UNFAIR ADVANTAGE

In conversation with Muriel, Myrtle confidentially announced that the engagement of their mutual friend Melissa to the young minister was off. "She told me he was awfully nice in many ways," went on Myrtle, "but he was horribly jealous and took undue advantage of his position."
"How was that?"
"Well, every time she had an engagement to motor with some other man, he would pray for rain."

HEMINGFORD

Mr. Scott, the father of George Scott of the Scott's Shows was taken very sick while the carnival was on here last week and died on Tuesday of this week. The funeral was held at the Methodist church on Thursday, July 14 at 10 o'clock with Rev. A. J. May conducting the service. All who knew Dad Scott learned to love him and he was well cared for at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dunn.

Mr. Requette, the superintendent of the chautauque for Hemingford this year, arrived on Monday of this week and on Thursday afternoon the five-day program started off with considerable interest. The Rudolph's Swiss singers and players gave the first program which was highly appreciated. Matthew Wayman gave his great lecture in the evening.

Friday was the Metropolitan Glee club and Beatrice Stewarts Weller, the cartoonist. It was fine and the interest grows.

The program for the remainder of the time is as follows:
Saturday—the Band-o-Singers, Taylor's. This will be a wonderful day. Don't miss it. Saturday night is Joy Night. Everybody come.
Sunday, the Montersies in the afternoon and the noted Mrs. A. C. Zehner. She is a most wonderful speaker. Hear her sure.
Monday will be the closing day. Douglas Brown will give his lecture, "Some Bone Heads I Have Met," in the afternoon and the Wales Chautauque players will give "Rejuvenation" for the closing program.

Poster May who has been in South Dakota for several weeks, arrived home last week.

The services will be held in the chautauque tent next Sunday. The Sunday schools will hold their meeting in the respective churches and dismiss in time to reach the tent for the services.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Leizure were called home Monday night by the death of Mrs. Leizure's father at Blair, Neb. They left on No. 42 Monday night.

W. L. Clark and wife and Rev. A. J. May and wife drove to Alliance Monday of this week in Mr. Clark's car. Ben Johnson accompanied them and drove home in a new Ford.

Mrs. A. J. May expects her sister, Mrs. Mable Rush on Saturday of this week. She and her husband will remain for a few days and then return to their home at Mt. Vernon, Ill. They are visiting now in Spearfish, S. D.

Rev. and Mrs. Cox left Thursday for a vacation visiting their daughter at Halsey and then spending some time at Purlum, Neb. They will drive and expect to be gone about four weeks.

A big fire occurred Saturday night on the Hutton & Clark farm, four miles west of town. Mr. Adams lives on the place and after they had finished the day's work and Mr. Adams had retired, Mrs. Adams discovered a light reflected on the house and discovered that the barn was on fire and beyond saving. This was one of the finest barns in the community and the loss is quite heavy. Mr. Adams lost about $800 worth of property in the fire. It is supposed that the fire originated from the alfalfa in the mow.

A serious accident occurred last Thursday evening about five o'clock on the farm of C. C. Hucke, when one of the boys, Orvil, was thrown from a hay rake while driving from the field to the house. The horses became frightened it seems when the tongue broke. He was pulled from the rake and got tangled in the lines and was dragged for about thirty rods and was left unconscious, face down on the ground.

At noon Monday there seemed to be no change and is still in an unconscious state. There were many bruises on the head and face and the body was also badly bruised. There is strong hopes that he will recover.

Mrs. M. H. Kennedy and son Longley, were passenger Monday. They expect to return Sunday.

Pat Welch will ship a car load of horses to the Grand Island market on Saturday. This will be the first car of live stock shipped from Ellsworth this season, but from the outlook the cattle shipments will soon start going. We look for a larger quantity than was handled last year. Many of the ranchers plan on a few car loads the last of this month.

Perry Law, A. Moore and B. F. Bollinger motored to Alliance Monday. We are enjoying a great season in baseball. Not only is everybody having lots of fun but our team is winning their share of the games and receiving good support. Out of twelve games played we have won eight and lost four. Sunday we played three games, defeating the "Pickups" 12 to 2, and in the regular scheduled afternoon game Lakeside was defeated 13 to 11. However, a second game of seven innings was played with Lakeside and they won 17 to 9, twenty-one innings being too much for our one pitcher to throw in one day and Ellsworth line-up was changed in such a way that it didn't prove profitable in the last game.

This coming Sunday Ellsworth plays at Bingham with the Sand Hill Cubs, the winners playing the Bingham team. We have twice defeated the Bingham aggregation and they will be "all lined up" to give us a hard battle, should we defeat the Cubs. Both of these games will be five inning games. In addition to the ball games, Bingham has lined up to have some riding and races and a big day is anticipated. Come to Bingham and watch us win.

Miss Myrtle Arms, Mrs. Wm. Steele, Mrs. Anna Bennett and Mrs. A. H. Arms, motored to Alliance Wednesday.

J. E. Foy, traveling for the Standard Oil company, with headquarters at Alliance, was an Ellsworth visitor last Monday.

Walter Wightman and J. L. Young were Lakeside visitors Tuesday afternoon.

Dr. G. W. Joseph of Crawford recently visited his daughter, Mrs. J. L. Young.

Edward Kennedy visited his sister, Mrs. Ross Schafenburg at the Joy ranch Wednesday and Thursday. Hay will start there about the 20th of this month and Ed will probably assist with the work.

George Hannaff of Casper, formerly a resident of Ellsworth, is visiting at the Kennedy home.

D. C. Vining of Litchfield who relieved Mr. Kennedy as station agent the past two weeks, has returned to his home. Mr. Kennedy is much improved in health since his stay at the Thermopolis baths.

Don't forget the ball game at Bingham Sunday.
