

CHURCHES

LUTHERAN CHURCH.

Divine services in English Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Sunday school after the service. Sermon topic will be, "Why Do We Adhere to the Doctrine of the Holy Trinity?" Come and worship with us.

F. DROEGEMUELLER, Pastor.

CHURCH OF CHRIST.

The attendance at all services last Sunday was great. The record-breaking number at Bible school and the large attendance at the Children's Day program in the evening taxed the building upstairs to its capacity.

We had expected to have a picture of the school on Sunday morning but on account of Mr. Van Graven being called away it will be postponed another week. Let us have a large attendance and show Scottsbluff that we can beat them even to the last. Let us do our best for as Paul says, "Redeeming the time for the days are evil."

The sermons for both morning and evening will be helpful and instructive. The subjects are, "The Lord's Day," and "The Message of the Early Church." At the evening service Mr. Charles Dingey will sing, "Calvary."

Two important dates to remember are, "The Conference on Fundamentals," at Chadron, June 20-25, and the Nebraska State Convention, at Bethany, June 26-30.

Come to the church with a message and a welcome.

S. J. EPLER, Minister.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

This has been a week of strenuous life for the pastor. After a sickness lingering through the winter our brother, J. E. Steggs, has been translated to the better world where no suffering shall be. Thus finishing a long and faithful life of christian experience and service. He passed away at 3 o'clock yesterday morning in the presence of most of the family and the pastor. His going was peaceful and without suffering for which we are thankful.

The women are working hard to beat the men's class next Sunday, now men let us all turn out and do our best to bring another man with us, to loose the first Sunday will make it harder to win the coming four weeks. A little of systematic cooperation will be necessary, and will do the work. How many men who have been absent last several weeks will be present Sunday?

The B. Y. P. U. boys have challenged the men's class to a baseball game, and from the work out we witnessed last Tuesday the men are in for a good drubbing if they don't look out. Men get out and practice. Carl Hopkins is appointed by the teacher as captain of the men's team.

The young men's class and the young ladies' class are in contest also, and so the air is full of interest to these important class members.

Only two more Sundays of the Association year. How do you stand on your benevolence pledge? Let us pay up as much as we can so that our report will show up well at Chadron. An exceptional rood program is prepared and a good time is expected.

Subjects for Sunday sermons: Morning, "The Church Comforted." Evening, "The Greatest Love." Come to the friendly church with the friendly grip. The church where the common people hear Him gladly.

B. J. MINORT, Pastor.

SLIGHT FAVOR REQUESTED

An eastern college graduate applied for work in a Michigan lumber camp and was assigned to one end of a cross-saw, the other end being in charge of an old experienced lumberman. At the end of the hour the veteran stopped sawing and regarded his weary partner with pitying eyes. "Sonny," he said, "I don't mind your riding on this saw, but if it's all the same to you, I wish you'd quit scraping your feet on the ground."

Nebraska News Notes

Congressman Reavis Resigns

LINCOLN—Governor McKelvie's office received formal notice from Congressman C. F. Reavis of the First district that his resignation, effective June 4, had been handed to the speaker of the house. He resigned to become one of Attorney General Daugherty's assistants in prosecuting war frauds.

The law requires a special election to fill such a vacancy, but administration leaders, including Governor McKelvie and Attorney General Davis have indicated a disposition to defer the special election until the general election in November, on a plea of economy.

Such a program would leave the office vacant six of the nine months before March 4, 1923, when the regularly elected congressman would take his seat.

To Prosecute "Poison Pen" Writer

Mrs. A. Shotwell will prosecute Eugene Bryant, Nebraska poison pen writer, despite experts' opinion that he is irresponsible. His father, County Judge Bryant of Hartington, Neb., will defend the youth, who is a shell-shocked war victim.

Scottsbluff Rebuilding Tennis Courts.

SCOTTSBLUFF—3 courts of the Scottsbluff Tennis association have been built this year in anticipation of the Western Nebraska Tennis association, which will hold its annual tournament here in August. The city tourney will be held in June.

Walks Away From Sentence

OMAHA—With a three-year sentence to Leavenworth before him for the alleged wholesale possession of narcotics, a charge to which he had a few months previously pleaded guilty, Louis Filley of Benson walked out of Federal Judge Woodrough's court room to freedom Monday afternoon. Late in the evening despite the fact that the officers were combing the town, Filley had not been apprehended.

At the time Filley took it upon himself to defeat the ends of justice, four government officers were sitting in the court room. The bailiff a few seconds before had left the room with Fred Hild who had a transaction with the United States district clerk relative to a fine which the court had imposed upon him for violation of the prohibition laws.

Federal Judge Woodrough Tuesday received a letter from Louis Filley, who Monday escaped from the federal courtroom after having been sentenced to three years at Leavenworth for possession of "dope." The letter said Filley would report at Leavenworth or the county jail soon. Filley wrote he wanted to see his father and mother in Benson before going to prison as he feared he would not see them again while living. The judge turned the letter over to Marshal Cronin who sent men to the parent's home where he learned Filley had not yet been seen.

Later Louis Filley of Omaha who walked out of the federal court and disappeared after pleading guilty to possession of narcotics last Monday, surrendered to the United States marshal Tuesday night.

Aged Woman in Cistern.

BLAIR—After having clutched for several hours a pipe which ran above her, in order to keep her head out of the water, Mrs. George Kuhn, 72, was released from a cistern into which she had fallen. She was almost exhausted when found by Miss Lulu Bramlett, who summoned aid.

Makes Perfect School Record

ALBION—Miss Olga Loken, a member of the graduating class of the Albion high school, has neither been absent nor tardy once during her twelve years of school life. She is the daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. John M. Loken of Albion.

Starting with the kindergarten days Olga always made it a point to be in her place when the tarry gong sounded and to remain the full length of the day. During all this time she did very creditable work in all her classes. In high school she took the commercial course and has been keeping a complete set of books for her father during the past year, besides doing commendable work in her studies.

Lots of Alfalfa in Franklin

FRANKLIN—Farmers are putting up this week the heaviest crop of alfalfa for many years. Wheat is spotted some, there are some thin, weedy fields but many of them will make heavy yields if the weather is favorable from now on. Too much rain has retarded the growth of corn, but the last few days show rapid growth.

Disband Insurance Company

HARTINGTON—Policy holders in the Cedar county Farmers' Mutual Insurance company have voted to liquidate the affairs of the association and disband. This is a strong farmers union county, and Ben L. Peters, manager of the Farmers' Union Cooperative Insurance company of Nebraska, was invited to attend the meeting at which this action was taken and present the plan of the Farmers' Union company. While here he appointed several additional agents in this county. A large number of policies expired in the local company on June 1, and many of the farmers did not wish to renew them. This was the reason for the action taken, rather than any fault with the mutual plan, leaders of the company say. It is believed that most of the policy holders will reinsure in other mutual companies.

Steal Hogs From Feed Lots

SEWARD—About sixty head of spring hogs were stolen from Byron Brigham of Tamora on Wednesday night of this week. Mr. Brigham resides in the village of Tamora and the feed yards where he kept his hogs were some distance from where anyone was living. Officers have been investigating the case, but so far have been unable to get any trace of the thieves. It is thought that the hogs were hauled away in trucks.

Funds Available To Build 46,000 Miles Of Good Roads

The $350,000,000 appropriated by congress as federal aid in conjunction with state funds will result in the construction of about 46,000 miles of road, says the Bureau of Public Roads of the United States Department of Agriculture. This mileage would parallel the railroad from New York to San Francisco nearly 15 times, or, if divided equally among the states, would give nearly 1,000 miles to each state.

The status of road building on April 30 was as follows: In projects entirely complete, a total of 16,375 miles, under construction 13,950 miles in projects, averaging 62 per cent complete. A considerable part of the latter mileage is actually complete and in service. In addition, funds have been allotted to 7,511 miles, much of which will come under construction during the present season. Besides this there is still available for new projects $60,148,000, which on the same basis as previous federal aid construction will result in the construction of 8,200 miles of highway. In March the fund available for new projects was taken up at the rate of $12,000,000 a month and at the rate of $5,700,000 in April.

Now is the best time to negotiate farm loans. The federal farm loan association has reduced the rate of interest on their loans to 5 1-2 per cent. See D. E. Purinton, Route 1, Alliance.

TIED DOWN TO WORK

Perhaps there is no more prosaic enterprise than a commercial Laundry. But when we see the hundreds of women of this town, fresh and cool on wash days during this hot weather, we are proud to know that we are responsible for their comfort and leisure.

Don't be bound down to such household drudgery unnecessarily. If there were no Laundry to relieve you efficiently and reasonably, there might be some virtue in it.

We are ready to call for your wet wash, rough dry or finished bundle...
