WANTED-THREE THOUSAND WIVES. A City on Vancouver Island Where Women Are at a Premium.

There is a city in the western part of most desolate spot upon the face of the resources excellent, its houses fair, its a crutch. At Twenty-sixth street he there is an air of forlorn dejection that strikes the most careless traveler that comes within its boundary. It is on Vancouver island-a sweet, fair spot. And the desolation is caused women and girls.

This particular town is scarcer of the product than others of its locality. There are many towns upon the island, but this one lacks women so sadly that in a recent census of the place it was found nearly 3,000 short. This number included a count of serving women, women to do the work of the house, cook and wash and iron. It also included working girls and women who are not expected to marry. And, of course, it took in the queens of the city, the fair
