SPORT

Dope Bucket Upset in Many First Round Games

After leading throughout the game until the last two minutes Alliance's blue and white basketballers lost to Geneva in the first round of the state tournament 14-10. According to a wire from Coach Prince the team unaccountably blew up with victory in its grasp. This eliminates Alliance from the running, although the team will stay in Lincoln until Sunday when the tournament will be over. North Platte took Chappell's measure 16 to 8 as was expected in this part of the state. They are class B teams. Sidney lost to Columbus in what was evidently a fairly close game, 20 to 13. Gering walloped their old rival Scottsbluff, in a game that was watched with some interest. Gering, however, was picked to win by most fans, including the writer.

Former Champs Are Not Likely to Win This Year

Following is a list of the divisional champions of the 1921 tourney. It is very doubtful if there will be a team that won a class championship last year that will repeat in the same class this year. Some such as Ravenna may win in a higher class, however. Nebraska City, last year's class B champs has been pushed out of the running in the first round. Here is the list:
Class A—Omaha Commerce. Runner-up, University Place.
Class B—Nebraska City. Runner-up, Central City.
Class C—Kavanaugh. Runner-up, Friend.
Class D—Minder. Runner-up, Osceola.
Class E—Waco. Runner-up, Farnam.
Class F—Fairmont. Runner-up, Scribner.
Class G—Wakefield. Runner-up, Franklin.
Class H—Waverly. Runner-up, St. Edward.
Class I—Holmsville. Runner-up, Scribner.
Class J—Panama. Runner-up, Bertrand.
Class K—Greenwood. Runner-up, Odell.
Class L—Waterloo. Runner-up, Cedar Rapids.
Class M—Trumbull. Runner-up, Ashland.

Basket Ball Tourney Rapidly Increasing in Teams Entered

Lincoln High, although swamped 27 to 1, by Grand Island in this year's tournament, has a record of having won the championship five times in ten years. Beatrice has won twice, and Geneva, the team that conquered the locals, has won once. This was when Attorney E. L. Meyer, a local attorney, played for Geneva. Mr. Meyer also coached the high school team here, the last time that they won the western Nebraska championship until this year. The increase in the scope of the tournament is shown in figures setting out twenty-one teams as participating in the first meet in 1911, with Beatrice the champion. Omaha Central won the 1912 tourney and Geneva won the title from forty-four teams entered in 1913. Sixty-four entered in 1914, won by Lincoln. Classification started in 1915, when seventy teams entered, Lincoln again winning the cup. Beatrice came out with the championship in the 1916 meet from a field of eighty-five teams and in 1917 the entries went over the hundred mark. Lincoln won again. Lincoln also won the 1918 tournament, Shelton in 1919, from 150 entries, and Lincoln again 1920 from a field of 107 teams. Omaha Commerce won in 1921 from a field of 204 entries.

while this year's champs will be the best of 224 teams. All the foregoing are class A winners.

Alliance Prospects Will Be Bright For Track Season

The time for track sports is now approaching, and after the basketball tournament is over the attention of all high school athletes will be turned to it. Alliance after winning both football and basketball championships, should win the track championship also, as there are a number of good track men in school. Alliance should take the sprints, broad jump, pole vault, and 440 yard dash, as they have fast men in all these lines. While there is no proved material for the distances and weights, it is possible that this may be developed. The locals have for some time been extremely weak in the weight section, and of late have shown little strength in distances.

Dailey for the past two seasons has been beaten in the sprints by his old rival, Semmons of Bayard. Semmons now being at Chadron Normal, Dailey seems to have a clear field. Garvin is almost as fast as Dailey, and with these two Alliance should place first and second in all the short distance events. Garvin should also win in the broad jump if he is anywhere near his last year's form, and he also is a fair high jumper. Dailey with the best pole vault in the last year pentathlon should take this event. Strong with a record of 55 1-5 in the 440 should repeat this year and take this event. Cross is a fair hurdler and should place both the high and low varieties. As there are no tried distance or weight men it is doubtful if the locals will get very far in this.

Of course such an optimistic program as this cannot be expected to completely be carried out as there are upsets and unforeseen happenings in every line of sport. However the prospects are good and the blue and white should give good account of themselves. Scottsbluff should be good as they have some fast men.

Bayard, the one most feared last year, has lost all her athletes by graduation and will probably do little. Sidney had little last season but may be a dangerous rival this season. Nothing is known of Morrill which sprung a surprise by taking the meet last year and it is highly possible that they may repeat. This meet, which was held at Morrill was in a sea of mud and naturally cramped the style of some of the speedsters, who were unable to make any startling records, except two races run before the rain. These were the 440 in which the record of 55 1-5 was set and the 100-yard dash in which Semmons equaled the state record of 10 1-5.

Railroads Ask Graduated Scale of Shop Wages

Western railroads broke away from the stereotyped request for a blanket percentage reduction for shop workers at Chicago, Wednesday when they asked the United States railroad labor board, which is holding a nation-wide wage hearing, to permit a graduated scale of shop wages, based on wages paid for similar work in other industries in various railway centers. The board was asked to set a minimum rate for skilled mechanics and a maximum rate for apprentices. Within this range, the roads asked permission to pay wages for different classes of work equal to those paid for the same classes of work in other railroad shops. J. W. Higgins, speaking for 101 western railroads, presented a request for a reduction of the present 77-cent an hour rate for skilled mechanics to 67 cents as a minimum. He asked that a maximum rate of 54 cents for helper apprentices also be fixed.

Mrs. S. Blanchard who has been in the hospital at Omaha, returned home Tuesday. Her health is much improved now.

The young people of the neighborhood gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jelinek Wednesday evening of last week, giving Mrs. J. Jelinek, Jr., a pleasant birthday surprise. All sort of games were played, also music and singing, with ice cream and cake served as refreshments at a late hour.

Mrs. J. W. Osborne had the misfortune to get her left hand caught in the power wringer, slightly injuring three of her fingers.

The jolly neighborhood club met with Mrs. George Parkyns on Thursday. Many of the members were present, also Mrs. C. Dowell, Mrs. F. Manion and Mrs. G. Miller as guests.

Frank Dowell of Lawrence, Kas., is visiting with relatives here.

Last week the Running Water local of the farmers' union met at the school house in the evening and after an interesting business meeting the hostesses for the evening social, Mrs. Gordon and Mrs. Myers, took charge. The program was real good with singing, recitation and dialogues. Refreshments of salad, cake, sandwiches and coffee was served. There were about fifty-five present. The next meeting will be in charge of Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Bowser, with a debate on the program for the evening entertainment.

Everett Hoguewood of Wayne, Neb., is visiting at the William Athey home.

Mrs. Willard went to Alliance Tuesday to be with her friend, Mrs. Ives, in this sad hour of her bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hopkins invited the neighborhood in for a progressive checker game last Friday evening. At eight o'clock about thirty-five guests arrived and in due time there were fourteen tables of players starting in on a routine of checker playing, with the winner of each game moving one table ahead. When nine games were played the time was called and all participants with six games or more were to the contestants for the finals after the refreshment hours. There were eleven to play in this contest which resulted in the prize being awarded to Floyd Grabber as the champion player.

Mrs. M. T. Coffin who has been spending the winter months with her daughter in Morrill, returned to her oldest daughters' home for a while.

FILLING THE PEWS.

(Minder Courier.)

Rev. Oliver Kene has been pastor of the Methodist church at Kearney, Neb., for four years, and in that time he has quadrupled the membership. How did he do it?

"By advertising," he says. "That makes a business grow, so why shouldn't it work with a church? I often insert a quarter page or half page in the home town papers. Publicity changes the auto from an enemy to a friend of the church. When the people of the whole community know of your church and the kind of sermons you preach, the car will carry them to your church instead of away from it. The expense of advertising is met through the collection box, and the more people the advertising draws to the church, of course, the larger the collections. So the ads pay for themselves in actual money. The good that is accomplished cannot be measured in dollars and cents."

"Christ said, 'Go out and compel them to come in.' What is more compelling than advertising in the modern way? Nothing can take the place of the gospel. Not movies, nor music, nor half-baked addresses on current topics. Advertising must be backed by a good, sound, honest gospel message from the pulpit. And the man who goes once is pretty apt to return—and bring someone with him."

A safe taken from an office by burglars contained only old ledgers and an empty cash box. That is the sort of thing that makes so many criminals discontented.

Tierney Sale of Fine Registered Cattle on Tuesday, March 14

Don't fail to read the sale announcement of B. J. Tierney in this issue, on page 9, scheduled for Tuesday, March 14, at Ansley, Neb. He offers for sale a big lot of Registered Herefords and Shorthorn cattle, bulls and heifers. Many farmers and stockraisers in this territory are turning their thoughts to the raising of thoroughbred stock, with the idea of increasing their profits. It will pay you to read his announcement and write for a catalogue.
