—Judge Ray on Wednesday evening united in marriage Frank W. Decker and Mary A. Solomon, both of Brady Island. —Kearney Presbytery will meet in the Presbyterian church of this city on Tuesday, Sept. 10th. A cordial invitation extended all to attend. —Smoke Wright's Royal Sports and Havana Rose—5-cent cigars. —Those who expect to contribute grain, fruit and vegetables for the Lincoln county exhibit at the state fair are requested to take them to Schatz's store at once. The exhibit will be shipped to Omaha Tuesday, and it will take some little time to prepare the samples for shipment. —The comic opera of Falka, given by the Dunbar opera company last night, was fairly well attended, though the audience was not as large as the merits of the play demanded. There are some excellent singers with the company, and their efforts were well received by the audience last night. —A Mr. Caulson, who for several months has been one of the lessees of the Nebraska House, has quit that hotel and will open a restaurant in the Keith block on Front street. The Nebraska House is now being slightly remodeled preparatory to occupancy by Mrs. Jennie Armstrong. Mrs. Pitt will open a restaurant in the room to be vacated by Mrs. Armstrong. —A meeting of the Wild West Wheelmen will be held at the court house Monday evening, Sept. 9th, at 8 o'clock sharp. At this meeting the report of the board of directors relative to the building of the track will be received. By order of the president. J. B. McDONALD, Sec'y. —William Coleman, the gentlemanly superintendent of the waterworks, returned to the city Wednesday night accompanied by a bride, having been married at Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday. The couple immediately took possession of the J. S. Clinton house on east Third street upon their arrival. The many friends of Mr. Coleman in wishing him and his wife a life full of years, happiness and prosperity. —Tablet 5x8 inches one cent at the Book Store. —While re-arranging papers in the office of the clerk of the district court yesterday, Geo. C. Stoddard ran across the papers of the first case docketed in the district court of Lincoln county. The suit was brought to recover money on a seven hundred dollar note executed by Tod Randall and Peniston & Miller to W. M. Hinman. The papers in the case were filed April 25th, 1868. Charles McDonald was county clerk at that time. —Doctor Aley, the Lincoln specialist, visits North Platte every month. His next regular visit will be Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 9th and 10th. He stops at the Hotel Neville. If you contemplate leaving home for treatment, consult him before deciding. —Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rennie were very much taken by surprise last Saturday night. That date was the tenth anniversary of their marriage and while the couple were down town in the evening, a number of friends appeared at the Rennie home and with the aid of the girl servant secreted themselves in one room. Mr. and Mrs. Rennie returned home about ten o'clock and shortly thereafter made preparations to retire for the night. They were almost ready for bed when they were almost paralyzed by a loud beating upon tin pans in an adjoining room, followed by the appearance of those who had secreted themselves. Mr. and Mrs. Rennie soon recovered from the shock and proceeded to entertain their guests in right royal style. Before leaving the guests presented the host and hostess with an infant's bath tub, an article which up to date has not been needed in the Rennie home.

Brittain, of Somerset, dropped into this office Wednesday and reported that the corn and vine crop in that section promised to be superior to that of the last three seasons. He has promised to bring THE TRIBUNE one of his forty pound watermelons. —The school statistics of Lincoln county, which are published elsewhere, give some information that will be news to nearly all our readers. The fact that the average yearly term of school for the country districts is seven and one-half months is in itself an excellent showing. —The Sisters of the Nativity convent will conduct a special class in painting the coming school year. An expert artist will direct the class and a liberal share of the public patronage is respectfully solicited. —The report which reached this city regarding the accidental shooting of H. S. Boal, now of Slack, Wyo., was greatly exaggerated. The injury sustained by Mr. Boal was the entrance of one shot on each side of the nose, and in dangerous proximity to the eyes. This is the second time Mr. Boal has had shot enter his head. —Mrs. H. T. Rice had quite an exciting experience with a lamp one evening the early part of the week. Returning from a near neighbor's house she found that the shade of the lamp she had lighted before going out had caught fire. In attempting to extinguish the flames the lamp was overturned, the oil became ignited and matters looked rather dubious for a brief period. Mrs. Rice succeeded in smothering the flames before much damage ensued. —Samples for the Lincoln county exhibit at the state fair have been coming in pretty lively this week, and the display at Schatz's store, where the exhibits are being packed is a magnificent one. North Platte people who know but little of the quality and size of grain and vegetables grown by ditch farmers will do well to drop into Schatz's store and take a look at the display. But you should do it quick, for many of the best specimens are being packed. —The statistical report of the Y. M. C. A. for August is as follows: Renewals, 8; withdrawn or dropped on account of removal, etc., 7; new members, 14; present paid membership, 234; attendance at men's meetings, 129; number of visits to rooms, 1217; baths taken, 442; number of visits of secretary to shops, yards, etc., 14; to sick and injured, 3; letters written in rooms, 125; books drawn from library, 173; papers on file in reading room during month, 338; magazines, 16. Bishop Graves will preach morning and evening. —A local carpenter is now engaged in making the frame work for the facade of the Lincoln county exhibit at the state fair. The design, which was drawn by J. B. McDonald, consists of a frame about fifty feet in length, and eight feet six inches in height. In the center of this is an archway, to be surmounted by one of Cody's stuffed buffaloes. The frame will be festooned with grain and grasses, which work has, we believe, been delegated to E. F. Seeberger and J. B. McDonald. On the inside of the enclosure will be placed the collective exhibit, and also the statue of Buffalo Bill.

—Dick Healey, of Ogalalla, transacted business in town this week. —A gang of men from Kansas are working out the U. P. road taxes in Keith county. —The Ogalalla News says the water in the South Platte river has about vanished and hundreds of fine fish are being taken from the pools. —"Doc" Sizemore will probably take advantage of the excursion rates to Louisville, Ky., next week and visit his old home in southern Indiana. —At the shoot of the gun club yesterday Price got ten out of fifteen blue rocks. Patrick three out of fifteen, Barnum nine out of fifteen and Graves seven out of fifteen. —Four carloads of horses consigned to Virginia passed through to-day. As the animals are ordinary range horses, local stockmen were wondering how the shippers expected to play even on the freight charges. —Druggist Streitz took a day off yesterday and went out after prairie chickens, but like all other good hunters this season he returned empty handed, having seen but one lone chicken. He, however, had an opportunity to inspect the Birdwood ditch. —The temperature at Baker City, Oregon, at eight o'clock this morning was 32, which is pretty good freezing weather. In this city it was 54. Observer Piercy's forecast for to-morrow is cool, cooler in the morning, with danger of a light frost. —Henry Fredrickson, of Fremont, now holds five state bicycle records. They are the one-half mile paced, in 1:00 2-5; unpaced half mile in 1:05; one mile competition in 2:12; one-half mile competition in 1:05, and the quarter mile competition in 32 1/2 seconds. Fredrickson is over in Iowa this week participating in races. —Morgan Davis is this week moving his household goods from Wellfleet to this city. The family will come over next week. Mr. Davis has been farming near Wellfleet for the past eight years with rather poor success, and has concluded to give up the unequal struggle. He is one of North Platte's old citizens and we are glad to welcome his return to the city. CAUCUS AND PRIMARIES. A caucus of the republican of the First ward will be held at the hose house in said ward on Thursday evening next at eight o'clock, for the purpose of nominating delegates to the county convention. The primaries will be held Saturday afternoon, September 14th; at which a full precinct ticket will be nominated in addition to the election of delegates. Republicans are requested to attend both the caucus and the primaries. JNO. SOREXSON, Precinct Com. NOTICE OF EXAMINATION. The examination for admission to all departments of the North Platte public schools will be held at the Central building on Wednesday, September 11th, beginning at nine o'clock.
