OF-THE IORTHWESTERN CATTLE LOAN AND INVESTMENT COMPANY.

We, the undersigned incorporators, or ourselves and others hereafter to e associated with us, do hereby in pursuance of the statutes of the State of Nebraska, in such cases made and provided, associate ourselves as a body corporate, in the manner and for the arpose of forming an Installment Inestment Company in accordance with Article 17, of the 1919 Session Laws.

ARTICLE I.

Name.
Said corporation shall be and is hereby named the NORTHWESTERN CATTLE LOAN AND INVESTMENT COMPANY.

ARTICLE II. Place of Business. The principal place of business of the corporation shall be in the City of Alliance, Box Butte County, Nebraska.

ARTICLE III.

Nature of Business The general nature of the business to be transacted by the corporation is the extension of credit and the loaning of money to and for the benefit of the agricultural and live stock interests of Nebraska. In extending credit and making loans, the corporation may take security, by note and mortgage or otherwise, upon live stock, grain, hay, alfalfa and other farm products, and upon agricultural implements and appliances used for farm purposes. It may take, as additional security, mortother real estate. The corporation may also purchase notes and mortgages heretofore or hereafter executed upon such security. It shall have power and authority to handle, hold, sell, assign, transfer, endorse and guarantee the payment of any and all notes, bonds, mortgages or other obligations, taken, bought or held in the exercise of the powers herein granted. The corporation is further authorized and empowered to borrow money for corporate use; and, to that end, it may execute, endorse and deliver notes, bonds, mortgages, assignments, or other instruments or evidences of indebtedness, and guarantee the payment thereof; and it may pledge as security therefor any of the property owned or held by the corporation. The corporation may lease, purchase, own, hold and sell all real and personal property necessary for corporate use. In addition to the powers expressly granted herein, it is the intention to vest in the corporation all the incidental and implied powers necessary to carry out in a broad and liberal way the purposes of the organization.

ARTICLE IV.

Capital Stock. The authorized capital stock of the corporation is Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) divided into five hundred shares of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) each. Business may be commenced when two hundred fifty (250) shares have been subscribed and fully paid. Further subscriptions to stock and payments thereon shall be as directed and ordered by the board. Stockholders shall be liable for the full amount of their unpaid subscriptions. When fully paid for, the stock shall be nonassessable.

ARTICLE V. Life of Corporation. corpora

when its Articles of Incorporation have been filed, and it shall terminate on the first day of January, 1946, un-less sooner dissolved.

ARTICLE VI.

Indebtedness.
The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which the corporation shall at any time subject itself shall not exceed an amount equal to twothirds of the capital stock; Provided however, the above limitation shall not apply to notes, bonds or deben tures where the payment of such notes, bonds or debentures shall be secured by the actual transfer of real estate by trust deed or mortgage; which real estate so transferred shall be of twice the value of the par value of such notes, bonds or debentures; Provided, further, said limitation shall not apply to the guaranty of the cor-poration for the payment after transfer of any such notes, bonds or debentures.

ARTICLE VII.

Business-How Conducted. The affairs and business of the corporation are to be conducted by a board of five directors, and by the officers by them to be elected, and hereinafter provided. The directors may constitute three of their number an executive committee, with power to act,

ARTICLE VIII.

Annual Meetings-Election of Directors. The first meeting of the stockholders shall be held on the 10th day of January, 1922, and their regular annual meeting shall be held on the 1st Tuesday in February; Provided, however, no annual meeting shall be held until February. At the first meeting, and at each annual meeting thereafter, the board of directors shall be elected; to hold office until the annual meeting next after their election and until their successors are elected.

ARTICLE IX.

Election of Officers. The board of directors shall, as soon as possible after their election, elect from their own number a President, one or more Vice-Presidents, and a Secretary and Treasurer; to hold office until the annual meeting next after their election and until their successors are elected. One person may hold the offices of Secretary and Treasurer.

ARTICLE X.

By Laws-Vacancies. The board of directors shall have full power and authority to make all rules and by-laws necessary for the proper management and control of the business affairs of the corporation, and they may alter and amend the same. Vacancies occuring in the board of directors shall be filled by the stockholders; and other offices, vacant from whatever cause, shall be filled by the ARTICLE XI.

Corporate Seal. The corporation hereby adopts corporate seal, which shall contain the words: "NORTHWESTERN CATTLE LOAN AND INVESTMENT COM-PANY, CORPORATE SEAL.

> ARTICLE XII. Amendments.

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended by the stockholders at any regular meeting, or special meeting called for that purpose. A draft of the proposed amendment shall be submitted to each stockholder with the notice of the meeting to which it is to be considered, which notice shall be given at least ten days prior to the date of the meeting. An amendment approved by the holders of two-thirds of the capital stock shall be considered adopted, and be and become a part of the Articles of Incorporation; and the directors, or a majority thereof, shall thereafter subscribe, acknowledge, record and publish the same as by law required H. A. COPSEY, President. CHAS, BRITTAN, Secretary, JAY O. WALKER, Vice President. FRED W. HAYES, Director. BEATRICE O'BRYAN, Director.

THE OLD ORDER CHANGETH

A certain actor, noted for his numerous trips to the altar, was approached by a friend on Broadway just after he had announced his intention of annexing Wife No. 7.

"Well, old scout," said the friend
"I hear you'er going to get married

"Yes," replied the actor somewhat cheerlessly. "But the good old days have gone by. I can remember the time when a fellow asked a girl to marry him and she'd answer 'yes' right off the bat. Now she stops to ask him questions-whether he ever loved another and all that stuff."
