-A progressive euchre club has been organized in the city, the first party to be given one week from next Friday evening, thus alternating with the hops given by the Apollo Club.

-A fight of some kind took place at Nichols on election day, in which Pat Manion had his head pretty badly cut. Our reporter could not get hold of the cause or the particulars.

-Everything was orderly in North Platte on election day as usual, ali sides conducting the canvass in a good natured manner. The Democrats did the most however and secured the most

-Schmalzried & Hinton run five bands in their cigar factory now, an evidence that their goods are appreciated. They sell extensively along the upper part of the road, Ogallala, Sidney, Sterling and intermediate points.

-A special car containing members of the U.S. fish commission was attached to No. 1 Wednesday morning going west to deposit fish at different points along the line of the Union Pacific in Colorado. Wyoming, Utah and other territories. On their return they will most likely leave some fry in Lincoln county streams.

-A train load of whale oil passed east irdsy, and as it was considered a valuable cargo the schedule time between here and Omaha was limited to nine hours, an average of $2% miles per hour. The B & M. folks should not lose sight of the fact that in the rapid transit of freight the Union Pacific takes no back seat.

-In the vicinity of Nevada, Mo., crops have been almost a failure this year, corn only turning out nine bushels and sometimes less per acre. Word from George Single says he is tired of such farming a regular old-fashioned blizzard, the snow and he wants to move to a more productive country and it is not unlikely he will make his home in Lincoln county next spring. There is plenty government land yet and we will warrant it to produce at ten inches on the level, but it is drifted more than nine bushels per acre, yes four times that amount, every time.

-It was a slight mistake to state that North Platte had been placed on the storm signal station list by order of Gen. Hazen. We are on the cold wave list, but unless the mercury drops from fifteen to twenty-five degrees the signal will not be displayed. Predictions in this line can be made from twenty-four to thirty-six hours in advance. Arrangements have been perfected to display the flag upon Odd Fellows' Hall and we understand ed, lacking about eight votes of the Mr. Foley will also hoist a flag on his necessary two-thirds of all the votes cast. stores. We hope these signals will result This of course is bad, but only temporarily in some good.

-A gentleman wants to know what was the average yield of wheat per acre in Lincoln county this year. This could not be determined without accurate returns from every field, but it is generally estimated at twenty bushels. One gentleman told us his wheat turned out only sixteen bushels while we have heard of several cases of twenty-five and over. Most of the farmers report about twenty. There were a few days of bad weather was no evidence of fraud, the voters being late in June which seriously effected this crop. Twenty bushels, however, is a good yield and far above the average be perfectly justified in rejecting this throughout the country.

-Election being over our people will now have time to discuss the telephone exchange project. We understand that parties now sell instruments out and out at a reasonable figure, thus making the the cost of maintaining an exchange very moderate after the wires are once strung. Under the old plan the instruments were rented at a high figure, that item alone being expensive, to say nothing of the cost of the central office .Those interested should agitate the subject and see if something tangible cannot be material- immediately stopped the train and ac-

They seem determined to prevent the sale of beer at the post, but thus far their efforts have had promptly waded in and rescued the man very little effect. We understand that Rev. W. G. Vessels is writing a book on the temperance reform entitled "Trowel and Sword." Guy A. Laing started Monday for Lawrence Fork, Cheyenne county, to visit his brother S. P. and look after his stock interests located there. Mrs. Dorr Heffleman, of Westerville, Custer county, a former resident of North Platte, will soon start for California in

T. J. Haines, a prominent citizen of Salt Lake City connected with the O J. | Sailsbury star route contract company, stopped several days in town this week visiting Mrs. David Cash and family, of whom he is an old acquaintance. Mr. H. is an old pioneer in the west, having crossed the plains in '65, making headquarters for some time in Denver.

The Bryant Habeas Corpus Case. Quite an important question was decided by Judge Hamer this week that, if sound, develops the necessity for a change in the statutes governing the case. It will be remembered that some time last summer one Louis Bryant knifed W. H. for Tucker, inflicting a severe and what court. His attorney, J. S. Hoagland, -Master Arthur Hoagland sprained his made application to the county court for bers, the question was argued in this city -A slight skirmish Wednesday morn- this week, Mr. Hoagland appearing for had no jurisdiction in the case while sitting in chambers, the decision being based on a decision of the supreme court of this state and also of Ohio that where an application of the writ is denied by the county court there is no appeal except on error to the district court, and the Judge decided that as the word court is used in the statutes in all provisions relating to proceedings in error that as a judge sitting in chambers he has no jurisdiction to hear and decide any error rices.

The Storm. The worst snow storm that has visited this section of the country for a number of years took place yesterday. Commencing with a sleety rain with the wind from the northeast Thursday afternoon, Friday morning about 4 o'clock it developed into falling fast and the wind at a gale from the north, at one time attaining a velocity of 44 miles per hour but averaging about twenty-eight. The snow fall is estmated terribly, in some places the banks being six feet high. Nearly all trains were abandoned. Number One came in at 10:30 but only got as far as Alkali during the day. Number Two was twelve hours late. The storm extended from Ogden where it was in the form of rain, to Chicago and perhaps farther east. There was no snow at Grand Island or east of that. The mercury stood about twenty-

The bridge bond proposition was defeatpostpones the building of the bridge as there is no question but what one will have to be constructed within a year or two. There was a question raised before the canvassers in regard to the legality of the vote from Deer Creek, where no poll books were used, the returns being simply certified to as correct, but nothing to show that any judges or clerks had been sworn or qualified in any way provided by law. On the face of the returns however, there cast. Under the law the canvasser would

After a careful discussion, it was thought best not to cloud the bonds by any doubtful proceedings which would certainly effect their market value and even if sustained might result in long delays and possibly litigation. The precinct was therefore counted.

-As Number One was coming up yesterday morning, engineer Farrington discovered a man and team in White Horse crek just this side of Gannett siding. He companied by conductor F. E. Winklestreem was dammed up with snow, making the water nearly three feet deep. They the horses. The man proved to be Eu-Logan, and he had just started out with is as "crazy as a bed-bug" probably, and has been traveling along the line of this road for several months, having some three months on the road Grand Island to this point. His mode of locomotion is such that he actually travels over the ground three times. He has a couple big bundles weighing fifty to seventy-five pounds; these with a couple tent poles he carries forward about fifty yards and then returns for the parrow which is probably loaded with two hundred pounds. Usually he has about twenty dogs, common curs, but when he passed this point the stock was a little low, there being only eight or ten and six paps.
