

SOCIETY

A number of Eastern Star members will attend the state convention to be held at North Platte, Tuesday Wednesday and Thursday of next week. There will be a reception Monday night and the grand chapter opens at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. Mrs. George A. Davis, grand matron, will preside. This will end her year of service, during which she has made one hundred and thirty-six visits to various chapters of the state, a record that has not been surpassed.

The sessions will be held in the Franklin auditorium. The chamber of commerce will entertain the visitors with auto trips to points of interest in the locality, including Buffalo Bill's ranch. The exemplary work, instead of being given by the hostess chapter, will be given by seventeen members chosen from delegates. Of this team, Mrs. Patmore of Alliance, is to be chaplain. Wednesday is to be McCook day, and one hundred delegates are to attend from that place. Practically seven hundred delegates are expected altogether, representing the 27,000 members of the state.

Those who will attend from the Alliance chapter are: Mrs. Ella Young, Mrs. Ethel Bogan, Mrs. Gertrude Pate, Mrs. Martha Patmore, Mrs. Eliza Davidson, Mrs. E. G. Laing, George A. Davis, Mrs. Claudia Dole, Mrs. Helene Ponath and Mrs. Leafie Beach. They will be joined by Mrs. Leora Walker, who is now visiting relatives at Arnold, Neb.

Bridgeport News-Blade: County Judge Marquis performed the marriage ceremony uniting Carl R. Nelson and Miss Blanche McReynolds, on Tuesday, at his office in this city. Both parties are of Alliance, the groom being a locomotive engineer on the Burlington.

E. S. P. C. The East Side Progressive club met Wednesday, May 4th with Mrs. Nels Peterson. Fifteen members and five visitors were present. The afternoon was spent informally, and a lunch was served. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Putman, Wednesday, May 25.

O. E. S. Initiation was held Tuesday evening at which eight candidates were received. Refreshments were served after the work. A good attendance is reported. This was the last meeting at which Mrs. George A. Davis, the present grand matron presided, as her term expires next week.

The East Third-street ladies' club met at the home of Mrs. T. D. Roberts Tuesday afternoon. Those taking part in the program were Mrs. G. W. Rathburn, Mrs. P. D. Roberts, Mrs. C. D. Eider, Mrs. F. W. Buchman and Mrs. W. M. Wilson.

Mrs. J. S. Robbins will be hostess to the young people's missionary circle of the Christian church Monday evening, at her home at 419 Platte. Leslie Miskimen will be assisting host. The topic will be "The Bible and the Nation," with Leslie Miskimen, leader.

Mrs. F. M. Phelps delightfully entertained the M. E. choir last evening. A guessing contest was held at which Miss Josephine Wilson won. Refreshments were served and music for the Mother's Day program was rehearsed.

Julius F. Moffat of Denver, Colo., and Miss Anna LeBrane of Crawford were married by County Judge Tash Wednesday morning. The couple will make their home in Denver.

The Adult Bible class of the Christian church met at the church Tuesday evening for a social and business meeting. A basket supper was served at six o'clock.

RANDOM SHOTS

We venture to suggest to Bill Harper that he learn the words to that touching little song, "I took a flower to my love, and on the way I dropped it." Then, the next time his Lion cubs treat him that way, he can get even.

Of course, if all he wanted to do was to get even, he could sing anything.

A democrat was observed walking openly on the streets yesterday morning. Of course, it was early in the morning.

Some of those cars at the auto show do make a man wish that kale grew on trees.

One of these starters is a handy thing, but it isn't in it with a good stopper when you feel the need of it.

If we ever invent a car, we'll have no less than seventeen emergency brakes. Half of them will be set so as to work when the driver simply thinks of it.

Today's Best Story.

"Rabbit," aged fourteen, is a negro shine boy in a barber shop in South Carolina. He comes in for a good share of good-natured chaffing from the customers. One of them said to him the other day: "Rabbit, I believe you've got ancestors." "Ain't got 'em, boss," returned Rabbit, gravely. "Ah clar ter goodness ez how ah washed mah hair jist yistidy."

Fair Warning

The Big Sale on the Famous

We are sure that after this sale has closed Saturday there will still be many women who will ask for the Club Plan terms on a Red Star stove.

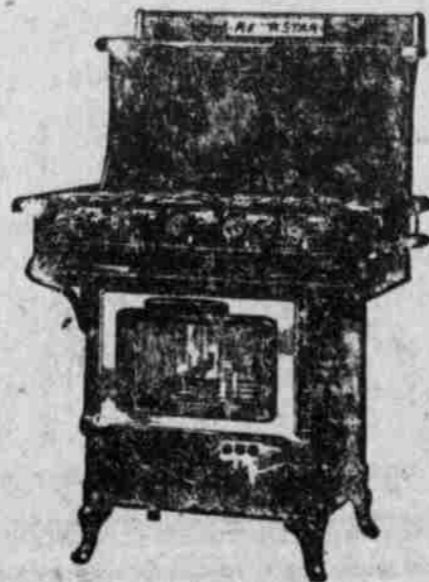

But we give you fair warning that, as much as we should like to, we cannot extend this offer beyond that time.

This sale has been conducted under special arrangements with the makers of this advanced-type and after Saturday terms will go back to normal.

When you consider that this is a standard nationally-advertised product with a tremendous demand, you will understand that our Club Plan terms of
