American Legion Notes

"FACTS—NOT OPINIONS"

"The kids" of the nation are to have a whole week in May devoted to them. Dads and older brothers, comprising the membership of Rotary clubs and American Legion posts...

The Rotary and Legion national organizations have announced April 30 as the opening date of Boys week, although the week may be observed any time during May conforming with local conditions.

National commander MacNider has urged each post of the Legion either to adopt a troop of Boy Scouts or to form a troop with Legionnaires as scoutmasters.

The Lincoln unit of the American Legion auxiliary has ordered 10,000 daisies which will be sold on the street corners by pretty girls and patriotic women.

Gering post has secured a new set of club rooms, the membership having grown too big for the old.

Business and financial interests of the United States, "who contributed least and profited most by the war," are flourishing a political pistol at congress and threatening to pull the trigger if that body passes the adjusted compensation bill for service men.

"Enemies of the bill have declared that the Legion has uttered threats, that it has held a political pistol at the head of congress. Not the slightest proof of the truth of these statements has been attempted, which has been done because not a vestige of such proof exists."

"The Legion has made a clean fight based on the merit justice, equity and economic soundness of this legislation and not one scintilla of evidence has been produced to dispute these contentions," Mr. MacNider said.

Aurora American Legion men took a novel way of advertising a war film to appear here under their auspices. Saturday evening a truckload of ex-soldiers in full uniform drove through the city streets.

State headquarters of the American Legion has just been able to get a ruling from the internal revenue officer at Washington which exempts Legion posts from paying a tax on boxing, wrestling and similar exhibitions or entertainments if given on a per centage basis.

Permanent charters for auxiliary units have been mailed from state headquarters at Lincoln to Elgin, Hershey, Stuart, Valentine, Mitchell, Hay Springs, Hemingford, Lexington, Gering, Rushville, Arapahoe, Norfolk and David City.

A total of $81.50 has been donated by the Legion posts at Hartington, Hastings, Tilden and Lincoln for decorating the veterans' graves overseas.

Gospel is the Power

Rom. 1:16, For I am not ashamed of the gospel for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth.

Paul the Apostle to the Gentiles in the message quoted was writing to those Christians who resided in the imperial city. Their hopes for the future seemed to be vested in the power of their own imperialism.

This was a very unpopular doctrine both among the Jews and Gentiles. All had some hazy or misty conception of salvation but it was linked with their views of the material things they lived for the present and knew little about God's teaching upon this great theme.

Many a modern have lost sight of the importance of teaching fundamentals. Current events are discussed from the pulpit with but little reference to scriptural applications or the appeal to the better life. Churches become political machines or social clubs.

Entertaining features and popular themes will draw the crowds but "it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." The message of the gospel must be preached. This is the most important.

How beautiful it is to read the message of the gospel as it was presented by Peter and Paul and John. In fact the greatest preachers of the Christian era were men who kept very close to the scriptures in their sermons. They were men of the Book.

But what is gospel? The same apostle answers in 1 Cor. 15:1ff. It is the death, burial and resurrection of the Christ. The atonement emphasized sacrifice, the burial freedom and the resurrection life.

When he died his body was placed in the tomb. He was freed from the physical wants of the world. When we come to him and die of sin, we express our desire to be freed from the power of sin. For freedom did Christ die. Through the gospel we are liberated physically, politically and spiritually.

Through his resurrection we have the chance of life. This is beautifully explained by the apostle when he said, "Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the father so we also shall be raised to life."

If we have planted together in the likeness of his death we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection. Life is important. Mere existence is little. It is Christian conduct that counts.

This gospel is the power of God unto salvation. What is meant by salvation? Mere church attendance and obedience to forms? It is more than that.

Salvation means saved to serve. Service is great word. It means to do is based upon our ability to do and good to all. It know ourselves but the ability of the recipient to receive. The name on a church record may not always be indicative of Christian character. Christian conduct and service always are.

The Gospel as ordained by God has this unlimited power. Hence, we, as was Paul should not be ashamed of it. We may be called upon to express our belief in the Gospel on many occasions. Our conduct should be a living confession of our faith in Him who is the inspiration of the Gospel.

"For I am not ashamed of the Gospel for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth." This is worth living for it is the power in this life and in the one to come.

BLACKROOT

Mr. Charles Hookham and daughter motored to Bayard Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Hookham and Miss Murry motored to Hemingford Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sampsy visited at the George Flaherty home Sunday. They attended the baseball game in the afternoon.

The ball game between Fairview and Lawn at the Lawn diamond was won by the Lawn boys by a score of 14 to 19. The game was well attended and everyone thought the home boys played first class.

Mrs. C. H. Henderson and son, Dale, motored to Hemingford Friday. The Liberty local is practicing for a program which is to be given with a box supper next Friday night.

SHE KNEW FATHER

A teacher was trying to convey the idea to her class of the power of physical heredity to inspire beautiful thoughts. Six-year-old Elsie couldn't seem to understand it.

"Here's an example, Elsie," explained the teacher. "Suppose your mother should fill a vase with some lovely flowers and put them in the center of the dining room table. What would your father say?"

"Oh, I know, teacher," exclaimed Elsie brightly. "He'd say, 'Whatnall them dam weeds doin' there?'"
