A. O. U. W. CONVENTION. Charges Against Grand Master Tate Prove

KEARNEY, May 16 .- In the grand lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen a ripple of excitement was caused by a delegate preferring charges against Grand Master Workman Tate for various acts extending over a period of several years. The charges were thoroughly investigated and, after a careful consideration, Tate was exonerated on every count. After the lodge had taken this action a resolution was presented and adopted denouncing the charges and the parties who preferred

The committee on resolutions and plan of action not being ready to report, Congressman Mondell of Wyoming moved that a recess be taken until 2 p. m., but the motion was withdrawn. Mr. Langenour moved that newspaper reporters be admitted to the executive session. The motion was lost. The convention then went into executive session, and is discussing the various methods proposed for carrying out the objects for which the conference was called. A number of interesting speeches were made, and while there are differences of opinion the indications all point to harmonious action Attorney General Jones of the state of Washington arrived this morning and was admitted as a member of the conference.
