A MYSTERY. I that mystic path was treading When the sun his rays were shedding. Beaming, gleaming, fairly streaming thro' the trees; And I watched the streamlet glistening As entranced, I there was listening. To the merry, melting music on the breeze; When beneath a tree reclining, Where no rays of sun were shining. Lo! I saw a fellow being on the ground. Though no other feature shifted. Quickly his eyes uplifted— Upward lifted as he wildly looked around. "Good friend," said I approaching, "Do not charge me with encroaching; Are you waiting for some messenger you chose?" But no other word he uttered, save, "You'll find none other like the Palace Clothes."

"That's a strange expression, surely," Said I, looking down demurely, "I trust good sir that you the question will suppose"— But he only looked the prouder As he spoke the words the louder, "There's always perfect comfort in the Palace Clothes."

"Why bless me man," I shouted, As his sanity I doubted, "'Tis surely naught to me what you propose," But he only cried the higher With enthusiastic fire, "You'll save your cash by wearing Palace Clothes."

So then I resolved to try them, Nay, I felt compelled to buy them, And behold! I've cause for gladness, For the words I deemed were madness Induced me thus to purchase Palace Clothes.

Very truly yours, LOU F. SIMON, Manager. Clothiers and Gents' Furnishers.

The Logan Guard of Honor met on Saturday evening and made further arrangements for the special service which they design holding at General Logan's tomb on Decoration day. It is very probable that 5 p. m. will be the hour selected so that those who attend the services at Arlington will have a chance to witness the Logan ceremonies also. A committee of ten ladies, Mrs. F. W. Tallmadge, chairman, was appointed to take charge of the flowers. A special badge for members of the guard will be manufactured. A committee on programme was appointed. Dr. John P. Newman sent an invitation to the Guard, requesting their presence at Metropolitan church on Sunday evening, May 29, when special services will be held. The Commander-in-Chief was notified as to the proposed special service and comrades throughout the country were invited to send floral tributes. Armour & Co. have consented to store all flowers received by the committee.

Begg's Cherry Cough Syrup Will relieve that cough almost instantly and make expectoration easy. Acts simultaneously on the bowels, kidneys and liver, thereby relieving the lungs of that soreness and pain and also stopping that tickling sensation in the throat by removing the cause. One trial of it will convince any one that it has no equal on earth for coughs and cold. A. F. Streit has secured the sale of it and will guarantee every bottle to give satisfaction.

NEW YORK, May 14.—The Times special from Ottawa, Ontario, says that the Government has decided to expend $60,000 more than last year in the way of coast defenses as well as average at an early date for a large supply of the rifles and three pound Nordenfeldt guns which will be placed in position along the Atlantic and Pacific, as well as different points along the coast. Only a few days ago the English government forwarded three heavy cannons to British Columbia to be stationed at Fort Moody, and several others are to be placed at different points along the Pacific coast. It is not at all unlikely that at an early day a regiment of English soldiers will be dispatched for regular service in British Columbia.

Now Has Faith. I had been troubled all winter with cold and pain in the chest and got no relief from remedies recommended by Druggists and Physicians. At the same time I was advertising Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup. I had little faith, but thought to try it as a last resort, now I believe even more than they tell me of its curative qualities. [From the News, Elizabeth, Ky.] Sample bottles 5 cents at A. F. Streit's Drug Store.

If there ever was a humbugged and badly taken in American people it is that class of fools who flock to see the elongated Sarah Bernhardt. There are at least a dozen American actresses who can discount this foreign upstart, who possesses neither reason, natural beauty nor talent to any particular degree. Sarah held forth at Omaha on Saturday night, and the wise people of that city did not care to see or hear her. The result was a small audience at which Sarah gave an exhibition of her wretched judgment and worse intelligence by ranting and acting the fool, forgetting that those who had ventured to the theatre went in good faith and were entitled to just as good an entertainment as the company could bring out.

Streit.

If the members of the next National nominating convention went to rest and sleep and see the Mississippi River and the big bridge they will go to St. Louis. If they want to drink lager and take a ride on the Miami Canal they will go to Cincinnati. If they want to attend to business where everybody will be comfortable, and when the whole world can every day know everything that is done, they will come to Chicago. No other city east or west offers such conveniences as Chicago.—Inter-Ocean

Says the Hastings Gazette-Journal: "The forge-fulness of the former officials of the Union Pacific when questioned as to their knowledge of the crooked transactions of eight or nine years is as surprising as it is child-like and bland. If the Pacific investigating committee wishes to learn anything of the workings of the old Union Pacific regime it might as well ask the stars as to interrogate the men who are most interested in covering up their share in the questionable transactions."

The greatest of American millers is W. D. Washburn, of Minneapolis. He has one mill that turns out 5,000 barrels of flour a day, and is interested in others whose output is enormous. There is probably no man living who is so largely interested in flour.

Building in Chicago comes to a standstill yesterday morning, and there are probably from 15,000 to 20,000 men idle. Part of these had no work to do, owing to the order of the Master Mason's Association to quit work Friday night. Others—bricklayers, stone masons and plasterers—quit work on the non-association jobs to ascertain what their meeting at the Battery would do. A large number of men just on the outskirts of these trades—teamsters, hod-carriers, carpenters—were also obliged to quit. Nearly everybody recognized that there was a chance of a long, hard fight, and from the various conditions, that it was greatly a question of endurance who would win, though both sides still appeared confident of success. The contractors and material men want the strike over, but not until they can have all their demands allowed without fear of an interference for a year.

STARTLING BUT TRUE. WILLS POINT, TEXAS, Dec. 1, 1885. After suffering for more than three years with disease of the throat and lungs, I got so low last spring I was entirely unable to do anything, and my cough was so bad I scarcely slept any at night. My druggist, Mr. H. F. Goodnight, sent me a trial bottle of Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup. I found relief, and after using six $1 bottles I was entirely cured. J. M. WELDEN. Sample bottle 5 cents at A. F. Streit's.

The town board has taken steps to cause the construction of water works in Ord, as will be seen by the minutes of their last meetings published elsewhere. It is needless to say that such a move is an eminently proper one at this time. Ord has attained a size which warrants the procurement of the best water facilities and the certain growth before it will make them all the more necessary as the months go by. The proximity of the hill in the southwest part of town renders a stand-pipe unnecessary—in other words we have a stand-pipe built by nature which can neither burst nor blow down. The summit of the hill is far above the tops of the highest buildings and will afford ample pressure for all needs. Let the good work go on.—Quiz.

With a view of looking over proposed grounds for the State Hospital for Incurable Insane to be built at or near Hastings, Gov. Thayer and the entire Board of Public Lands and Buildings, consisting of the governor, treasurer, secretary of state, attorney general and commissioner of public works, arrived in the city this afternoon at 3:50. The governor and other officials were met at the depot by Senator Heartwell, E. C. Webster, President Dietrich of the Board of Trade and others, in carriages who will escort the distinguished visitors to the several sites proposed for the institution. During their stay in this city the members of the Board will doubtless make a definite selection of suitable ground, and preparatory work upon the hospital may be expected at an early day.—Gazette-Journal.

Who reason why Acker's is warranted, is because it is the best Blood Preparation known. It will positively cure all Blood Diseases, purifies the whole system, and thoroughly builds up the constitution. Remember, we guarantee it. Sold by Thacker.

LONDON, May 14.—London was ablaze with excitement this afternoon, the occasion being the visit of the Queen for the purpose of opening the People's Palace at Mile End. The route selected for the royal progress extends from Paddington station in the western portion of London to Mile End, at the extreme eastern limit, a distance of about eight miles. After leaving the station the line of parade deflected southeast a short distance to the marble arch of Hyde Park; thence it lies in almost straight line to its termination and was through the longest stretch of busy and crowded thoroughfares existing anywhere in the world, perhaps, taking in as it does Oxford street, Holborn, Holborn Viaduct, Newgate street, Chopsade Corn Hill road, Aldgate street, Whitechapel road and Mile End road. The buildings along the entire way were gaily decorated with banners, wreaths, colored trophies, and flags, the Irish colors, and the stars and stripes being conspicuous in many places. The Lord Mayor and the municipal officers of the city of London went in carriages from the Mansion House to the city's boundary line at Holborn. Here they alighted and awaited the Queen, who was in an open carriage at the Queen's approach the Lord Mayor received a pearl sword from the sword bearer. His worship lowered the point congratulated her Majesty in coming to the most loyal city, and presented the sword to the Queen. She took it and returned it. The Lord Mayor and retinue placed themselves in advance of the Queen's carriage, and escorted her across the city to the eastern boundary at Aldgate. Here they bade her farewell for a brief time, and repaired to the Mansion House to await her Majesty's return.

If you would enjoy your dinner and are prevented by Dyspepsia, use Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets. They are a positive cure for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Flatulency and Constipation. We guarantee them. 25 and 50 cents. Sold by Thacker's.

The New York Tribune says "they are talking of starting a 'wet' campaign in Atlanta, Ga. they couldn't do better than to secure the services of Colonel Rainwater, of St. Louis; Major Drinkwater, of Denver; General Rosewater, of Omaha, and Captain Broadwater, of Minnesota."

Governor Hill of New York will please take notice that it is authoritatively stated that "General Buckner's baby will be good for at least 10,000 votes for the General for Governor of Kentucky." If such facts don't open the eyes of bachelor Governors, what will?

Kansas City is getting very jealous of Omaha and Nebraska, since Buffalo Bill was welcomed by the royal family, and hints are given that the Prince of Wales will visit the chief of "the Wild West Show," in his Nebraska home next year. Kansas City has nothing to bank against such destination. If the Prince comes he will likely buy a corner lot in Omaha and then K. C.'s anguish would be complete and overwhelming.
