THE WILCOX DEPARTMENT STORE, - - - North Platte, Neb.

Town and County News.

—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Black have returned from their visit to Kansas City.
—Mr. and Mrs. John Bonner and Mrs. L. Stebbins have been spending this week at Lincoln.
—Mrs. C. F. Iddings gives a Kensington this afternoon in favor of her sister, Mrs. W. B. Conklin, of Austin, Ill.
—Several loads of broom corn raised on the ditch were marketed in the city to-day. The quality is said to have been very good. Unfortunately the price of this product is low at present.
—Messrs. Wright, Rebhausen and Fred and Perry Sawyer returned last evening from a couple of days shooting up at the Birdwood. They brought home fourteen geese and thirty-three ducks.
—Chas. Bowen, who has been farming on the Dillon land for the past two seasons, is temporarily living with his daughter Mrs. Hilliker and building up his health, which is none the best at present.
—The Wilcox Dept. Store will order 2 inch galvanized pipe for 15c cts, a foot, 1½ inch galvanized pipe for 9¼ cts a foot, ½ inch galvanized pipe for 4c a foot. 8 foot Armore Windmill 22.50. These prices are delivered in North Platte.
—H. V. Hilliker has purchased of A. B. Wyman 120 acres of land three miles west of the city. The land is under the Suburban ditch and it is Mr. Hilliker's intention to at once improve the property by getting it under cultivation.
—Seeds! Seeds! For the farm, field, garden and the lawn. Our extra fancy blue grass, direct from Paris, Kentucky, is the best sold in this country.
HARRINGTON & TOBIN.
—The local division of the Lincoln county teachers' association will meet at the high school building in this city to-morrow. Teachers are requested to bring the reading circle books. Papers and discussions will form part of the programme.
—Subjects at the M. E. church for next Sunday: Morning, "The Church of Victory is the Church of Faith." Evening, the first of a series of sermons on the "Christian and Amusement," opening the discussion on dancing. These discussions will be as thorough as data will permit. You are invited to be present.

—Will Baker leaves Monday for New York City, where he will join the Wild West Show.
—Attention Rebekahs! Staff drill at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, March 27th. By order of Captain.
—A. S. Brown, of the New York Lick, says he finds business rapidly picking up in all sections he has visited.
—Mrs. H. S. Keith, of Holdrege, will arrive in North Platte on this evening's train for a visit with friends.
—John Lemaster yesterday sold to Fred Fredrickson a Pacific bicycle. This is one of the high grade wheels built by Mr. Lemaster.
—Prof. Garlich has selected about 100 children to take part in the operetta he proposes to give in a month or so. Two or three hundred wanted to take part in the play but of course they could not all be accepted.
—Captain Hamilton and wife of Lexington, are in the city to-day, being delegates to the O. E. S. convention. The Captain has a large number of acquaintances in town and they are glad to meet him.
—On one or more occasions J. E. Evans appeared before the city council and protested against the grading of certain streets on the grounds that the city could not stand the expense, and suggested that the council keep the city expenses more within the bounds of the receipts. This is certainly an indication that Mr. Evans as mayor will not favor large expenditures for grading the streets, and that such work as is absolutely necessary will be awarded to the lowest bidder.
—The Wilcox Dept. Store sells Ladies' corrugated cloth covered belts at 20c; celluloid covered, 42c. Also a full line of Metal Belts, all kinds, at about 50 per cent of what others ask.
—Married, at the residence of the bride's parents, at Sutherland, March 24th, 1897, Christen Paulson and Miss Nellie Applegate, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends, Rev. T. H. Thurber officiating. After the ceremony the guests proceeded to unload a table groaning under the bountiful products of Lincoln county's irrigated farms. A very pleasant evening was spent. The young couple received many valuable and useful presents. They are highly esteemed and have the best wishes of the entire community. I. C. U.

—Fred Letts has purchased the Will Dolson property on west Front street.
—The time for filing petitions of nomination for city offices expires to-day.
—Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bird are happy over the arrival of a new baby at their home.
—Baled hay is still being shipped from this station, although the market price is low.
—Claude Weingand is not expected home from the east until about the 10th of April.
—D. E. Fowles, of Maxwell is in town to-day. Last evening he was initiated into the mysteries of Odd Fellowship.
—C. L. Patterson will take to the Birdwood country to-morrow several additional teams which will be employed on the Hinman & Patterson ditch.
—The Degree of Honor will give a dime social at their hall next Monday evening. Refreshments will be served and the evening spent in playing games and other amusements.
—There are a number of idle men around town who claim to be looking for work, yet C. L. Patterson has experienced considerable trouble in securing laborers to work on the Birdwood ditch. The wages offered were $15 per month and board.
—Poultry Netting 1-2 cent a square foot at the Wilcox Dept. Store.
—G. E. Girling, editor of Irrigation Age, of Chicago, and secretary of the Homeseekers' Association, is in town to-day obtaining statistics relating to irrigation in this county. He is well pleased with the progress of irrigation in this section and has promised to visit us during the growing season, when the full effect of irrigation is visible.
—The district convention of the Order of the Eastern Star, comprising chapters at McCook, Sidney, Lexington, Cozad and one or two other places, is now in session in this city. The first session of the convention was held at the Knights of Pythias hall yesterday. The exercises last evening consisted principally of an exemplification of the secret work by the members of the local chapter, which by the way is given the credit of being the banner chapter in the state as exemplifiers of the work.

—County Superintendent Mrs. Franklin has completed and mailed to the teachers of the county the programme of the meeting of the Western Nebraska Educational Association to be held in this city on April 30th and May 1st. —On Wednesday last the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church purchased the Wyman lot on the corner Spruce and Fourth streets for a consideration of 1,500 dollars. Whether the society will hold the property with the expectation of a rise in price, or whether it will be used for a future church site, is not at this time known.
Sweat Pads 20 cents each at the Wilcox Dept. Store.
—Dave Moffatt, of Denver, backed by the sugar trust, is about to inaugurate a gigantic project for manufacturing beet sugar in Colorado. The project will involve an outlay of from two to five million dollars. We are not a very great admirer of the sugar trust, yet we would like to see it invest a million or so in the beet sugar industry in Lincoln county.
The weather forecasts: Increasing cloudiness with probably rain to-night and Saturday, warmer to-night. The maximum temperature yesterday at North Platte was 62, minimum in past 24 hours 30, at 7 a. m. 30, precipitation .00. For the same period and time one year ago the maximum temperature was 71, minimum 30, at 7 a. m. 33, precipitation .00.

RAILROAD NOTES.
Supt. Park went to Denver Wednesday night, accompanying a party of Union Pacific officials.
A car of fine bred sheep enroute from California to South Africa passed through the city last evening.
George Winkowich, night hostler at the Sidney round-house, has been visiting North Platte friends for several days.
Foreman Gress, of the rustler gang, accompanied by his wife, left Wednesday night for visit at Hamburg, Iowa.
THE TRIBUNE is pleased to state that engineer John Bonner, who had a collision at Willow Island some five months ago by backing into the rear end of a broken train, has been reinstated.

—The North Platte Mandolin club went to Gothenburg Wednesday evening and assisted at a church entertainment. This organization is gaining a very favorable reputation.
—The second number of the Y. M. C. A. course will be Prof. J. Arthur Loining, of Chicago, and will be given at Lloyd's on Wednesday evening, March 31st. Mr. Loining is one of the best entertainers now on the stage, having at one time been associated with Booth, and also with Barrett. He is highly recommended by pastors, young people's societies, lodges, schools and the Y. M. C. A. He is a master in humor, tragedy, dialect and oration. The programme is varied and entertaining throughout, consisting of selections from the best authors as well as of his own production. Among them might be mentioned "The Tea Party" from Nicholas Nickleby; in contrast to this the ghost scene from Hamlet; also "A Night of Trouble" from Josiah Allen's Wife. He is also a tragedian of rare ability, handling his subjects in the tragic scenes of Shakespeare with natural aptitude and ease. All who attend are promised a rare treat.
SEED WHEAT.
I have Minnesota and Nebraska seed wheat for sale and will take native wheat at full market price as part payment.
