CHURCHES

CHURCH OF CHRIST.

The program that was given by the children and young people on Sunday evening was well attended. The twelve spies brought back an excellent report of conditions in Nebraska. Miss Billie Swensen as supervisor did excellent work in arranging the program.

On Friday evening when the Endeavorers gave the play, "The Early Bird," to a large and appreciative audience, each one acted his part well. Miss Ryckman who coached the play, gave a great many evenings to the study of the lesson, "Training for Personal Evangelism." This is a part of our plan for the pre-Easter campaign. Next Sunday will be "Young Folks Day." A sermon for the young people will be preached at the morning hour.

and in the evening after the Endeavor prayer meeting we will go to the M. E. church and join in the service which will be addressed by Dr. Theodore Hansen. This meeting is for all who are interested in purity of life and good morals. You can not afford to miss any of the above announced meetings.

S. J. EPLER, Minister.

BAPTIST CHURCH

The Bible school fell off ten, for some reason. Let us not lower our standard. The crowds kept up in number and interest. Three more presented themselves for membership last Sunday evening. This is but the beginning of a gradual gathering that we were looking for. Several more have promised to unite, thus making us feel that our labor is not in vain. Six have come forward the last two Sundays, and there are several new scholars in the Bible school.

The pastor will be glad to consult with any who need him, either in sickness, sorrow, or in need of advice of any kind. Especially will we be glad to receive the requirements of the Christian life and the church.

Wednesday evening prayer meetings will be held at 8 o'clock hereafter, instead of 7:30. The choir will practice from 7 o'clock to 8. This will be the permanent choir practice hours, thus we will heat the building but once for the two occasions.

The talk on, "Does It Pay to Be a Christian?" by Harold Clark, was well received, and he showed that it pays to be a Christian in all the crises of life.

Welcome to the friendly church with the friendly grip. B. J. MINORT.
