ELLSWORTH.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilbaugh left Wednesday for a short business trip to Alliance expecting to return Thursday.
 Charles Murphy visited in Bingham between trains Tuesday returning on the local late that evening.
 Warren Wilcox, who has been attending school in Chadron, was called home Monday for a short time on account of the sickness of his father. While Mr. Wilcox is not really serious Warren was needed to help look after the ranch.
 Dennis Landrizen, while crossing the railroad tracks Tuesday near the Landrizen crossing discovered an angle bar from which all the bolts had been removed. A westbound freight train was flagged probably thereby saving a small wreck, the train crew on the west freight reporting the case at Ellsworth and Nos. 44 and 43 were thus warned.
 Another cut in section forces on the division, now works one man every other day except Tuesday when only one man works for three hours only Tuesdays. On account of that cut and a balky gasoline engine the local section was not inspected Tuesday morning and thus the broken angle bar was not discovered by the local rail workers.
 The Bingham community club announces a dance at the Bingham hall Friday night, January 27. Several from Bingham attended the Ellsworth dance here last Saturday night. The next Ellsworth dance will be given February 11.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Young spent Wednesday evening at the P. E. Law home where the evening was pleasantly passed at whist.
 McCarty Bros., south of Ellsworth, are filling orders for a car load of potatoes placed by John Lawrence of Alliance. The potatoes have been sacked and are stored in the winter cave near the right-of-way to be shipped as soon as the refrigerator car is set out. The potatoes are of an exceptionally good quality and it is said a good price was named in closing the deal.
 William J. DeBord of near Spauld has placed an order for one stock car to load hogs for the South Omaha market February 1. This will be the first car of hogs shipped from this point for some time although many of the cattlemen are now raising hogs as a side issue.
 Mrs. Anna Bennett made a business trip to Alliance Wednesday, returning Thursday. A breakdown and the cold weather preventing her from making the trip by automobile.
 Mrs. J. L. Young left Friday for Ardmore, S. D., where she will spend a few days visiting friends and relatives.
 William Arms of Pawlett spent Sunday at the home of his parents west of Ellsworth, returning to work Monday morning.
 Most men go in the hole by staying in a rut.

ANTIOCH

Frank Bushell, who works on the T. L. Briggs ranch, was seriously injured when the horse he was riding slipped on the ice. His ankle was badly sprained. He is somewhat better at this writing.
 Mrs. T. D. Campbell has been quite ill with the grippe the past week, is much improved at present.
 Roy Hoffland drove to Rushville Saturday accompanied by Dr. E. E. McClelland and Mr. Johnston. Mr. Johnston has been in poor health for a long time and in destitute circumstances. He will be cared for by the county poor farm.
 Miss Jennie O'Neil of Potter is visiting this week-end with Mrs. Lillian Hobbs. They were dinner guests at the H. E. Wolf home Saturday.
 The woman's club met at the club room Thursday. The extreme cold weather kept a number of members from coming out. The paper will be read at the next meeting.
 Earl Ferguson who has been suffering severely since an operation in Alliance, was taken to Kansas City Friday by Dr. Moore, where he will be treated by specialists.
 The basket ball game Friday evening between the Alliance second team and Antioch first team, was a splendid victory for the Antioch school who showed their splendid training and team work from start to finish. Score 18 to 28 in favor of Antioch. After the game a dance was given by the management of Mrs. Wiker of Alliance, furnishing the music. A splendid time was enjoyed by all.
 Quite a number left Antioch Saturday evening in the bus for the dance at the Tom Briggs ranch. The car broke down when only a few miles out of town and they returned a very unhappy party.
 Sunday evening a large number of citizens gathered for an old fashioned sleighing party on the hill south of town later going to the H. E. Wolf home, where hot chili was served. Those fortunate enough to attend report a delightful evening.
 Miss Rowena Drake, formerly of Antioch, who lately completed a three years' course in the nurses' training school in Omaha, is visiting at the T. H. Smith home. Tuesday evening Zilma Smith entertained a few friends in her honor.
 Ray Moore, John and William White arrived in Antioch Monday from Yoder. The boys are en route to their home-steads at Dewey, S. D. They will drive there.
 A. G. White is home for a few days. He has been working at Yoder.

POINT OF ROCK CREEK

Roy Nichols was a caller at Ernie Wienell's and William Essex's Monday.
 John Duskin took a load of hogs to town Monday.

 Shorty Wilkins returned from Crawford Tuesday night.
 Russel Gray was on the sick list last week.
 Edgar Hashman was a caller at the Ernie Wienell home one day last week.
 Mrs. Arthur Lore was an Alliance caller Monday.
 Howard Lore returned home Monday night from Sioux county.
 Arthur Denton came down with Howard Lore and is going to stay a few days with the Lore boys.
 Leo Hashman was operated on Monday at the Alliance hospital.
 The C. P. Mann family are all on the sick list.
 George Sapp was after a load of oats at Nichols' Monday.

BLACKROOT

The cold weather this week has been so severe everyone is worrying about their spuds. Some have oil stoves in their cellar, while others have lamps and lanterns.
 Jim Lovell returned home from Omaha last Wednesday. Johnnie Lovell went in after him, and they were three days getting from Hemingford to Curly.
 Harry Grosse is working at Pete Farrel's lately. They have been hauling hay from the creek.
 Everyone from this neighborhood has been suffering from a seige of grippe.
 Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Grosse spent Sunday evening at the Ivor Meeker home.
 Joe Romer has been putting up ice for the past week.
 Mrs. Beryl Dye returned last week from the eastern part of the state.
 The Blackroot items are few and far between this week as it has been so cold no one ventured very far from home.
 Mr. and Mrs. Carey Johnson announce the arrival of a fine baby boy on Sunday, January 15.
