighty have come in on trains in a single night, and the police authorities have been content to keep them leaving as rapidly as they arrive. Every time a freight is about to leave, the officers make a roundup and encourage the sons of rest to take a little trip onward and elsewhere. As yet, there has been no increase in crime in the city, due to this additional population, although the number of back door handouts requested has been large. There has been but one robbery, that of the Golden Rule, which is not attributed to the hoboes, and one reported holdup, which the cops say they are satisfied was a fake. The hoboes seem, as a rule, anxious to get on. They don't know where they're going, but they're on their way. One night last week twenty men applied for a place to sleep and were allowed to park their carcasses on the cement floor at the city hall. The cops prefer to have them sleeping where an eye can be kept on them rather than to permit them to roam the streets. On pleasant nights, dozens of them are to be seen doing about the railroad company's property. The hobo movement started about six weeks ago, and the number of those who have been riding the rods is steadily increasing.

BAD BACK TODAY?

Backache is usually kidney-ache and makes you dull, nervous and tired. Use Doan's Kidney Pills for weak kidneys—the remedy recommended by your friends and neighbors. Ask your neighbor! Mrs. E. E. Bates, 114 Platt Ave., Alliance, says: "I have great confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills. They have saved me many doctor bills in the past twenty years. I have occasional attacks of kidney complaint and if I neglect it I suffer a great deal with my back. I get lame across the small of my back and I can hardly get around to do my work. If I stoop over I get dizzy and can hardly see. I get Doan's Kidney Pills at Thiele's Drug Store and take them just as directed. They always cure me of the attack." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Bates had. Foster-Milburn Co. Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
