

Police to Enforce Auto Regulations After July 23

The following regulations have been issued by the department of public works and police officials have been asked to see that they are enforced on and after July 23:

1. Two white lights are required on the front and one red light on the rear of every automobile used at night.
  2. Spot lights may be used provided they project their light directly on the ground and at a distance not exceeding 30 feet in front of the car.
  3. Diffusing lenses will not be approved by the department and their use is prohibited. It is impossible with a lens of this type to control the light so that with a sufficient driving light, there will be no glare. Examples of diffusing lenses are: Warner, More-Light and Perfection.
  4. Gas or oil lamps need not be equipped with approved lenses.
  5. Electrical headlights using a bulb of more than four candle power must be equipped with an approved lens. No bulb shall be over twenty-four candle power.
  6. Plain glass lenses will not be permitted, even though they are in a headlight which may be tilted by means of a lever controlled from the driver's seat.
  7. Homemade devices will be prohibited. While these devices to a certain extent eliminate glare, the driving light as a rule is reduced below the required minimum. Under the law, the department of public works is required to approve every lens used; and if homemade lenses were submitted for approval by everyone making them, the fee for the examination of the lens would be prohibitive for those desiring to use them.
  8. The Standard Ford Green Visor headlamp has been scientifically designed and is machine made, and in the test has passed all of the requirements.
  9. Frosted bulbs are prohibited. With a lawful lens, they are not necessary.
- Every lens which has been approved by the department of public works has passed the same set of specifications which have as their basis the necessity of plenty of properly controlled driving light. The lenses approved to date are as follows:
- Raydex, Osgood, Macbeth, Liberty, Patterson, McKee, Shaler, Violet Ray, National, Bausch & Lomb, Primolite "B," Ford Green Visor, Sun Ray, Glareless, Legalite, Holophane, Dillon No. E, Conaphore Clear, type F.
- All of the above lenses, for their usefulness, depend upon optical principals. None of them are lawful unless the bulb is properly focused and the headlight as a whole is given the proper tilt. A camera, telescope or reading glass to be of any use, must be focused.

RANDOM SHOTS

When the chamber of commerce members were discussing the Gulf-Plains-Canadian highway, which will pass through Alliance, one member said enthusiastically, when the splendid idea had percolated: "We sure do need a good auto road to Canada?"

Why not an airplane route to Cuba?

Small boy was trudging along the street, clutching in both tired hands a heavy electric iron. Friendly business man, feeling friendly, called out: "Be careful, buddy, you'll drop that iron on your toes." The kid made no reply for half a minute, but finally looked up defiantly at the friendly man and said: "We'll it ain't my iron." Business man, grinning, said: "Yes, but they're your toes." The kid walked on. Ten or twelve steps later he stopped and faced around. "I guess I know they're my toes," he said severely. And this was the diplomatic dispatches would say, ended the incident.

A Chadron newspaper is all fussed over the fact that someone sent in an unsigned letter telling about the marriage of Mrs. Ida Adams and Mr. Abram Mills. Ida and Abram didn't do it, and the editor, concluding that he is the victim of a practical joker, is pretty hot under the collar. Some time, he opines, editors will earn to place all unsigned communications in the wastebasket. However, a lot of good news sometimes is contained in letters the writers forget to sign. Why wouldn't it be just as easy to verify news before printing? Some good editors do that.

We learned our lesson some years ago, when we had to hide out for nearly twelve days. Some joker sent in a birth announcement and we printed it without verifying. All of us have to live and learn, and the Chadron editor who suggests handing it over to the postoffice authorities to trace the writer is taking it too seriously.

Montreal Herald: A large mastiff in Bingham, Ala., incurred the wrath of his master, who locked him up in the bathroom. The dog whined piteously for a while, then was quiet. When water began to leak from the ceiling the man investigated. Rover was found at the bottom of the tub, which was overflowing with water. He crawled in, pulled down the faucet and drowned himself.

GOOD TRAINING Means GOOD SERVICE

Every business man wants well-trained employees. He knows that he can not get good service from the untrained. We know that if our young men and young women are not properly trained for service that they can not hold their positions long, in which event our school would quickly lose its prestige. It pays the student to attend a school in which these things are understood and give proper attention for his ultimate success depends absolutely upon the type of preparation that he receives for the work that he will be called upon to do when he takes a position.

We are just closing the most successful year in the history of the College, both in the way of attendance and as to quality of work. We guarantee even better service and more efficient methods for this coming year.

As an inducement for early registration, we will give a liberal discount if you will make application during this month. This will mean $20 saving to you, so do not fail to send in your name at once. If you cannot become a resident student, then start your work by taking one of our correspondence courses.
