The New Tariff

On All Imported Woolen Goods and Silks

Is in Operation January 1st.

40 PER CENT OFF!

In the case of one of the largest and most prominent establishments which under the new tariff regulations have been treating this line of trade, we find that the French Serge de Gothe at $1.00, the French Serge de Cabot at $1.10, wool stuff and 12-nail Woollen at $1.37. The new tariff on these lines makes it impossible for the ordinary retail trade to continue dealing in them. As a result, we find that Mr. J. W. Henry, a well known and prominent dealer in this line, has decided to cut his prices to the bone and offer his goods at such rates as will make it possible for him to sell a quantity of them, and at the same time to charge the people of this community with a legitimate price for the goods they desire.
