CITY NEWS.

—The Second ward house company held its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday night.

—Hans von Sandt, the comical German cook, in funny specialties at Lloyd's March 17th.

—Wm. Briggs and family, formerly of this city, have changed their place of residence from Denver, Col., to Grand Junction.

—Lester Eells has not yet decided whether to make the race for mayor this spring, or wait and enter the governor's class next fall.

—For sale, a horse, surrey and harness. Inquire of H. S. Keith.

—A little birthday party was held Wednesday night at the residence of W. H. Johnson, in the Third ward, at which those present fully enjoyed themselves.

—Citizens of Randolph, this state, have petitioned congress for the construction of a railroad line from Sioux City, Iowa, to a connection with the Union Pacific in this city. Let the good work go on.

—The members of the Maxwell minstrel company after making successful tours in the neighboring villages are contemplating giving a performance in this city upon some date in the near future.

—Ed Davis and another gentleman in this city are working upon a new-fangled fire nozzle with which they expect to be able to extinguish flames without the use of water when they get their invention fully completed.

—Smoke Wright's Royal Sports and Havana Rose 5-cent cigars.

—Friends of Charles Hedy are talking of having him make the race for member of the board of education. He is a first rate man for the place, and would fill the position with credit to himself and constituents.

—Samuel Sagascar, the feeble-minded old soldier who has been under the guardianship of Tim Bresnahan for a long time, died Tuesday at the residence of the latter. The funeral occurred on Wednesday and was well attended by the Grand Army boys.

—For Sale and Rent, about 1,000 acres of land, all under ditch.
C. F. IDINGS.

—Wm. Blood has just imported from Colorado one of the late Bill Nye's favorite animals, the pensive burro. In the east within the last two or three years this has become a very favorite animal for the amusement of children, and with the care which many of them receive they make very creditable specimens.

—These populists in Lincoln county are making energetic efforts to increase their majority. Sheriff Miller is the latest to exhibit a pernicious activity in this direction, and together with his wife rejoices over the arrival of a bright new baby of regulation weight and crying capacity.

—The Epworth League will give an entertainment at the K. P. hall Saturday evening, March 14th. A short programme will be rendered, followed by a circulating library and art exhibit. Admission 10 cts. Proceeds to go to the fund for enlarging the church. Come and help us.

—If plans now being contemplated are successfully consummated the Methodist church people will this season begin the work of erecting a handsome new church edifice. It requires considerable nerve, these democratic times, to undertake an enterprise of this character; yet if there is a people on earth who have more energy than another class of their kindred, it is these selfsame Methodists. Success to them in their undertaking.

—W. C. Elder, J. S. Hoagland and A. S. Baldwin went to Kearney this week and were successful in their efforts to capture the republican congressional convention for this city. There will be two conventions held this year in the Sixth district, one on April 13th at Brokenbow, in the evening, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the national convention at St. Louis; and the regular nominating convention will be held at North Platte, August 19th at 10 o'clock a. m.

—On Wednesday evening, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Nauman, in this city, Judge Ray pronounced the mystic words which made James S. Smith and Miss Laura Nauman husband and wife. The former is the front street cigar manufacturer, and since his brief residence in this city has built up a good business by his close attention and industry. The bride is a North Platte reared young lady, and has many friends in this city. In connection with their friends THE TRIBUNE wishes the young couple a long and happy life.

HARRINGTON & TOBIN.

—A few of the bolder spirits ventured out this morning with their cutters to enjoy last night's fall of the beautiful.

Either Charley Ell or Sam Donehower must be a "hoodoo." The other night they started out with train No. 3 and had not proceeded more than a mile or two before the engine became disabled. The train was pulled into Pallas and they backed down to this city and jumped on the 888, and upon reaching their train, again started for Sidney. Before reaching the latter point the brake-rigging of the engine broke and they were compelled to stop and disconnect the same. Despite these difficulties they succeeded in showing up a little better than running time.

—If T. Fulton Gant's own and only specially imported Journalist will carefully consult the files of THE TRIBUNE of one brief year ago, which he has in his den, he will discover that the attitude of this paper to-day upon the subject of Mr. Belton's (or Pelton's) scheme to seduce the city into a $600 a year rental contract, is precisely the same as it was then. After the April election is over he will further discover that Mr. Belton never was "in it" as a candidate for mayor to any very alarming extent. If present indications do not fail this fall he will discover that the people of Lincoln county are disgusted with the methods of these alleged reformers, and the aforesaid Journalist will be started Washington-wards upon the toe of the doughty Colonel's boot. So far as the personal allusions to the writer are concerned they are of neither interest nor importance to the readers of THE TRIBUNE, so long as the paper continues to be the reliable advocate of republicanism. If our personal opinions cut any figure, it would have developed in the campaign of 1893, (the first successful one for the populists), when the writer was de facto editor of the Era—after Coles, Stockton, Gant, Cheyney, Hardin, et al had tried their "prentice hands" in making a successful political fight. This without any attempt at egotism, but because it is a matter of Lincoln county's political history.

PEOPLE WHO COME AND GO.
John Seeg went east yesterday morning on No. 2.

Frank J. Doran and wife returned last night from their Iowa visit.

M. G. Chiliberg, the U. P. coal salesman, was in the city yesterday.

Charles Kuhns, of Maxwell, made a business trip to this city Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. G. A. Beecher, of this city, goes to Sidney tomorrow to hold services in that place.

C. F. Jennings, of Holdrege is in the city today in the interest of the hardware company for which he travels.

RAILROAD ROTATION.
The painters did a good job on the train board in the telegraph office.

A heavy storm over in Iowa delayed train No. 1 some three hours yesterday.

The lecture by Dr. N. McCabe at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday at 4:15 P. M. will be very interesting to the young men of the city and should be attended.

A number of engine men casually examined the boring snow plow this morning with a view to understand its workings in case they should be sent out with it.

The boys in the freight house have a fine little garden growing in one of the south windows, wherein may be found a number of varieties of the early spring vegetables.

Dr. W. J. Galbraith head surgeon of the Union Pacific is in the city today. He came up from Omaha last night for a little goose hunt, and incidentally to perform a slight surgical operation.

The Union Pacific painters treated the express office yesterday with some specimens of their skill which much improved its comfort and appearance. McGovern says that hereafter he will require visitors to remove their hats before entering.

Roadmaster Riley, of the Second district, died Wednesday at his home in Schuyler from the effects of an attack of la grippe, united with old age. He was generally well liked by the men under him. He was the father-in-law of C. B. Havens, the wealthy Omaha coal dealer.

—One of the most soul-stirring speeches ever heard in these parts was delivered by Col. Elder at the congressional committee meeting Tuesday afternoon. It was eloquent, thrilling, impassioned, and worth going miles to hear. He rather overdid it, however, when he pledged himself not to make a speech if the convention was located at North Platte, because the boys would all rather hear Elder talk than indulge in any other form of light recreation. After it was all over, Mr. Elder authorized the Hub to announce that he would prepare an elaborate speech of welcome to the delegates and visitors when they visited the irrigation city, which would be read by Doc. Warner from the dome of the court house and in full view of the audience.—Kearney Hub.

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH PLATTE.
DEAR FRIENDS:—You are aware, no doubt, of the breaking of a water pipe in the Y. M. C. A. bath rooms not long since, and of the damage done by the water to the clothing stock of Messrs. Weber & Vollmer. The amount of damage was found by the arbitrators to be $82.75. The association has agreed to pay that amount. There is hardly enough funds in sight to pay the running expenses of the association for the year. We have secured "Eli Perkins" for a lecture Monday evening and the expense of the lecture will be about fifty dollars. All over that amount will be paid to Mr. Weber on the account due him. Mr. Landon (Eli) will deliver a fine lecture, and you will be amply compensated for the money paid out. So in behalf of the association, we ask every one to attend the lecture and help the association meet its obligations.

Respectfully,
B. L. ROBINSON, Pres.
F. E. BULLARD, Vice-pres.
H. B. HOLLINGSWORTH, Gen. Sec.
