

CHURCHES

LUTHERAN CHURCH.
Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, German service in the Lutheran church.
F. DROEGEMUELLER, Pastor.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.
First Church of Christ, Scientist, 310 1/2 Box Butte avenue. Sunday services, 11 a. m., subject, "Everlasting Punishment." Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Wednesday evening services at 8 o'clock. Reading room, 310 1/2 Box Butte avenue, open every Wednesday from 2 to 4 p. m.

METHODIST CHURCH.
Seventeen new members were received into the fellowship of the church last Sunday morning. There are others still to come whose letters have not yet arrived. While this is the smallest number received at any Easter time since the present pastor has been here, yet each one came after the challenge that no one should present themselves for membership unless in real earnest to get to heaven, and that earnestness was to be tested by a desire to put religion first in life. With a membership composed of Christians of this stripe, we are only at the beginning of our growth. The Sunday school numbered 263 last week, with several who came in after the count was made. All the classes are growing and some new ones are being started. Lloyd Thomas' class of young men is a live one, and will probably fill the stage before many Sundays. Some other class rooms are being finished up this week so that older classes will soon be able to have rooms to themselves.

We are to have a strong speaker sent out by the church next Sunday morning, who will be on his way to Scottabuff for the district conference the following day. We are not able at this writing to give his name, but have been assured it is one of the strongest men the conference is to have. We are thus assured of a treat. In the evening the pastor will speak on the subject, "The Boys of Our Community," complying with the request of the Rotarians. All parents and friends of boys are especially requested to be present.

We call attention of churchgoers to some of our coming events. On May 7, the pastor enters the eleventh year of his ministry and will speak on the subject, "Ten Years With the Saddle Bags." May 14 is Mothers' day and will be observed with appropriate services both morning and evening.
MEARL C. SMITH, Pastor.

BAPTIST CHURCH.
Sunday morning the pastor will preach a special sermon on "The Boy the Hope of This Country, and the Church." A special effort should be made by all who teach boys to get them to stay for the morning sermon. The evening sermon will be, "Thomas, the Show Me Disciple."

Topic for the men's class, a study of the 28th of Ezekiel, or "Of Whom Does This Speak?"
Owing to the stormy weather, the women's society did not meet this week. The prayer meeting also was small this week. Let us, however, make up for it this next meeting. Brother Fowle, our state secretary, tells us that the churches all over the state are having full houses. Especially is this so of the Sunday schools. From periodicals we find that this is true of all denominations, showing that a revival of interest in the Bible is in the land. Happy the church that will take advantage of this interest and seek to bring its pupils to the Savior, for unless they do this the school fails in her mission. The salvation of the soul should be and must be the goal of Bible education.

The largest Sunday school attendance last Sunday. Can we not add on a few more this week? Let's try by bringing that neighbor who goes to no school.
B. J. MINORT.

CHURCH OF CHRIST
A sermon to new members will be preached next Lord's day morning. The subject is "Christian Growth." In response to the request of the Rotarians through their local president, Dr. Slagle, the evening sermon will be on the boy problem. The subject is, "The Boy." Mr. Charles Dingey will sing, "Ashamed of Jesus." At ten o'clock the Bible school begins. With as many new pupils as were present last Sunday we will pass all former records.

Miss Billie Swensen's play, "Alice's Dinner Party" will be given tonight. Fourteen boys and girls comprise the cast. This will be an interesting play and will be worth the admission of 25 and 35 cents.

How many are intending to go to Bayard next week? May 5-7 is the time for the district convention. It will encourage your minister who is president of the district for many of the Alliance church to attend.

Dr. C. C. Drummond, a medical missionary who has spent nearly twenty years in India, will again visit Alliance May 8. On that evening he will address an audience at the church.

When you are considering a church home, remember the church with a message and a welcome.
STEPHEN J. EPLER, Pastor

In The MOVIES

The opening program of the new Rialto theater is announced for the evening performance on Monday, May 1. The opening play is "A Man's Home," which will be the attraction for both Monday and Tuesday. That for the wealthy man's home has to face as many troubles and strive as hard for happiness as the domicile of his work-a-day neighbor is one of the vital facts brought out in the play.

Frederick Osborn, a self-made man, has become so engrossed in business affairs that he neglects his pretty wife who, being only in search of gay pleasures, falls into the hands of unscrupulous adventurers with the result that the Osborn family soon finds itself engulfed in a sea of scandal.

The awakening of the husband and the forceful manner in which he endeavors to straighten the situation out in the dramatic climax which is the big moment in a story full of action and suspense.

An all-star cast of distinguished players interpret the various roles. Harry T. Morey, star of many well remembered productions, portrays the husband, and Kathlyn Williams, a long time favorite on the screen, plays the role of the wife. In the cast are also Matt Moore, Faire Binney, Grace Valentine, Roland Bottomley and Margaret Sedden.

Tonight is the last opportunity Alliance patrons will have to see "Over the Hill" at the Imperial, the performance this evening concluding a three-day visit of this attraction. The play has drawn big crowds and is conceded to be a remarkable production. The local movie fans have given it a hearty and richly deserved welcome; paying not only the tribute of spontaneous laughter to its many delightful comedy scenes, but paying also the rare tribute of sympathetic tears to its pathetic episodes. The story, which was taken from Will Carleton's poems, recounts the joys and sorrows of a typical mother, who raises a large family of children, only to have them, in her old age, allow her to drift from them, to live on charity. The "black sheep" son, however, when he discovers this condition, comes to his aged mother's rescue and all ends happily—with the little mother forgiving and forgetting.

Saturday Imperial patrons will have an opportunity to see William S. Hart in "O'Malley of the Mounted." There is a mystery of real thrills—the long search for a murderer in the wilds of the western country. Like a bloodhound, Hart follows his man into the hills and becomes one of the bandit crew which is protecting the culprit. By a strange twist of fate, the pursuer learns to love the sister of the man he is after and the latter saves him from death at the hands of the bandits. How this situation is made to end happily will puzzle the spectators to the last.

Anita Stewart in "Her Mad Bargain" comes to the Imperial Sunday. It's the story of the strangest bargain a girl ever made. It was a year of life for an artist's model—money to buy everything she wanted. For one year of the happiness she had never known, an artist gave her $50,000, binding her in an agreement to dispose of her life after one year. But in the eleventh month she found love, and knew that the twelfth was to be her last. It's an unusual story.

Monday and Tuesday the Imperial presents "The Rosary." Love and sacrifice are the predominant notes in the production. Vera is engaged to be married to Bruce Wilton, who has given her a rosary as a symbol of their love. She learns that Alice, Bruce's pretty sister, has been enticed to the home of Kenwood Wright. Vera goes to the cottage and pleads with Alice to leave. Bruce, informed by the village half wit that Vera has gone to Wright's home, goes to the place, though he refuses to believe it is true. Vera sees him coming. She gets Alice out of the back door. With Wright she confronts Bruce, from whom she conceals the real mission of her visit in order to shield his sister. He refuses to believe in her innocence and takes back the rosary he had given her.

We put on Ford top covers complete for $12.00. Threlkeld, 124 West 3d Street. 33-1f

Use Herald Want Ads for Results

A Washington scientist says he has perfected an invention for sending music into the home through the electric light bulbs. It should be especially effective, we assume, for transmitting light opera.—Nashville Lumberman.

The cause of a lot of fires is that there are not enough goods to cover the insurance.—Fresno Republican.

Apparently there is no way to cut the pattern of peace without having a few scraps left over.—Duluth Herald

Don't Throw Your Old Hat Away

Send it to us and we will make it look like a new one. Our long experience is your best guarantee.

BRING YOUR HAT TO

Alliance Shoe Shining Parlor

Phone 214

121 Box Butte

Announcing

THE RIALTO'S
Opening Program
Monday Evening, May 1

WE HAVE selected for our initial entertainment a picture that has been universally accorded high praise by reviewers and theatregoers alike. One critic pronounces it:

"Lewis J. Selznick's Greatest Production."

"A MAN'S HOME"

Featuring An All-Star-Cast, Including: Faire Binney, Matt Moore, Harry T. Morey, Kathlyn Williams, Grace Valentine and Roland Bottomley.

You enter this household and see stark drama when Frederick Osborn, a prosperous self-made man who has been too busy making money to pay attention to his wife, is shocked when he suddenly discovers that his wife is facing a scandal, due to a frame-up on the part of Jack and Cordelia Wilson, a pair of adventurous blackmailers.

2-REEL COMEDY, Featuring
HAROLD LLOYD, in—"I DO"

SPECIAL MUSICAL PROGRAM given by the HAPPY FOUR ORCHESTRA

TWO SHOWS ONLY
on opening night starting at 7:30 and 9:15 p. m.

THE RIALTO

ALLIANCE'S NEW PICTURE THEATRE
115-117 West Third Street

ADMISSION
Our Regular Prices
Children, (under 12) 10c
Adults, 22c; War Tax 3c

BENEFIT DANCE

ALLIANCE BASEBALL TEAM
ARMORY, SATURDAY, APRIL 29
ADMISSION—$1.00; War Tax 10c

APRIL WEATHER

B & B Electric Shoe Shop,

IS BAD ON SHOES but we can make them as good as new again at a big saving to you. Have your shoes repaired and put the rest of the money in the bank.

Under Alliance National Bank