A BORRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

Small Boy Attacked by a Pack of Infsristed Mastiffs. WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 7.-Edward Gillis, 9 years old, had a horrible and fatal experience in this city. Young Gillis was playing in the street, and near at hand was a dog kennel in which were confined six huge English mastiffs.

were confined six huge English mastiffs. While playing Gillis began teasing the dogs and they became fearfully enraged. One of the dogs broke down the door and six ferocious brutes made a fierce attack on the boy. He was knocked down at the first onslaught and all the dogs began biting and chewing him. Policeman James Carney, assisted by William Robinson, armed with revolvers and crowbars, finally reached the infuriated animals, but it was impossible to make them loosen their holds and Carney shot five of the dogs dead while they were still chewing and biting their victim. The sixth brute escaped. Carney himself was severely bitten, Gillis' wounds are terrible; his eyes, ears and nose were literally bitten off, and his body has no fewer than sixty wounds. The dogs that were killed were valued at $600 each.

Well's Impurities. DUNDER, Mich., Sept. 7 .- Five people have died in this vicinity from the poisonous effects of water from a well the water became very low. It was observed to be rather muddy and repulsive to the taste, but it was the only water on the place and everybody drank of it as usual. Those who have died are three children of Gilsen and two farm hands. Twenty-five others are affected.

Bulling's Spiritual Adviser Released. SANANNAH, Mo., Sept. 7 .- The Rev. Sanannah, Mo., Sept. 7.—The Rev. August Lavake, who acted as spiritual adviser at the hanging of Louis Bulling, has been released in bonds of $500 to answer the charge of furnishing Bulling the weapon with which the murderer attempted suicide just before his execution. It is generally believed now that the priest is innocent. Bulling left a letter in which he directed the sheriff to return the revolver to Abe Bulling, his brother, who, he said, knew to whom it belonged and how it came into his possession.

High Sheriff Benjamin Disraell. An Irish antiquarian has discovered that the "Benjamin D'Israeli, Esq.," who was high sheriff of the county of Carlow in 1810 was an uncle of Lord Beaconsfield. He is buried in St. Peter's church, Dublin, having died in 1814, aged fortyeight. This Benjamin, of whom none of the writers on Lord Beaconsfield appears to have known anything whatever, left a large fortune, and his will, which is preserved in the Dublin record office, is signed "Benjamin D'Israeli." Lord Beaconsfield once wrote asking for a copy of his uncle's will, but neither his name nor his father's appears in the document.
