

The Alliance Rotary club had a special program at its Wednesday evening dinner at the Alliance hotel Palm Room. The program was based on the November issue of The Rotarian, and the speakers, drawn by lot, were W. R. Pate, Harry Thiele and H. P. Coursey. The speaker at the next meeting will be Dr. A. Moore of York, a Rotarian of some note. There is a ladies' night scheduled for this month and if the program committee so selects before next Wednesday, the ladies will be present to hear Dr. Moore.

The Alliance Lions club held its ladies' night program at the Palm Room of the Alliance hotel Thursday evening. A special dinner was prepared, and there were several comedy stunts to cheer up the members, including a fake popularity contest for the ladies and a visit by K. K. K. emissaries.

The bazaar given at the roof garden Tuesday evening by the ladies of St. Matthews' Episcopal church was an even greater success than had been anticipated. Nearly four hundred citizens partook of the chicken dinner, and the dancing in the evening was exceedingly popular. The fancywork and parcel post booths drew large patronage. In the various raffles, the following were holders of the lucky numbers: Mrs. J. S. Rhein, turkey; Mrs. W. B. Barnett, bed set; Mrs. Bernard Holsten, bed set; Mrs. C. W. Brittan, nightgown; Mrs. A. G. Isaacson, fancy basket of candy and fruit.

Mrs. Inice Dunning, music supervisor in the Alliance schools was honored at the state teachers' association meeting in Omaha last week by being elected chairman of the music supervisors' section for northwestern Nebraska. The hope of this organization is to put western Nebraska schools on the map musically next year. There are considerable difficulties in the way, but rapid progress has been made in the past few years, interest has been awakened, and the hope is that much can be accomplished.

Tom Gee, I-H-C salesman with headquarters in Alliance, has accepted the job of putting across the Red Cross roll call in Alliance, Box Butte county and the south half of Sheridan county. The time set apart for the roll call is Armistice day to Thanksgiving day, but in this territory it will be done in a short drive for membership. The date and plans will be announced later.

The Eastern Star held their regular Kensington Thursday afternoon at the Masonic hall. The afternoon was spent in tying comforts to be sent to the Eastern Star homes for children at Fremont and also to the homes for children and people at Plattsmouth. They are also planning to send a supply of toys and other gifts to these homes and all members are asked to bring their gifts to regular meeting on December 6 or not later than December 13, as the box will be packed and shipped on the 13th.

In response to the notice of the Chamber of Commerce published in Tuesday's Herald asking for donations of food or clothing for needy families, Mrs. W. J. Lorance gave fifteen chickens to be distributed by the Chamber of Commerce. As there are quite a number of needy families in Alliance, the chamber of commerce will be glad to have donations from any others who have something they can give.

The members of Alliance Post No. 7, American Legion, will hold the regular monthly business meeting and dinner at the Alliance hotel at 6:30 this evening. There will be a report from ex-soldiers who attended the national convention and plans will be made for the staging of the Legion's show, "The Follies of 1922" which is scheduled for early in January. The assistance of the Joe Bren production company has been secured. An interesting meeting is expected.

Tonight's photoplay at the Imperial is "The Tomboy", with Eileen Percy in the leading role. You will want to see this pretty blonde William Fox star in this picture. She's cute and she's funny. The story's funny. You'll have a good laugh. You'll enjoy yourself. Eileen is the "Babe" Ruth of the village baseball team. And when she goes after the bootleggers—that are selling liquor to her father—well, the bootleggers haven't a leg to stand on.

"The Passion Flower," with Norma Talmadge, is the feature for Saturday. In this production, which is adopted from Jacinto Benavente's fascinating tale of Castilian peasant life, Norma has the role of the lovely Acacia, the betrothed of the handsome Norbert. A most dramatic situation arises when Norbert, fearing the threats of Acacia's jealous step-father, deliberately jilts her by dancing with another beautiful Spanish damsel.

The Sunday attraction is "A Private Scandal." The plot revolves about a young French refugee who finds a home with a wealthy American family, and becomes the storm center of a love tangle in which the wife, neglected by her husband, has involved herself.

CARD OF THANKS.

The ladies of St. Matthews' church wish to thank the people of Alliance for their patronage at our Bazaar; also the business men and friends for their donations and those who assisted us in our work.

Some people live to a ripe old age, and some have brakes that won't hold.

CAR DOF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the old friends and neighbors who, by their many thoughtful acts and words of comfort in our recent bereavement, the death of our wife and mother, helped to make our load of sorrow weigh less heavily upon us. We wish to especially thank those who sang at the funeral service, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nason, Mrs. Herb Nason and Mr. and Mrs. Barton Kline.
