

THE LOCAL LYRE.

A blacksmith shop has been opened at Hershey and the town site company expect to have the store opened in a short time.

Master Ray Keith was host at a birthday party Saturday afternoon and the event was duly enjoyed by the twenty-two little guests present.

Miss Clara Austin left for Denver last week where, she expects to reside permanently with her uncle, Judge Austin, an old-timer of that place.

The C. E. literary society will give a book carnival some time during April. Each person is, by some device, to represent the name of any well-known book.

The March statements of the three banks of the city show deposits aggregating $225,000, a good part of which is on time certificates. The showing is a creditable one.

Married, at the Lutheran parsonage in North Platte on March 14th, by Rev. J. F. Kuhlman, Andrew Larson, of Dawson county, to Miss Lela Peterson, of Lincoln county.

H. Fye received a telegram last week announcing the death of his daughter at Green River, Wyo. The father and one of the boys attended the funeral, returning home Monday.

Up to the minute of going to press S. W. Vandor was the only man who had the temerity to announce himself as a councilman from the Second ward. Sam is a ruttler when it comes to catching voters.

A farmer named Dunn, living on the south side, made a gun play while in town Saturday and the police promptly collared him and took him before Police Judge Hawley where he was assessed the usual fine for carrying concealed weapons.

A petition has been circulated and signed by a proper number of signatures asking the city council to place on the tickets the names of P. H. Sullivan, H. W. Allwine and Platt Gilman as candidates for members of the board of education.

Saturday last was the birthday of our two prominent German citizens Col. J. C. Hupfer and Gregory Schatz and in the evening a fitting celebration of the event was held at the residence of the latter. A large party of friends very much enjoyed the occasion.

There is nothing very slow about the weather these days. The temperature on Friday and Saturday last averaged seventy-four degrees, while on Sunday it did not fall below thirty at any time during the day. This cold snap was general in this section of the country.

On Sunday last between the hours of ten and one o'clock a thief forced an east door at McDonald's grocery and breaking open the cash drawer secured about five dollars in change. No goods were missed. The burglary was a bold one, as the door forced open is in plain view of Locust street.

One of the petit jurors of Wallace precinct stated on his return from North Platte after adjournment of court that there were numerous flats in the legal papers and consequently several cases were thrown out. This mode of settling a case is becoming quite popular.—Wallace Star.

On the first of April the people of Wallace will vote on the proposition to issue bonds in the sum of $1500 for the purpose of erecting an addition to their school building. The need of increased school facilities is a good sign for any town; it also speaks well for the fecundity of the section.

Miss Minnie Hine gave a party Monday evening on the occasion of her twenty-first birthday, to which a number of the young lady's friends were invited. The occasion proved a delightful one to the guests and the hostess was remembered with a number of suitable presents.

Do you know that the Cash Store sells flour and feed cheaper than you can find it anywhere else in this county.

The past winter has been remarkable for absence of high wind and the lack of the average monthly movement of wind. Observer Piery states that the lack of high wind is doubtless due to the uniform low temperature which has prevailed during the winter. Sudden changes of temperature generally produce high winds.

The government coins money, you can make money by buying your hardware, tinware, implements, etc. of Strickler. Others talk of rock bottom prices, but we are the original leaders in low prices, and are the only house that sells implements etc. at cash prices, for cash.

There is displayed in the window of Keith's store a painting executed by Mrs. H. J. Clark after she had received six lessons from Hal Akland, the artist who is now stopping in the city. Considering the instructions Mrs. Clark had received, the painting is certainly very excellent and speaks volumes for the ability of Mr. Akland as an instructor.

The supreme court of this state handed down a decision last week maintaining the legality of ballots marked with lead pencil cast at the last election under the Australian ballot law. The syllabus of the opinion, touching this point, written by Judge Post, is as follows: "The provision in section 20 of the act approved March 3, 1881, known as the 'Australian Ballot Law' for the marking of ballots with ink is directory only, and ballots, if in other respects regular, will, in the absence of fraud, be counted, although marked with a pencil."

A special meeting of the city council was held Saturday evening to hear a report from the committee appointed to investigate the question of getting rid of the surplus water. The committee recommended that a ditch be constructed on the west line of section thirty-two running from the railroad to the South Platte river. They thought the right-of-way could be purchased of W. M. Hinman for about one hundred dollars.

On motion the mayor, who was authorized to propose a ditch and ascertain the cost of building same. C. L. Patterson was given the contract for grading Spruce street from First street to the city limits.

The ladies of the Methodist church will hold a fair and supper on April 14th. Particulars will be given later.

Those who contemplate building in stone or ornamenting with marble will do well to get W. C. Ritter's estimates and prices. He is soliciting such work.

Claude Weingand's new location is a favorable one for his business and his store has a very inviting look. It will pay you to drop in and make an occasional purchase.

For sale cheap to close up that line boys' velocipedes and girls' tricycles at JAMES BELTON'S.

A. E. Johnson formally assumed the editorship of the Era last week, and the wish of THE TRIBUNE is that the care of the position may fall less heavily on him than they do on the average country editor.

THE TRIBUNE learns that Samuel Adams contemplates moving to Sutherland and opening a hardware and furniture store. If Sam decides to leave North Platte the city will lose a first-class citizen, one whom we regret to see go.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold their chicken and waffle supper in the Belton building next to the Presbyterian church, Thursday evening, March 17th. Supper commences at six o'clock; price twenty-five cents.

During the parade of the Uncle Tom's Cabin Co. Monday one of the bloodhounds broke loose and tearing off his muzzle proceeded to tackle the other dog in a most savage manner. The canines fortunately were pulled apart before either were badly injured.

Ernest F. Wright and Miss Lilian L. Schriest were married at the residence of E. J. Huntington in this city Sunday last, Judge Ray officiating. The happy couple received a number suitable presents. Mr. and Mrs. Wright will reside on Waldo's farm south of town.

The interior of the court house is growing brighter and cleaner each day under the application of calcimine and paint brushes in the hands of Wm. Emerton. The walls of the hallways and offices had become very much discolored and the improvements being made are very noticeable.

James Belton keeps several kinds of sewing machines in stock.

C. F. Schermann, who has so ably represented the Third ward during the past year, announces himself a candidate for re-election. He is a young man who has taken great interest in the affairs of the city, and from his work in the council we should judge that he has well served his constituents. His opponent in the field is L. B. Isenhardt.

With Warner, Hinman and Robinson in the race for mayor, the contest assumes that triangular shape which makes it a little tight for the two leading candidates. This Tribune is of the opinion, however, that Warner will pass under the wire ahead. His management of the office during a former term was very satisfactory to the people, many of whom after election regretted that they did not cast a vote for him. He is also a popular gentleman, and to know him is to have a friend.

Friday afternoon is always looked forward to with much pleasure by the members of the Longfellow literary society, and last Friday was no exception. John Dick opened the exercises by reading a choice selection. Laura Murray then read an interesting essay. Misses Widmeyer and Fenwick read the paper. Each showed rare ability in that line. Lester Bradley read an interesting piece on the care of babies. Enid Bewick rendered a charming recitation. Eva Fenwick followed with a reading. Next was the debate. The question was: Resolved, That the Negroes have received worse treatment than the Indians. Affirmative: Fred Elliott and John Dick. Negative: Frank Edmonds and Boyd Dickinson. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative. But the best part of the programme was yet to come. Mr. Sullivan, by a unanimous vote, was requested to recite "Mary's Lamb," and did it in a manner that brought down the house. All patrons of the school are cordially invited to attend our Friday afternoon exercises.

For RENT.—The store second door south of Odd Fellows hall. Enquire of JAMES BELTON.

"Kicking Bear" has promised himself a lively time when he reaches Fort Sheridan, Illinois. He has 8000 attached to his belt as the principal trophy of his recent campaign in Europe, and he has informed his friends on this side of the water that he intends to spend every cent for "fire water" the moment his engagement as star comes to an end. "Kicking Bear" is the leading member of the band of fifteen Indian prisoners loaned by the Interior department for exhibition purposes to "Buffalo Bill." They were taken from Fort Sheridan last year and after a successful tour abroad are now on their way home in accordance with the terms of the contract. They were due in New York yesterday. It was in anticipation of their arrival and of the royal good time they had promised themselves with the money they have earned that a representative of "Buffalo Bill's" troupe called on the War department authorities to ask assistance in keeping these Indians on their good behavior until their arrival at Fort Sheridan. The request was granted, and an order was sent to army headquarters at Governor's Island directing that a non-commissioned officer and several privates be detailed to remain in close watch upon them until their arrival at Fort Sheridan. What disposition will then be made of them will have to be determined by the Interior department. The other prisoners that were taken to Fort Sheridan by "Kicking Bear" were returned to reservations some time ago.

Gatward & Neuman can supply you with the choicest roasts. Give the firm an order.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeibert entertained a number of friends at high-five on Friday evening last.

A dance was held at the new store building at Hershey on Friday evening last, at which North Platte was well represented.

While out hunting Saturday afternoon Col Cody killed two large swans at one shot. He will probably have them mounted.

The lion was vambly Monday and the weather he brought was decidedly wintry. The ground was covered with a light shift of snow.

The people of Somerset precinct are preparing to boom that section by a liberal distribution of circulars setting forth the advantages of that section.

Gatward & Neuman are selling from the block the finest corn-fed beef that has been sold in North Platte for a long time.

N. A. Davis & Co. report large sales of sulky plows and disc harrows during the past two weeks, the demand for the latter being almost greater than the supply.

An eight year old son of C. M. J. Cox, of Peckham precinct, had his left leg dislocated a week ago by having it caught in the wheel of a wagon while the vehicle was in motion.

Al Ackland has been engaged to paint the door curtain and scenery for Keith's new opera house. Mr. Ackland is a fine scenic painter, and we predict the work will be well executed.

Those new organs at James Belton's are in oak cases and are beauties.

The office clerk of the district court has been handsomely repaid and papered. Mr. Elder is now very comfortably situated, and it is only proper to add that the latch-string hangs on the outside.

The Idings party on Thursday evening of last week was a very successful one. The persons awarded the prizes for best playing were Mrs. J. H. Hershey, Mrs. O. O. Carahan, A. S. Baldwin and H. S. Bond.

For RENT.—The best farm in Lincoln county; only three miles from North Platte. Abundance of natural timber and hay and good water and extra good buildings. T. C. PATTERSON.

F. P. Weston sold his farm in Hinman precinct last week to Wm. Parks and has removed to a farm he owns near Central City. In the removal of Mr. Weston the county loses a wide-awake farmer and a straightforward gentleman.

The people are "catching on" to the reduction of prices at the Cash Store.

J. C. Piery who for several years has displayed great interest in our public schools, has decided to become a candidate for member of the Board of Education. If elected he will use every endeavor to have the schools improved if such is possible.

S. P. Delator last week received for his Deuel county ranch a fine registered Percheron stallion from the well known Burlington stock farm in Otoe county. The animal is exceptionally well bred and cost a good round sum, but we predict Sam will make money out of the investment in the way of raising salable horses.

Several transfers of real estate recorded within the past week show that farm land is on the rise. The real estate market has been dead for several years but indications point to considerable activity this year. In the eastern part of the state farms are rapidly advancing in price, and this section will sooner or later be affected likewise.

L. A. Van Tilborg, of Wallace, was in town Thursday and entered suit for ten thousand dollars damages against J. W. Hallinger for alienation of his (Van Tilborg's) wife's affections. The complaint doesn't seem to be particularly modest in its demand, but it is generally conceded that he is as likely to obtain that amount as he is ten cents.

One of our implement dealers informs THE TRIBUNE that the sales of farm machinery this year up to date is greatly in excess of that of last year. He also states that the farmers make larger cash payments and when required give much better security than a year ago. This is pretty good evidence that the farmers are prospering.

The United States land office in this city was formally reopened for business on Thursday morning last, when A. S. Baldwin took possession of the register's office and W. H. C. Woodburn was duly installed as receiver. The business which had accumulated during the period in which the office was practically closed, will be put through with all possible speed.

A gentleman who has traveled considerably through the county of late tells us that the acreage of what this year will be from fifty to seventy-five per cent greater than last year. Many of the farmers will put all their old ground in small grain and break sod for their corn. There seems to be a growing tendency among Lincoln county farmers to raise more wheat and less corn than heretofore.

Before the city council enters into an agreement with Union Pacific relative to closing the Willow street crossing and opening one at Maple street, the wishes of the people directly interested in the matter should be consulted. The residents of the Third ward have rights which ought to be respected and no work should be made which would work them an injustice or place them at disadvantage. Councilman Johnson and Schermann should ascertain the sentiment of their constituents, and this they will probably do before action is taken on the matter.

Now if some company of phreatic capitalists in that locality will only procure the process and establish a distillery for the manufacture of what medicinal purposes they give him approval without cheerfully respond to a recall. Remenyi was heard at his best in the Hungarian melodies of his own composition, and through it was late in the evening before they were reached the audience gave closer attention than to any other number on the programme. Our alliance seems to be lost, strayed or stolen, as it is never heard from any more, and this vicinity to have been going on its own down little Medicine creek, and was found not long since mixed down in a shallow despondency and ready to yield up the ghost to democracy.

Cecil Tuell, of the firm of Jolliff & Tuell, was announced the bedside of his father at Clarkeburg, Indiana, who is very low with a complication of diseases. He took the 8 A. M. Saturday evening train for Lincoln, Col., for the purpose of this place, stopped off a day and visited W. H. Moore the first of this last week. Mr. Tuell is a Coloradoan, and a friend of Lincoln, where he has been visiting for several years.

Your correspondent was informed on good authority that on making inquiry of the Era Pub. Co. for rates on printing, was greeted with the answer, "We are not here for your health, and will not run our presses unless we make money, as that is what we are here for." Methinks that is one truth told, judging from the rate of country printing money is all the money you are after, (which it surely is) and all getting it as easy as the Era does out of the county printing the calamity howlers will soon take a reserved seat.

The State Board of Transportation and B. & M. officials will meet the people of Seward and this vicinity to-morrow to have a hearing to show cause why the company should not reopen its office and depot here. If it is not to be reopened they must just as well turn it or move it out in the canyons some place out of sight, as it is a detriment as it is. Then again, that the company has check books to instruct its conductors to commuters (strangers) to get off at the depot, when they have a ticket to the depot, and claim their money here. This scheme was tried on a resident of this place and at one time night operator here. Such work should be looked into and stopped, if possible. W. C. RITNER.

WAS HEARD:

The Ear is pleased to hear that its owner is so the propriety of receiving the performance of the city candidates for mayor were agreed, and the matter could better be adjusted to the financial interests of the city than in any other way.

Wallace Star recently gave the Ear an invitation to visit that burg. No doubt you! A community where "auditions" are held is not to our liking. It is unequal to Grover's "ghouliah gloe."

Narrow every patriotic son "by the name of Grover" will be sporting the favorite color of the tight littleisle over the sea. Every true American will rejoice with them that for the prospects are brighter now than ever.
