RAILROAD ROTATION.

Workmen yesterday put up some new smoke-stacks for the Pacific Hotel.

Dell Bonner took the 1804 out this morning on No. 7 for the first trip upon passenger here.

A. W. McKeown had his caboose "jacked up" in the Sidney yards one night this week.

Gus Chamberlain and Charley Seyferth, who left for the west Sunday night, have both secured positions in Cheyenne.

Foster Libby, a machinist formerly employed here but who has recently been ranching up in Keith county, again entered the shops here this week.

Stuart or Donehower must have been "stringing" the editor of the Ogalalla News in great shape. The last issue of that paper states that the 1813 weighs 180 tons.

If the 1800 class of engines receive the big driving wheels, as is contemplated, they will have to be pastured out in the yard or else the round-house will have to be enlarged.

A letter was received a few days ago by a friend of fireman Hodges, a former employee of the company here. He is again married and the past season has been farming over near Sheandoah, Iowa. He is desirous of again railroading.

The engineers who will manipulate the throttle and reverse lever of the big "pigs" of the passenger trains under the new time-card may not have as much comfort as some of their more fortunate brethren, but at the end of the month their pay checks will have a more substantial air.

A baggage man who runs down in the eastern part of the state who was on his way to the "healer" in Denver, was interrogated by a friend in this city as to what ailed him. "Not a darn thing! I am just going to Denver in order to be 'in the push,'" quoth the gentle baggage smasher.

Engine 888 was brought down from Cheyenne by engineer Kinglet to be put in passenger service here under the new time-card. She is claimed to be the largest passenger type of locomotive in the U. S. She is so tall that she could not be taken into the round-house without removing the upper portion of her smoke-stack. Instead of having the whistle placed upon top of the steam dome, as is ordinarily the case, it is placed at the rear of the same in order to reduce the height of the machine.

A trio of second district engineers one day this week leased three bikes and visited the Grand Island sugar factory. Of course this item would not be of much interest were it not for accident which befell one of them. He who is considered an expert in handling the air upon the machine on which he daily rides had the misfortune to ride squarely into the Palmer house "bas and wrecked the steed with ribs of steel upon which he was mounted. Thus is another instance afforded of where the bad handling of air has got a man into trouble.

It is said that Jack Nelling, round-house foreman, was healed by the "Mexican Messiah" through the medium of a "blessed" handkerchief on Wednesday night. Any way it is certain that his disabled ankle was in some way cured so that he was able to get around as usual yesterday, although it took him nearly one-half hour to walk home the night before. Still there be skeptics who think that a "blessed" woollen shirt would give a man more comfort these cool nights than a handkerchief. Certainly it is larger and should be able to hold a greater amount of blessing.

—The accounts of responsible people who settle their bills once a month are respectfully solicited. We want your trade.

NICHOLS AND HERSHEY NEWS.

There will be a dance in the Macabee hall at Hershey Friday evening.

The revivalists closed their meetings at Nichols Monday evening and departed for other fields of labor.

M. M. Spicer, of North Platte, painted the roof of the new school building this week.

Mrs. R. W. Calhoun has received word that an aunt who recently died in Minnesota had left her considerable personal property. The goods will be shipped to her soon.

Very few, if any, corn fields in the valley but that have more or less soft corn in them.

Xavier Toillion has all his corn husked and in the crib. He had one of the finest crops in the valley.

People in this section were somewhat surprised upon arising from their beds last Wednesday morning to find the ground covered with snow, which delayed corn husking several days.

F. L. Terry is reported as worse at this writing with but faint hopes of his recovery.

A box social will be held in the new school building at Nichols on Friday evening of next week. Net proceeds will be devoted to purchasing new singing books for the Sunday school. Everybody is invited.

Many minor improvements have been made by the farmers of the valley in the way of outbuildings this fall.

Several North Platte sports have been looking for game in this country lately, but with very poor success.

Word has been received by the Toillions from a sister in Illinois to the effect that her family had all been down with typhoid fever and that one girl had died with it. The others are convalescing.

If the weather will permit Rev. Coslet will meet his appointment at the Platte valley school house next Sunday afternoon at the usual hour, and at Hershey in the evening.

S. L. Funkhouser is having hauled to his farm near Hershey the hay he purchased of the ditch company at this place.

J. M. Dwyer is harvesting a fine crop of pop corn from a field containing several acres.

J. B. McKee will do the "counting" for this precinct as a juror at the coming term of court. PAT.

Dr. Sawyer—Dear Sir: I can say with pleasure that I have been using your medicine, and will recommend it to all suffering ladies. Mrs. W. W. Westershee, Augusta, Ga. Sold by F. H. Longley.

It doesn't pay to slander. The women of Middleport, Ohio, set the tongue of gossip wagging concerning the bachelor proprietor of the iron mill at that place. Gossip turned into rumor and rumor was transformed into slander and the consequence is that the proprietor secured a site at Columbus and moved his mill away. Now the husbands of the gossips are out of work and the town is dead. This is a severe lesson but a just one.

Pale, thin, bloodless people should use Dr. Sawyer's Uraline. It is the greatest remedy in the world for making the weak strong. For sale by F. H. Longley.

A negro clergyman who was compelled to leave his compartment in the Pullman car when it reached the Texas line, and take a seat in an ordinary coach set apart for colored people, has won a ten thousand dollar suit for damages against the company for putting this indignity upon him. He purchased a first-class ticket in St. Louis for Galveston, with Pullman accommodations. No objection was raised to him occupying a seat in the Pullman car until he reached the Texas border. The court held that having been sold a first-class passage to Galveston it was his right to ride through under the same conditions. The jury was so charged and a judgment in his favor quickly rendered. The law in the Lone Star state setting apart one-half of each common coach for the use of colored people did not contemplate the possibilities of the color line in the Pullman cars and the railway companies will have to avoid lawsuits of this sort by some other means.—Council Bluffs Nonpareil.

Dr. A. P. Sawyer—Dear Sir: I have been suffering with sick headache for a long time. I used your Family Cure and now am entirely relieved. I would not do without your medicine. Mrs. G. A. Miller. Sold by F. H. Longley.

Dr. A. P. Sawyer—Sir: After suffering four years with female weakness I was persuaded by a friend to try your medicine, and after using them for one year, I can say I am entirely well. I cannot recommend them too highly. Mrs. M. S. Brook. Jackson, Mich. Branch Co., Mich. For sale by F. H. Longley.

NEBRASKA NOTES.

Township organization carried in Burt county. It isn't very expensive under the new law.

Several sick people of Kearney claim to have received benefit at the hands of the Denver healer.

The populists of Custer county celebrated their local victory in the old-fashioned way. An ox was roasted and all the people invited to eat their fill.

Proceedings by the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co. to obtain the foreclosure of its mortgage upon the Kearney opera house have been instituted in the United States district court.

Efforts are being made by the Commercial Club of Omaha to secure the stopping over in that city for a few days of Schlatter, the Denver healer, on his way east.

Every man on the democratic ticket in Thomas county was elected, and those who were lately rejoicing at the overthrow of democracy view with alarm the signal victory it has achieved in Thomas county.

Boot-leggers distributed red liquor to the voters at Gandy who wanted it, and candidates for office footed the expense. The local paper freely denounces the outrage, and demands the prosecution of all parties concerned.

A number of towns in Nebraska are agitating the question of the establishment of beet sugar factories. With the low percentage of sugar obtained from the beets this year, it is thought that some difficulty will be experienced in enlisting the necessary capital in these enterprises.

Mr. T. D. Thatcher of Sharon township, who has been quite ill for more than a year, and on several occasions his life despaired of, says the Gibbon Beacon, visited the so-called "healer" in Denver about the middle of last month and feels greatly benefited in health. He is able to work and says he has not felt so well for years.

Thomas Gass, who was recently stricken with paralysis, left Sunday evening for Denver to try Schlatter. He returned this afternoon and in conversation with him it was learned that he had not received any benefit from him. He stated that three thousand people were in line yesterday and that he paid three dollars for a place near the front of the line yesterday afternoon and consequently only waited about fifteen minutes until he was treated by him. He also states that it appeared to him that in order to be cured of any disease by him a person must have a great amount of faith or else be very superstitious.—Kearney Hub.

Dr. Sawyer, Dear Sir: Having used your Pastilles, I can recommend them to the public. I have been attended by four different doctors, but one and a half boxes of your medicine has done me more good than all of them. Yours respectfully, Mrs. Maggie Johnson, Bronson, Branch County, Mich. Sold by F. H. Longley.

CHARLES LEASE, druggist and husband of Mary E. Lease, the noted Kansas lawyer and politician, is constructively a prisoner in Wichita, having been arrested on complaint of the president of the State Board of Pharmacy for violating the state pharmacy law in that he refused to pay the annual 50 cent fee prescribed by the statutes for the support of the board. Mrs. Lease advised her husband that the law was unconstitutional and she will defend him in court.

Dr. A. P. Sawyer—Sir: After suffering four years with female weakness I was persuaded by a friend to try your medicine, and after using them for one year, I can say I am entirely well. I cannot recommend them too highly. Mrs. M. S. Brook. Jackson, Mich. Branch Co., Mich. For sale by F. H. Longley.
