 Six Months, cash in advance, - - - 75 Cents.
 Entered at the North Platte (Nebraska) postoffice as second-class matter.

ELEVEN YEARS OLD.
 With this issue THE TRIBUNE begins its twelfth year, having been issued ten years as a weekly and one year as a semi-weekly. Like all other business concerns, the paper has felt the effects of dull times during the past year, yet the editor has not missed a meal for lack of funds to pay for it, nor have the printers struck because they did not receive their pay promptly. For these conditions the editor is duly thankful; and he is also grateful for the patronage given the paper by business men and others.
 The paper will continue to make its semi-weekly visits, and if the present bright prospects for a revival of business are realized, it will be materially increased in size.

Edison says that science will be compelled to offer suggestions for defending our seacoasts in time of war. He believes that water can be made available as a partial means of blowing up warships so deadly that no living thing can exist in them and huge steel cruisers quite a distance out can be blown to atoms by mechanism located upon the shore.

THE NORTH PLATTE TRIBUNE asks: "How about Jack MacColl as a gubernatorial candidate?" Well Jack doesn't appear to be very much in evidence these days, and it is doubtful whether he cares to make another flyer for the governorship; but whether it shall be Mac-Coll or some other man from this section, it will be sufficient to have the governor haul from this corner of the state.—Kearney Hub.

We acknowledge the receipt of the almanac and encyclopedia issued by the Lincoln State Journal and have no hesitancy in pronouncing it the equal of the almanacs issued by the metropolitan papers of the country. This almanac contains 400 pages of statistics and other useful information, and as a reference book is very handy. It is mailed postpaid for 25 cents by the Journal Co.

E. B. WARNER, of this city, is mentioned as a candidate for delegate-at-large to the Republican national convention at St. Louis next June. It is believed that Nebraska will send a McKinley delegation to that convention, and as Mr. Warner was the only delegate from Nebraska who cast his vote for McKinley in the convention of 1892, it would seem that the stand he took for the great protectionist at that time should entitle him to recognition when the selection of delegates to the coming convention is made.

The list of aspirants for the republican nomination for congress in this district is large and steadily growing. Among those spoken of are some strong men and also some mighty weak ones. What the republican convention should do is to nominate the man who possesses the ability to make a live, earnest representative and who will also pull the full vote of the party. The Sixth district is, we believe, republican by a small plurality, and with three tickets in the field a strong republican candidate can win, even though Governor Si is nominated by the populists.

One of the most notorious green-goods swindlers, Vosburg, was discharged from custody the day before Christmas in New York, where he had been on trial for swindling a Nebraska farmer out of $500. His lawyer made a plea for clemency based upon the ground that his client had never sought to take human life and he concluded by saying: "In brief let the law be merciful, and grant a suspension of sentence on account of Christmas and the crucifixion of our Lord." Recorder Goff, that remarkable reform official, actually balkened to the plea and did discharge the notorious swindler on the council's promise that Vosburg should abstain from crime in the future.
 Vosburg is an aged man whose life is a record of crime and who could no more obey the law than he could fly. It will probably not be thirty days before he swindles another victim. One remark of the recorder's, however, is worthy of notice. He expressed the belief that the farmer who comes to purchase counterfeit money should be punished as a felon. There is truth in this, but that is no reason why Vosburg should have been turned loose upon the community.—Council Bluffs Nonpareil.

TRANSVAAL INVASION

THE CRISIS IS ENDANGERING THE ANGLO-GERMAN RELATIONS.

President Kruger Determined to Repel the British by Force of Arms—Sketch of Dr.
 Jameson's Life—Was the Prime Mover in the Matabele War.

LONDON, Jan. 2.—A dispatch from The Hague to The Times says that the Rotterdam Cheocoyant regards Dr.
 Jameson's action in the Transvaal as a most flagrant example of British arrogance. It admits that Holland can do nothing for the Boers and fears that England will seize the opportunity to wipe out the stain of the Majuba Hill incident. It also expresses the hope that Germany will come to the rescue.

The Berlin correspondent of The Times says: "The crisis is clearly endangering the Anglo-German relations.
 Public opinion is excited and angry and without doubt the government will interfere because relations have gradually arisen between the Transvaal and Germany, which have assumed in the public mind almost the shape of a moral protectorate by Germany over the Transvaal."

It is stated that President Kruger has telegraphed to Colonial Secretary Chamberlain pledging his government that the Boers shall temporarily adopt a passive attitude toward Dr. Jameson's forces on its arrival outside of Johannesburg. An important feature of this arrangement between Mr. Chamberlain and President Kruger is that all responsibility for hostility will rest with the chartered South Africa company.

Sketch of Dr. Jameson's Life.
 Dr. Jameson, the leader of the party of British South Africa company sympathizers now engaged, apparently in an invasion of the Transvaal, is the administrator for the British South Africa company's territory in Mashonal and Matabele lands. He is the son of a Scotch journalist and was educated for the medical profession. But just as he began to make his mark as a practitioner in Glasgow, he decided to go to South Africa, and in the early '70s he reached the diamond fields and soon acquired a high reputation and a remunerative practice in the treatment of typhoid malarial diseases as "camp fever," which is very prevalent in the South Africa mining districts. In fact Dr.
 Jameson was so successful that he was upon the point of returning to Scotland when he was persuaded by Mr. Cecil Rhodes, the premier of Cape Colony, to enter the service of the British South Africa company, in which not only Mr.
 Rhodes, but all his friends, are understood to be largely interested.

CONFLICT IS EXPECTED DAILY.

 British by Force of Arms.
 BERLIN, Jan. 2.—A cable dispatch received here from Pretoria says a rising has occurred at Johannesburg. It is added that 300 more armed men belonging to British chartered company have crossed the frontier and that President Kruger is determined to repel the freebooters by force of arms. A conflict between the Boers and England is expected at any time.

In discussing the invasion of Transvaal by Dr. Jameson and the forces of the British South Africa company, all the newspapers here declare his action constitutes a serious and unjustifiable breach of the peace against which Germany must protest.
 The National Zeitung remarks that German interests demand the maintenance of the independence of the South African republic, and it expects that the government will vigorously defend and come to President Kruger's aid in case of necessity.

POET LAUREATE OF ENGLAND.

Bestowed on Alfred Austin as a New Year's Honor by the Queen.
 LONDON, Jan. 2.—Among the New Year's honors which have been gazetted are the appointment of Alfred Austin to be poet laureate of England; Sir Frederick Leighton and Mr. Henry Hucks Gibbs to be peers of the realm; Sir Henry Temple, ex-member of parliament, and Mr. C. B. Stuart-Wortley to be privy councillor, and Colonel Howard Vincent and Judge H. H. P.
 Creswell of British Columbia have been knighted.

Prussian Mine Horror.

BRESLAU, Jan. 2.—An explosion of fire damp occurred in a colliery at Waldenburg, Prussia Silesia, 40 miles southwest of this city today. Fifty persons are known to have been killed or injured, and 17 others are missing.
 Twenty-one bodies have already been recovered, and 12 of the injured miners have been brought to the surface of the mine. The work of recovering the bodies of the others is progressing, and everything possible is being done for the injured.

France and Russia With Us.

VIENNA, Dec. 31.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Eris Presse announces that France and Russia have actually promised diplomatic support to the United States in the Venezuelan trouble, and he adds that Russia is prepared to facilitate the United States loan with her own gold reserve.

Active Military Preparations.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—A special to The World from Caracas says: Active military preparations are going on. General Garcia Gomez has been appointed to command the troops organized in the federal districts. He has ordered that all males between 18 and 50 who have been enrolled be drilled immediately.

Miller Speaks For Morton.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Ex-Senator Warner Miller says that Governor Morton has authorized his friends to say that he had consented to become a candidate for president of the United States.
 Chauncey M. Depew would not discuss the subject, but announced that he would soon give out a statement concerning the matter.

 Twenty-Seven Persons Trampled to Death the Result.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 29.—The horror at the Front Street theater last night, caused by a foolish cry of fire, resulting in a senseless panic, is increased rather than abated by today's developments.
 The list of identified dead has grown to 27 and two or three more who are lying in the city hospital are so desperately injured that their names may serve to swell the death roll ere another night has passed. The list of the dead as revised is as follows:

MOB TAKES A TERRIBLE REVENGE.

Faithless Wife and Her Paramour Burned to Death.
 LOUISVILLE, Dec. 30.—A special to The Commercial from Lebanon, Ky., says: Within two miles of this city a relentless mob burned to death a pregnant woman and riddled with bullets her gray haired paramour. The blackened and disfigured corpses of the victims, Mrs. Thomas West and William Deveres, were found in the ruins of the woman's home by the 14-year-old daughter of the murdered man. The tragedy was one of the most brutal ever enacted under the grimace of a dread judge lynch. Despite the pleadings for her father's life and the prayers of the ill and helpless woman, the mob went through with its work, and cold blooded, cruel deliberation, and only left when certain that both the man and woman were dead. The affair was the outgrowth of the old story of a faithless wife and a revengeful husband.

BOUNDARY COMMISSION.

President Cleveland Has Selected Five Members.
 WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—President Cleveland has announced the appointment of the Venezuelan boundary commission as follows: David J. Brewer of Kansas, justice United States supreme court; Richard H. Alvey of Maryland, chief justice of the court of the District of Columbia; Andrew D. White of New York, Frederick R. Conder of New York and Daniel C. Gilman of Maryland.

FERGUSON STARTED THE FIGHT.

Not Expected to Live.
 VICTOR, Colo., Jan. 2.—Just what caused the shooting at the Union theater, in which at least two and probably three lives were sacrificed, is not known.
 It appears that Burt Ferguson, a deputy sheriff, went into the theater and threatened to shoot out the lights.
 George Smith, the proprietor, was called, and immediately the shooting began.
 Smith was shot dead, as was Tom Pascoe, a patron of the theater, while Ferguson was fatally wounded. William MacInnery, who was Victor's first city marshal, and Charlie Watson received flesh wounds.

TWO KILLED AND SIX INJURED.

Two B. & O. Passenger Trains Collide Near Cincinnati.
 CINCINNATI, Dec. 31.—Two passenger trains collided at 7:30 last night on the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern railway near Coal City, 14 miles from Cincinnati. The dead are:

FREEMAN WILSON, of the Louisville express.
 AN UNKNOWN MAN, buried under the wreck.
BREWERS ARE AGAIN AT PEACE.
 The Beer War Is Ended and Prices Will Be Advanced One Dollar.
 CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—The beer war which has raged for a year or so has been settled. All the brewing companies doing business in Chicago have perfected a mutual agreement by which the price of beer will be advanced on Jan. 1 to $5 a barrel, the present price being $4 or less.

Restored to the Gold Reserve.

Resolution Introduced by Senator Sherman to Protect Our Yellow Metal.
 WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—The senate held a 2-hour session Tuesday, in the course of which a speech by Mr.
 Mitchell on the restoration of the Mc-Kinley duties on wools was listened to and a resolution was passed for the investigation by the committee on naval affairs of the prices paid by the government for ship armor. The resolution contained a broad intimation that officers of the government were interested in armor plate processes. The most important feature of the session perhaps was a resolution offered by Mr.
 Sherman for the restoration of the gold reserve, which hereafter should be held sacred for the redemption of the greenbacks and treasury notes, the former to be reissued only in exchange for gold coin and bullion. Mr. Elkins asked for the immediate consideration of a resolution appropos of the anticipated bond issue, declaring it to be the sense of the senate that no bonds of the United States should be sold at private sale or by private contract, but should be disposed of by advertisement to the highest bidder. Hill (N. Y.) objected.

Owned Has No Hope.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Henry Oxnard, president of the Nebraska beet sugar company of that name, left for New York, after a careful canvass among senators as to the possibility of securing an amendment to the revenue bill now in the hands of the finance committee of the senate. Mr. Oxnard is not sanguine that any legislation looking to a betterment of beet sugar interests could be enacted at this session.

Killed Her Drunken Husband.

NEWCASTLE, Neb., Dec. 30.—News reached here of a fearful tragedy occurred at a farm house seven miles west of here. Louis B. Haskie, a farmer, returned home from town in an intoxicated condition. After some words with his wife Dora he brutally assailed her. In order to save her life the woman picked up a gun and shot her husband, inflicting a wound from which he died. The coroner was notified and an inquest is in progress.

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican says of Lord Salisbury that he is one of the great blunders of history, for he conceived the preposterous notion that a few square miles of rock and sand, serpents and mosquitoes, were of more account to her majesty's empire than the good will of a nation of 65,000,000 people, speaking the same language and breathing the same prayers.

Pale, thin, bloodless people should use Dr. Sawyer's Effluvia. It is the greatest remedy in the
