

The Alliance Odd Fellows gave a chicken banquet at the hall Thursday evening, followed by installation of officers and a show by the Hemingford Odd Fellows at the armory. About 250 guests were served at the supper, and the program at the armory was well attended. Lloyd C. Thomas was the toastmaster of the evening, and called on a number of Alliance people and the Hemingford visitors for short speeches. Among the speakers of the evening were D. F. Hiles, Noble Grand elect, S. B. Mitchell, Past Grand, F. O. Roe, F. W. Hicks, John R. Snyder and Mrs. E. C. Drake, and Rev. A. J. May, A. M. Vance and Winnie Uhrig of Hemingford. The comedy, "Riding the Goat," put on by the Hemingford visitors was very good, and furnished an hour's fun for all present. The following officers of the Alliance lodge were installed by Deputy Grand Master E. B. Garsby: D. F. Hiles, Noble Grand; H. W. Stille, Vice-grand.

Mrs. C. E. Powell entertained at a "baby shower" for Mrs. C. H. Jones Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in playing games and refreshments of sandwiches, salad, pickles, fruit jello and cake were served. Those present were Mesdames Hawkins, Cooper, C. G. Eaton, Frank Beeson, C. L. Wilson, W. M. Wilson, M. W. Pyle, C. C. Rodgers, Kenneth Mohrman, Stockwell, C. A. Pyle and C. H. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Franklin entertained at their home at 312 Toluca Tuesday evening with a farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McLaren. The evening was spent playing five hundred and whist. Mrs. Kenneth Nelson won the high score, and Mrs. Harry Johnson won the free-for-all. At the close of the evening, a delicious three-course luncheon was served. About eighteen guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth B. Nelson entertained at their home on 612 Yellowstone at a six o'clock dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John L. McLaren and family, who expect to leave soon for Lead, S. D., where they will make their home. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Franklin and Harry Nelson were among the guests present. The evening was spent in music and playing cards.

Mrs. J. S. Rhein entertained a few friends at a four-course six o'clock dinner Wednesday evening complimentary to Mrs. E. J. Rhein of Ravina, S. D. Those present were Mrs. E. J. Rhein, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Eldred, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hoag and the Misses Kathryn Kiegl, Avis Joder and Ann Anderson.

Mrs. R. S. Clark, of Hoffland, left Thursday for Dorchester, to ra weeks' visit with relatives. She will be joined there by her daughter, Mrs. Guy Klug, and they will then go to Sioux City, S. D., for a few weeks' visit with Mrs. Clark's mother, Mrs. Newton.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Robinson entertained a few friends at a card party Thursday evening. After playing card games, dainty refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mohrman and Mr. and Mrs. Vogel.

On account of the snow and bad roads, Miss Margaret Wagar, who is teaching district school No. 38, was unable to attend school Thursday and Friday. She lives in Alliance and drives her car to the school.

Mrs. F. E. Holsten, who left a week ago Wednesday for Omaha for an operation, is reported as doing well. She has been in the hospital for a week. Her daughter, Mrs. Marvin Dickenson, is with her.

The east side progressive club postponed their meeting that was to be held on January 18 for three weeks. They will meet at the home of Mrs. Claussen on Wednesday, February 8.

Mrs. Joe Kuhn, of Keeline, Wyo., was an Alliance visitor Thursday having some dental work done. Alex Olds, of Hemingford, a brother of Mrs. Kuhn, accompanied her.

The rural woman's club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Powell on January 26, instead of at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Neiman.

Miss Katherine Shriner left Thursday for Lakeside for a few days' visit with Miss Wilma Mote, who is teaching in the Lakeside schools.

Miss Maude Wilcox was entertained at dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mikimen.

Little Miss Eileen Ford has been quite ill for the past few days. She is somewhat improved today.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our many friends for the kindnesses shown and the beautiful floral offerings given during the sickness and death of our son and grandson, Marvin F. Martin. Especially do we appreciate the efforts of Dr. Lee Farmer and Mrs. Ray Wilkinson.—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Farrell; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rocky and Family.

CHURCHES

LUTHERAN CHURCH Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock English service. Sunday school after the service. F. DROEGEMUELLER, Pastor.

CHURCH OF CHRIST. "Christ the Power and Wisdom of God," is the subject for the morning sermon. The evening sermon will be illustrated by the chart and is a continuation of our presentation a week ago. These chart sermons are full of inspiration and information.

The Bible school under the superintendency of Fremont Wilson is making progress. It is our intention to come as near making it a 100% school as is possible. Come at ten o'clock and stay until noon. We have one continuous service. The Junior orchestra plays at every service.

The young people's meetings at 6:30 are growing in efficiency and numbers. You will be helped by attending any one of the three. Come to the church with a message and a welcome. STEPHEN J. EPLER, Minister.

BAPTIST CHURCH. The men's class is still growing, we are expecting several new members to the class next Sunday. Fifty is our goal, and we expect to reach it before long.

Mr. Foster of Seattle, Wash., who is in Alliance on business, says, "At the present rate it won't be long long until this church will be able to get along without a pastor." He was referring to the many lay preachers we are developing. Last Sunday morning and evening, six men and one woman, and a young lady spoke from the pulpit. Miss Waldron's talk at the evening service was grand. She especially stressed the friendliness she found in our church when she came to the city a stranger. "I was a stranger and you took me in," was the gist of her talk. It made a wonderful impression with the packed house. We were again compelled to bring up the chairs from the lower floor. The choir did exceptionally well Sunday, and now with the new orchestra we will soon be in a position to satisfy the musical nature as well as the spiritual. The lay preaching will be a regular feature of our evening service. We are sorry our room is limited, but perhaps before many months we will meet the situation heroically. Plans are being considered that perhaps within the next year will begin to materialize.

And now comes the hint of a purse from Edgemont, surely it never rains but what it pours. We must make a visit to that point before long. The school is still growing, slow but sure. We hope to reach the 250 mark before many weeks. 299 on time Sunday. Remember we count none who comes after classes are called, so come early. Classes for all ages. Men's topic, "The need of coming out in the open, upon the burning question of the day." Lesson, John 19:38.

Morning sermon, "Living Advertisements." Evening Bible lecture, "Her Quest for Happiness." A story by the pastor.

B. J. MINORT.

METHODIST CHURCH. Next Sunday will be an unusual day at the Methodist church. Here is the program: Sunday morning, the Japanese preacher, Rev. Siatto, the only one we know of in the state, will speak, and his wife, in Japanese costume, will assist in the service. She has not been in this country long, but speaks English, as she has been educated in a missionary school. Rev. Siatto has been educated in Garrett Biblical institute, and speaks English well. We have understood that Mrs. Siatto is a fine violinist, and although we have sent a request that she bring her instrument, have not heard whether she will. However, you will enjoy this unusual service.

Sunday evening, we have a double header in pictures. First, the fascinating story of Bishop Bashford in China. Bishop Bashford has been called the greatest of the missionary bishops. Then we will show you the set of pictures on "New Romances in Borneo." You will want to see the trophies of the head hunters, the jungle scenes, the native cities, their own musicians, the religious and family life, and how Christianity is transforming "the wild man from Borneo" into a civilized being.

If the weather permits, there will be preaching at Fairview Sunday afternoon. Four large windows have already been taken as memorials in the new church, and four small ones by different societies. There still remains one large window suitable for a memorial, and three small ones suitable for Sunday school classes.

Floyd Donovan will lead the League Sunday night. He will present some interesting plans for the future work of the league. MEARL C. SMITH, Pastor

Hobo Bound Over to District Court On Theft Charge

A fragrant and vagrant hobo, who gave his name to the police as William Christianson, was arrested in the Burlington yards Wednesday night, and in county court Thursday afternoon pleaded guilty to a complaint charging him with entering a Burlington freight car with intent to steal. He was bound over to district court, his bond being fixed at $500, which he was unable to give, and in consequence he is listed among the guests at Sheriff Miller's hostelry.

Christianson is described as a typical specimen of the genus hobo.—He was very dirty, infected with lice and his personal appearance counted as much against him as his plea of guilty.

RANDOM SHOTS

Wonder if the girls still "roll their own" when the thermometer hovers about the zero mark?

Apparently, if it isn't exactly a case of peace among parsons, the warfare has progressed to the stage of armed neutrality.

At last there is workable definition of reciprocity, which requires no knowledge of the principles of economics to understand. A traveling salesman told Bert Laing all about it. "Canadian reciprocity," the salesman said, "means that we have to send back the bottles."

Bernard Shaw is the shock writer of the day. In response to an urgent request that he send a message to the church in America, he wired back "No use. Wouldn't pay any attention to anything I might say when they don't listen to Jesus Christ."

John M. Tyler, professor emeritus of biology of Amherst college, has been going into the secret of mankind's being as it were, and has arrived at the conclusion that in both appearance and structure, cats, rather than apes, give signs of being the ancestors of the human species.

Now that we come to think of it, we suppose there are several catty women in Alliance, but we have never yet met but one man, who in stature, motions and some phases of his mental development, shows the monkey ancestry. Maybe John is right.

TODAY'S BEST STORY.

Daughter was dressing for a party, and mother, who was perhaps a bit shocked, was remonstrating with her. "Isn't that dress a trifle low in the front?" mother remarked, gently. Daughter opined that it was just in style, and furthermore that she liked it that way. "Well, I don't know what the young people are coming to," sighed mother, "I know that if, when I were you age, I should have dressed that way, your grandmother would have been terribly shocked. Why, if she knew how you were dressing, she'd turn over in her grave, wouldn't she?" "Maybe so," said daughter, "but it would tickle grandpa."

A spud grower near Alliance sold a good share of his crop last fall. A short time ago he purchased a quantity of fancy seed potatoes, and paid a fancy price for them. In looking over a sack of the seed stock, a pocket-knife, which was recognized as one that he had lost during the potato harvest on his own farm, tumbled out on the floor. Now, the question is—but you can frame one yourself.

City Manager's Corner

(By N. A. KEMMISH)

Last night the city council passed an ordinance changing the names of streets in South Alliance, Belmont addition, Duncan's North Side residence tracts, Johnston's addition, Hill's addition, Wyoming and Reddish additions. The names were changed to correspond to the old established street names in the downtown sections. The east and west streets have numbers and are called streets; those north and south are called avenues.

Skating at the city park is in fairly good shape. We have flooded the park several times lately, but the frost went out beneath the ice and let the water drain away.

There is a few places where the snow has not been removed from the walks. It is important that this be attended to by the owners or agents of the property.
