

AT THE CHURCHES

BAPTIST CHURCH

Next Sunday will be a special day, it being Mother's Day we will observe it appropriately.

At the morning service we will have a full orchestra to provide the music, beside special songs by the choir.

The sermon will be on "The Ob-scure Mother." A dollar will be given to anyone that guesses the text. All together now—who will get the dol-lar?

At the afternoon service we will organize an Intermediate B. Y. P. U. All children are asked to bring a nail, spike or tack at this service. All kinds of nails, rusty, crooked, new and old, shoe tacks or phonograph needles. Come and you will be pleasantly sur-prised.

At the evening service the topic will be, "Father, the Forgotten." Fathers bring the boys and girls and let's make it a family night.

All members who have cars are asked to bring them to the morning service.

Come to the church with the mes-sage and where folks are happy.

B. J. MINORT, Pastor.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

God has instituted the church for His worship, fellowship and service.

You cannot meet or serve Him fully outside His organization. Do you be-lieve in God? "Ye shall keep my Sab-baths and reverence my sanctuary: I am the Lord." "Ye cannot serve God and mammon."

Next Sunday is Mothers' day and it will be fittingly observed at 11:00 a. m. Theme: "Your Mother's Bible and Your Mother's God."

Evening service at 8 o'clock. Theme: "The Churches Call for Consecrated Manhood and Womanhood."

Young People's society at 7 p. m. Topic: "Living Close to Christ."

All are cordially invited to attend these services, in the name of Him for whom we minister.

First Presbyterian church, corner of Box Butte avenue at Seventh street.

A. J. KEARNS, Pastor.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Mother's Day is observed through-out our land. Next Sunday the morn-ing services will be in honor of mother.

The subject is: "The Influence of Mother." If your mother is living or dead, you will desire to honor her by your presence at these worshipful services.

At the evening hour the minister will begin a series of ser-mons on "Messages From Isaiah." The first will be "Israel's Social Unrest."

Let us be comrades in the common cause. The teachings of the Christ should not only be made a part of our life, but in reality life's purposes and plans should be guided by them.

At 3 p. m. the junior department of the Bible school will give a Mother's program to which their mothers are invited.

The Endeavor prayer meetings at 7 o'clock and the evening preaching service at eight.

Come to the church with a message and a welcome.

STEPHEN J. EPLER, Minister.

METHODIST CHURCH

Next Sunday, being Mother's day, will be observed in our church with appropriate services both morning and evening. At the morning service the pastor will preach on "The Reward of Motherhood." In the evening at 8:00 o'clock, the choir will give a musical program entitled, "Mothers of the Bible." Joe Holland will give a read-ing followed by a solo.

The program is as follows:
Song, "Tis Mother's Day."
Story, "Our First Mother, Eve."
Song, "Precious Mother."
Song, "God of Our Mothers, Guide Our Way."

Story, "The Mother of Moses."
Song, "Oh Harken to my Cry."
Duet, "Beyond Today."
Story, "The Mother of Israel."
Deborah's Song, "Praise Ye the Lord."

Story, "Ruth."
Song, "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee."

Reading, Joe Holland.
Solo, Joe Holland.

Story, "Mary, the Mother of Jesus."
Anthem, "The Magnificat."

Song, "Mother Dear, Jerusalem."
You will find a welcome at these services.

MEARL C. SMITH, Pastor.

Ben Grinstead Buys the Harvey Cafe of Reed and Trabert

Ben Grinstead of Central City, Neb. has purchased the Harvey cafe of Reed & Trabert, and taken immediate possession. The restaurant was closed for alterations, but will open again for business, with the new management, Saturday under the name of the Ranger Sudden Service cafe. Mr. Grinstead, who has been engaged in similar business in Central City, has leased his restaurant there for five years, and will take ac-tive charge of the place.

Grinstead was, in earlier days, a resident of Alliance, having lived here some ten years ago. He will be re-membered by the older residents and especially the baseball fans. Ben used to swing a wicked bat on the diamond, and won for himself the nickname of "Old Reliable."

Bridgeport News-Blade: Mrs. L. J. Russell returned to her home at Alli-ance Monday, after a visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Louis Wilson, who lives near Bridgeport.
