

NEBRASKA NEWS NOTES

Phone Users Still on Strike

BLOOMFIELD, Neb. — Subscribers of the Union Telephone company, 500 strong, will not submit to the 23 per cent rate increase granted the company last April by the state railway commission.

That was decided at a mass meeting of farmers and citizens last week, called to decide whether or not an examination and audit of the telephone company's books by an expert employed by the city was to be made. Subscribers voted unanimously against the audit, asserting that they would not pay the increased rates, regardless of what the examination might disclose.

At least 700 patrons have had their telephones removed because of the raise, it is said.

The 23 per cent raise was granted in April and will continue in force until December 31, 1921, when the old rate will be restored.

Because of a reported declaration by General Manager Begstrom that it will cost subscribers from $3 to $5 to have their phones reinstalled, a resolution was adopted demanding that no charge be made should the patrons decide to have the instruments replaced in their homes.

Fairbury a Peaceful Town

FAIRBURY.—Fairbury claims the record as a peaceable, law-abiding community. For four weeks there has not been a criminal complaint filed in this town, for violation of a state law or city ordinance. One reason is because there was no officer before whom to lay the complaint. L. J. Nutzman, county judge, has been in California, taking a vacation. He acts as police magistrate, complaints of violations of Fairbury city officers being laid before him.

There is no police magistrate in Fairbury since the death of Judge R. D. Russell, more than a year ago. The city council decided Fairbury did not need a police magistrate and the vacancy was never filled. At the last election there was no candidate for it. There is no justice of the peace in Fairbury and none within ten miles. Had a serious crime been committed within the past month, the preliminary hearing would have been held at Beatrice or Hebron or some other town. Not only was Fairbury short on magistrates but there has been a dearth of preachers authorized to perform the marriage ceremony. The deputy county judge, Miss Rogers, issued eight marriage licenses last week and six of these couples were married by practically the only preacher in town, Rev. Mr. Davies, all of the others being away on their vacations. With no crimes and few preachers Fairbury may be listed as the model town.

Riot Was Expensive.

OMAHA—The total bill which taxpayers will pay for repairing the court house damage will be nearly $500,000, about $45,000 less than the original estimate, according to a statement by John Latenser, architect.

A total of $450,174.48 already has been spent, which does not include carpets and shades, nor the architect's fees, the latter being 7 per cent of the amount expended.

It is nearly two years since workmen started to repair the damage which was wrought by the mob on the night of September 28, 1919. Treasurer Enders expects to return to his permanent offices on the second floor, and the court room on the fifth floor which he has been occupying will be restored as rapidly as possible.

In addition to the amount spent on building repairs, about $250,000 was expended in restoring records lost in the fire.

Referendum on Carnivals.

AURORA—At the council meeting, Wednesday night its members listened to an animated debate over the proposed ordinance prohibiting carnivals and street fairs. W. I. Farley and F. E. Edgerton presented the views of the people who attended the anti-carnival mass meeting at the court house. George Funk and Dr. Otis Newman spoke against the ordinance. They appeared to favor the carnivals on the streets of the city sponsored by American Legion. The council decided to put the proposition on the ballot next spring.

Ku Klux Klan in Nebraska.

OMAHA—Ku Klux Klan is now active in Nebraska, according to the Omaha Bee, which Sunday printed an article declaring that seventy-five candidates were initiated into the order at Lincoln. Posed pictures of initiation ceremonies, which the newspaper said were taken after the initiation was completed were published in connection with the article.

Utmost secrecy has surrounded the activities of 22 Klan organizers who have been working in Nebraska since May 18 and for the first time pictures and story of the initiation ceremonies were made public. Klans have been organized in Omaha, Lincoln, Hastings, Sutton, Neligh, McCook, North Platte, Council Bluffs, Fremont, Grand Island, Minden, Holdrege, Sioux City and Nebraska City.

A Dorothy Gish picture play will be shown at the Imperial tonight, "Little Miss Rebellion." It isn't a civil war film, no matter what the title may remind you of at first glimpse. Dorothy takes the part of the grand duchess of Bulgavia, wherever that is. This grand duchess is a royal little miss. Longing for freedom from the great castle in which she lives, the duchess steals out of the gate and mingles with some American doughboys in a baseball game, and meets one whom she takes a fancy to instantly. Then some revolutionists get on the job. Her Majesty is chased from her throne to New York, and the fun begins.

"Seven Years Bad Luck," said to be the funniest five-reel comedy ever made, is scheduled for Wednesday. In the leading role, Max Linder (as himself) gives the greatest comedy portrayal of his career. His is a hard luck story and the old jinx begins to work early in the picture when Max hurls a shoe through a large mirror, shattering it all over the set. His first blow comes when his fiancée returns the well-known engagement ring and asks him to visit a warm climate for a rest. Throughout the story Max proves himself a good fellow but certainly captures all ribbons and prizes for hard luck. In the end, however, the fates sort of let up on him and he is compensated for his fidelity.

Thursday's feature is Mary Pickford in "Through the Back Door." Our Mary has a little girl's part in the play, the plot of which goes something like this: A wife brings the spectre of divorce into her home when she became a petulant, dissatisfied sort of person through grief for a child she believes dead. The problem of restoring happiness in this household falls to the lot of Mary Pickford in one of her inimitable character roles. There are innumerable complications, some of them laughable, others quite tragic—all leading up to a denouement logical and satisfying.

FLIGHTY.

Pat had been debating politics with Mike. Pat stepped outside the boiler room to deposit his quid. Suddenly there was a terrific explosion and Mike disappeared through the roof. "Poor Mike!" ruminated Pat, sticking his head back into the room. "He always flies up into the air every time I argy with him."

HIS TROUBLE OF 20 YEARS ENDED

Cedar Rapids Man Regrets That He Didn't Know of Tanlac Years Ago — Almost Gave Up Hopes.

"My only regrets is that I didn't know about Tanlac years ago, for it would have saved me a world of suffering, to say nothing of all the money I spent trying to get well," said Frank Smock, 1338 Avenue A, East Cedar Rapids, Iowa. "Ever since I had malarial fever twenty years ago my stomach had been giving me trouble. I had to live on a restricted diet, and even then just suffered agony from sour stomach and bloating after every meal. At times the gas pressed up around my heart, causing terrible palpitations and almost cutting off my breath. My sleep was restless and broken, and I seldom was free of a tired, worn out feeling.

"Well, I almost gave up all hope of ever getting well, but I kept on hearing about Tanlac and I finally decided to give it a trial. My improvement has been almost beyond belief. I have a splendid appetite, am eating things I hadn't dared touch in years and never have the least pain of distress. I sleep like a log at night and get up mornings like a sixteen year old boy. Tanlac has certainly done wonders for me, and the best I can say for it is not as good as it deserves."

Tanlac is sold in Alliance by F. E. Holsten and by good druggists everywhere.

Ever Get Bilious? Try This

Take NR at once. Get digestive and eliminative organs working in harmony and relief is immediate. Never causes griping.

NR Tonight — Tomorrow Feel Right

When your liver goes on strike and you feel a sick headache and bilious spell coming on, instead of prodding your liver with dangerous calomel and lashing your bowels with strong, irritating purgatives, get out your box of mild, gentle-acting NR Tablets and take one right off. Relief will come just as quickly and with it genuine, lasting benefit. There will be no griping, gnawing pains or doubling stomach. Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) work promptly and thoroughly, but the action is gentle, mild and soothing. Relief comes through the action of Nature's Remedy on not only the liver, but on the whole digestive and eliminative system—the stomach, the bowels and even on the kidneys. Stored up accumulations of waste and body poisons that have been clogging the system are completely cleared out, the over-worked stomach is strengthened and the interrupted work of digestion and assimilation is resumed. The inactive liver goes to work with new vigor, the bowels are unburdened, the headache leaves, that dull, "dopey," want-to-crawl-down-a-hole feeling disappears, energy,

"pep" and appetite return and you find yourself entirely, completely relieved.

There is no better proof of the great value of Nature's Remedy for biliousness and constipation than the fact that more than one million NR Tablets are used every day—more than five million boxes sold every year.

If you've not already done so, get a 25c box of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) and take the first tablet tonight. If your constipation is stubborn or persistent, continue to take one each night for a week or so.

Then note how you feel. Your bowels will be as regular as clock work, and you'll find yourself in better shape physically, mentally, every way than you've been in many a day. After that you need not take medicine every day. An occasional NR Tablet to keep your system in good condition will be sufficient, and you can always feel your best. Remember it is easier and cheaper to keep well than to get well. Just try it. Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) is sold, guaranteed and recommended by your druggist.
