APPEAL TO THE VOTERS OF LINCOLN COUNTY.

In the conduct of this campaign in the interest of the republican county ticket, we have eschewed personalities and have confined our discussions to the public records of the two parties who are seeking the votes of the people.

We have presented to the people the facts as they appear of record, and we believe they bear us out in the statement that the government which the populists have given us in this county has been to draw it mildly, the most expensive ever given to the county by any party.

The election of the populist ticket means the endorsement and continuation of the extravagance and illegal methods that have prevailed during the past five years.

The men composing the republican ticket are pledged to economy and lawful methods in the conduct of affairs of the county. The character of each and every one of them is an earnest that they will fulfill this pledge to the letter. As citizens of Lincoln county you have a common interest in the furtherance of good government, in a return to the practice of economy in the county government, in a return to legal methods in the conduct of its affairs that is above and beyond mere partisanship.

We make an earnest appeal to every tax-payer and voter of this county who has the best interests of the county at heart to cast his vote for the republican county ticket to the end that the county may be redeemed from the misrule that has prevailed. And we pledge you that the republican candidates when installed into office will conduct the affairs of the county, not in the interests of any party, but in the interests of the whole people.

HOW TO MARK YOUR BALLOT.

The new Australian ballot which will be used for the first time this year, contains six separate tickets printed side by side.

The republican ticket at the left side of the ballot, the populist next, then the democrat, etc. At the head of each ticket is the name of the party and the party emblem. Under the emblem is a circle. In voting this ballot the voter should put a cross in the circle under the emblem representing his party principle. This would be counted as a vote for every candidate whose name appears under such emblem. But if the voter desires to vote for some candidate whose name is not under the emblem of his party, he must also place a cross in the square at the right of such candidate's name, and not make any other mark on the ballot.

WIGGLE all he may, Mr. Cheyney cannot get out from under the proof furnished by THE TRIBUNE that the floating indebtedness of the county has increased over twenty thousand dollars under populist rule. The records show it; the records prove it; and Mr. Cheyney does not and cannot disprove it. Think of it tax-payers, an increase in the floating indebtedness of over twenty thousand dollars in less than five years.

The populist party, howls Mr. Cheyney, is not indebted to the democrats for any of its success in Lincoln county. In other words Mr. Cheyney would rather have the populist ticket go down to defeat "than to receive the support of the democrats, who he says, are so ignorant that they cannot tell why they are democrats.

THE ADMISSIONS OF CHEYNEY.

The Era in its last issue before election is compelled to admit the truth of every count in the indictment brought by THE TRIBUNE against the populist ring.

First, that the last five years of populist county government cost the tax-payers $80,393.35 more than a like period of republican control.

Second, that the floating indebtedness of Lincoln county increased $20,554.96 during the past four years.

Third, that the unpaid interest bearing warrants of the county have increased to $41,533.49.

Fourth, that the increase in the 1896 levy made by order of the populist board caused an increased taxation on the people of $16,273.80 in that year and that not a dollar of that increase was paid on railroad or telegraph lines.

Fifth, that the county commissioners during the past four years had illegally levied in the bridge fund $21,553.88 in excess of the requirement of that fund, and admits that all of this excess except $4,775.90 of the 1896 levy has already been unlawfully transferred into the general fund, but does not deny that even this too will be so transferred.

Sixth, that the populist commissioners have, contrary to law, paid thousands of dollars of costs in misdemeanor cases out of the county general fund.

Seventh, that Butler Buchanan will be unable at the end of his term to turn over to his successor the principal of the county funds which have come into his hands, to say nothing about the interest.

Eighth, that the tax-payers of the county have been robbed of thousands of dollars on the county publishing by the failure of the populist commissioners to award the work to the lowest bidder.

Ninth, that the county government under populist rule has been run in the interest of the populist ring and not in the interest of the whole people.

In regard to our showing that the five years of populist rule, 1893 to 1897, cost the tax-payers of Lincoln county for the expenses of county government $80,393.35 more than the period of 1883 to 1887, when the republicans were in control, the Era admits the absolute correctness of the TRIBUNE'S figures for the respective periods but asserts that during the latter period there was a proportionate greater population.

Cheyney is not to blame for the mistake. But the people know that while there has been a shifting of the population from the uplands to the valley there has been very little change in the aggregate population.

In our comparison, desiring to be fair in our comparison, we only used the portion of the tax levy that is in the discretion of the commissioners.

But Cheyney, in order to make a favorable comparison for his clients, in comparing the taxes paid, 1887 to 1891 with 1892 to 1893, includes with the 15 mills levied, the amount levied to pay the principal and interest on bonds voted by the people. During the former period we were paying off the principal and interest on the court house and South Platte bridge bonds, matters the commissioners had no control of. In our comparisons we include the taxes levied by the commissioners to pay the current expenses of the county and that is the only fair comparison.

THE Era calls attention to the fact that the county clerk, whose duty it is to secure the printing of the election ballots, let the contract to the State Journal Company because its bid was lower than THE TRIBUNE'S and commends the clerk for so doing. This is one proposition on which THE TRIBUNE will agree with the Era. It is the principle for which THE TRIBUNE has been contending for the past six years of populism, and if the populist county commissioners had been as honest and looked out for the interest of the county as Clerk Burritt has, they would have saved enough on the county printing and publishing during the past six years to make a material reduction in the floating debt of the county.

was the cost of county government for five years under republican administration.

was the cost of county government for five years under populist control.

shows the difference in favor of republican rule. Voters, is it not easy to see which party transacts the business of the county in an economical manner? "Turn the rascals out" next Tuesday.

THE populists are on the run; keep after them until the polls close next Tuesday evening.

Motion For Postponement Withdrawn by Attorneys For Government—Those Interested in the Kansas Pacific Consent to Postponement Until December.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 27.—A telegram from Attorney General McKenna yesterday afternoon notified the attorneys for the government in the Union Pacific case that the sale could proceed as originally planned, arrangements having been made with the organization committee that guaranteed to the government its full lien on the property. General John C. Cowin of Omaha and ex-Governor George F. Hoaday of New York were in the city to press the motion for a six weeks' postponement, notice of which had been given by General Cowin. However, there came a telegram from the attorney general ordering the withdrawal of the motion for postponement. This telegram was presented to Judge Saurborn of the United States circuit court and the notice of the motion to postpone was withdrawn. By stipulation the sale of the Kansas division was set for Dec. 15, but the main line will be sold next Monday at Omaha, as heretofore announced by Master Commissioner Cornish.

TWO WHITES WERE ALSO SHOT.

Telegram of this afternoon from Lieutenant Kirkman, commanding Camp Pilot Butte, Wyo., states that a scout just arrived and reports engagement at Thompson's last evening at 5 p. m. between Utes and game wardens, in which two bucks, one squaw, one papoose and two wardens were killed. Duchesne notified this morning and in Wright's troops of cavalry to the scene of the reported disturbance. The cavalry squadron at Logan is directed to be held in readiness to proceed to Duchesne, Heavy snowstorm prevailing and telegraph lines work badly."

Wire Trust Forming.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—There is a movement on foot to consolidate all the wire manufacturers of the United States in a single corporation with a capital of $100,000,000. To evade the antitrust laws, all or nearly all the wire industries will surrender their independence and sell their plants to a new organization for cash at an appraised value, the money to be furnished by a syndicate of bankers in this city. Pierpont Morgan is said to be at the head of the scheme.

Duchess of Teck Dead.

RICHMOND, Eng., Oct. 28.—The duchess of Teck, cousin of Queen Victoria, sister of the duke of Cambridge, and mother-in-law of the duke of York, died at the White Lodge here at 3 o'clock this morning. She was born Nov. 27, 1833, and was married on June 12, 1866, to Prince Francis, duke of Teck. The death of the duchess of Teck was entirely unexpected. It was supposed that she had entirely recovered from a complaint which caused her considerable suffering.

Bureau to Collect Statistics.

BERLIN, Oct. 28.—The government has decided to found an imperial bureau to collect statistics regarding all branches of the national production. The figures and facts so gathered will be published regularly, so as to enable government officials to be always clearly posted as to the exact state of industry, export and import, as well as of agriculture.

LAST WILL OF GEORGE M. PULLMAN.

Contains Many Large Bequests to Public and Charitable Institutions. CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—The last will and testament of George M. Pullman will be filed in the probate court Wednesday morning. Until that time no part of its contents will be made known to the public. Robert T. Lincoln and Norman B. Ream, joint executors and the nearest relatives of the millionaire, who were present when the document was read at the family residence, are the only ones who have any knowledge of the wording of the will beyond a few prime facts given out by Mr. Lincoln. Mr. Lincoln said: "Mr. Pullman's will is very liberal indeed. It contains many large bequests to public and charitable institutions. It will be filed in the probate court at the earliest possible moment and then it will be published for the first time in its entirety. The executors will be obliged to furnish heavy bonds and there are many similar routine matters to be attended to, all of which requires time. We now expect to have everything ready to go into court early on Wednesday."

ELEVEN FEVER VICTIMS IN A DAY.

Worst Day of the Yellow Fever Situation at New Orleans. NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 26.—Numerically yesterday has been the worst day of the fever situation here. As early as 7 o'clock last evening the score at the board of health showed a total of 57 new cases and there had been ten deaths to the number of 11. Heretofore the highest number of deaths in a single day has been nine. Unfortunately there continues to be concealment of cases here, fatalities occur because medical attention is not called in and the masses for the time being are in a revolutionary mood because of the enforcement of the system of quarantine, and are resorting to every means in their power to put obstacles in the way of the constituted authorities. It is generally agreed here that the house quarantine is not accomplishing the results expected.

Fort Sheridan Scandal.

Captain Lovering Admits Charges Made by Private Hammond. CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Private Hammond, gaudy and thin and showing plainly the effects of his 14 days' imprisonment on a bread and water diet in the guardhouse at Fort Sheridan, appeared before a court of his superior officers today and told them of the circumstances of his disobedience of the orders of Captain Lovering and of the subsequent drastic measures taken by that official to enforce his demands. Captain Lovering was then called. He made no attempt to deny any of the accusing witness' statements. He admitted that by his order, Hammond had been dragged from the guardhouse, and he also admitted that he had struck the soldier and pricked him with his sword. None of this treatment, Captain Lovering said, had injured Hammond in the least, as was proven by the surgeon's report, and the methods used were, in his opinion, necessary for the discipline of the army. The court then adjourned until tomorrow.

Verdict of Jury.

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—The grey light of a cool autumn morning straggled through the big windows of Judge Tut-till's court yesterday as Adolph L. Luet-gert, the man who has been on trial for the charge of murdering his wife and boiling her body in a vat, heard from the foreman of the 12 men, who have been considering his case for the past 66 hours, the words, "We are unable to agree upon a verdict." Imperturbable as ever, evincing no joy at the words, the wonderful nerve of the defendant was with him to the end. He stood up and, with only a good natured smile on his swarthy face, shook hands with his son Arnold, his counsel and business partner, William Charles, and in less than five minutes was led back to jail, the jury dismissed and the great trial was over.

Hot Campaign in Ohio.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 24.—The political campaign in Ohio set out with the lines strongly drawn on the national issues of the gold standard and the free and unlimited coinage of silver, 16 to 1. Later, when the Republicans announced Mark Hanna for the senate the Democrats turned all their guns on him. Now the silver fight is to be resumed with William J. Bryan as chief speaker. The real objective point after all was the election of a legislature that will choose a United States senator. The work of both parties is in doubtful legislative districts. The campaign all next week will be hot on both sides.

Second Trial of Luertger.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—There is a possibility that the second trial of Adolph L. Luertger, the alleged wife murderer, will begin this week. State's Attorney Deneen said today that unless the defense asked for a continuance, and still persisted in their demand for the release of the prisoner on bail, he would put the case on the trial call for Wednesday.

Obsequies of George M. Pullman.

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—Funeral services over the body of the late George M. Pullman were held at the family residence in Prairie avenue today. The officiating clergymen were Rev. N. D. Hillis and C. K. Eaton of New York. Each minister spoke briefly, the Imperial quartet sang a selection and the casket was closed. Interment was in the family lot at Greendale.

Thirteen Find Ocean Graves.

POINT ARENA, Cal., Oct. 26.—The little steamer Alcazar, which was dispatched to the rescue of the crew of the wrecked steam schooner Caspar from Greenwood Saturday, returned to her mooring this morning and reported having seen nothing of the supposed survivors of the disaster. It was reported that she had been seen to pick up two of the crew of the ill-fated Caspar, but it transpires that she only picked up some of the wreckage. It is now known that thirteen men perished on Saunders reef.

Ex-Auditor Hippie Bound Over.

PIERRE, S. D., Oct. 28.—The preliminary examination in the case of the state of South Dakota against ex-auditor J. E. Hippie was brought to a close by Justice Jacobson binding the accused over to the next term in bonds of $2500.

TRAIN IN THE RIVER.

NINETEEN SOULS PLUNGED INTO ETERNITY. Several Bodies Not Yet Recovered—Wreck Occurred on New York Central Near Garrison Station—Exact Cause of Catastrophe May Never Be Known.

GARRISON, N. Y., Oct. 26.—From the sleep that means refreshment and rest to the eternal sleep that knows no waking, plunged in the twinkling of an eye Sunday morning, 19 souls, men, women and children. Into the slimy bed of the Hudson river, a train, laden with slumbering humanity, ploughed, dragging through the waters the passengers. There was nothing to preface the terrible accident which so suddenly deprived these unfortunates of life.

It is known that it was a trifle foggy and that the track was not visible, but if there was any break in the lines of steel it must have been of very recent happening, for only an hour before here had passed over it a heavy passenger train laden with human freight. Neither is an explanation ready. All is conjecture. The section of road was supposed to be the very best on the entire division. There was a heavy retaining wall all along the bank, and while the tide was high, it was not unprecedented. What seems to have happened was that underneath the tracks and lines the heavy wall had given away and when the great weight of the engine struck the unsupported tracks it went crashing through the rest of the wall and tipped over into the river.

It was three o'clock before the derrick and hoisting engine could raise the combination cars consisting of the smoking and baggage compartments to such a position that the top of it was out of the water. Slowly the big load began to rise and in a few minutes it had been turned over so that the windows were clear of the water. The body of a man came out of a window as the car was being brought to the shore. A boat was nearby and the oarsmen secured the body. It was the first lifeless form of any of the passengers to be rescued. A passenger coach without seats was close at hand, and the body was carried thither, and deposited on the floor. The man was about 50 years of age. His head was partly bald and a bushy beard tinged with grey covered his face. He was dressed in cheap clothes and his shoes were cheap ones. A G. A. R. badge was fastened to the breast of his vest. The busy rescuers did not have time then to make any inquiry as to who he was but simply tore off a slip of paper, wrote "Body No. 1" and pinned it on his coat and left him to look for himself. By the time they had returned the derrick had drawn the car to the bank and the work of getting the passengers who had come to an untimely end, was under way. The searchers were only able to find eight Chinamen, and they were also carried to the morgue car. They were laid in a row numbered and were ready for identification.

Story of Wolcott's Mission.

British Government Will Not Consent to Free Coinage. LONDON, Oct. 24.—The correspondence in regard to the bimetallic proposals of the United States monetary commission was issued by the British foreign office last evening. The following account of the negotiations is taken from the official publication: On the invitation of the British premier Senator Wolcott explained that the object of the mission was to ascertain in advance of an international conference the views of the governments and the envoys had determined to ascertain the views of the French, British and German governments on the matter of reaching an international bimetallic agreement. They had been to France where they reached a complete and satisfactory understanding with the French government, and the envoys would have the co-operation in this matter of the French ambassador in London. The meeting then closed and it was understood by the parties that the absence of the French ambassador from the proceedings should be regarded as informal and a second conference was held on the 16th, at which, in addition to those already mentioned, the French ambassador and M. Geoffrey, the councillor of the French embassy, were present.

The French Ambassador Invited to Declare Position.

The French ambassador was invited to declare the position of the French government and he said France was ready to reopen her mints to the free coinage of silver if the commercial nations adopted the same course and advocated at great length the ratio of 15 to 1. But, he explained, France would not consider the reopening of the mints of India alone as being sufficient guarantee to permit the French government to reopen the French mints to the free coinage of silver.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach Then Definitely Announced.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach then definitely announced that Great Britain would not agree to open the English mints to the unlimited coinage of silver.

Army of Tennessee Meeting.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 28.—The society of the Army of the Tennessee received a warm welcome at the hands of the citizens of Milwaukee at a public meeting which was held at Plymouth church last night. Mayor William G. Raneberger delivered Milwaukee's welcome address and General Grenville M. Dodge responded on behalf of the society. The main feature of the program, which contained several musical numbers, was the annual oration of the society, which was delivered by the Rev. Thomas Ewing Sherman, son of General W. T. Sherman, who spoke on "Wisconsin In Our Army." President McKinley and General Russell A. Alger, who had been invited, were unable to leave Washington. Omaha will probably be selected as the next meeting place.

Trains Stalled at Cheyenne.

Rotary Ploy Sent Out From Omaha by Union Pacific to Open Up the Road. OMAHA, Oct. 28.—Last night reports began to come in of a blizzard raging in western Nebraska, the like of which had not been seen since the memorable winter of '88. People were surprised to learn that freight traffic between North Platte and Cheyenne had been suspended owing to the drifts on the tracks, and that it was impossible to see a distance of more than 20 yards in any direction owing to the blinding snow. The Union Pacific railroad sent its rotary plow west last night to knock the drifts and get passenger trains through. It is feared that large herds of sheep that are being wintered in Nebraska will suffer.

SPAIN MAKES REPLY.

FORMAL PROTEST WILL BE MADE AGAINST FILIBUSTERING.

It Clearly Intimates That Spain Cannot Continue the Forbearance Shown by Former Premier—Calls Upon American Government to Fulfill Treaties.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The event of the day yesterday at the state department was the receipt of the long expected cablegram from United States Minister Woodford at Madrid, transmitting the answer of the Spanish government to his representations in the interest of peace in Cuba. This message began to come in installments at 2 o'clock Tuesday night and it was nearly noon before it was all in.

It may be, it is true, regarded as insufficient to meet the issue presented by Mr. Woodford in his note, but officials of the state department say that in view of what has already been accomplished by the new Spanish ministry and cabinet in forming a basis in Cuba, in removing Weyler, and in projecting what appears to be a liberal measure of autonomy, our government will certainly rest, at least until congress assembles, and afford the new Spanish government time to carry out its plans.

MADRID, Oct. 26.—A government note against filibustering will be handed to United States Minister Woodford today. According to a dispatch from Havana Lieutenant-General Weyler has ordered the abandonment of demonstrations that were preparing in his favor. Mrs. Woodford, wife of the minister, has arrived here. General Woodford has not yet taken an official residence but will continue to occupy apartments at the Hotel De Lome.

There is no doubt that the government's reply will represent the deep feeling of the nation. The note dwells at length on filibustering and other material and moral assistance which has chiefly contributed to the rise and duration of the rebellion, and which has damaged American interests. It clearly intimates that Spain cannot continue the forbearance shown by Senator Canovas Del Castillo and Duke of Tetuan during the past two years and that she now calls upon the American government "to fulfill more strictly in the future the rules and duties of international law" because "the excess of the new house rule policy and the speedy pacification of Cuba chiefly depend upon the conduct of the United States."

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The Madrid correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "The Spanish press unanimously supports the attitude of the government, which it calls eminently sober and dignified, but the impression is that the controversy with the United States has reached a crucial stage which may be a prelude to a rupture."

Many of the North American Indians were magnificent specimens of physical manhood. This was due, largely, to their active out-door life. Nevertheless, they had the wisdom to know that an active life in the open air alone, would not keep a man healthy. They had their medicine-men, who gathered herbs from field and forest and brewed decoctions to assist the natural processes of the various vital organs.

Modern civilized men do not as a usual thing recognize the same necessity until it is too late. They ignore medicine until they are within the grasp of some serious or fatal disease. The time for a man to begin taking medicine is when he begins to feel out of sorts. If a man is thoroughly well and healthy he does not feel that way. If he does feel that way he may be pretty sure that he is half sick. When he is half sick it does not take long before he is "whole-sick." Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best medicine for a man when he is sick or getting sick. It puts him all right all round. It puts his stomach right to begin with, and that is the most important point. It puts his liver right, and that is the second most important point. It purifies his blood and fills it with the life-giving elements of the food he eats, and that is the third important point. It drives out all disease germs and impurities of every description. It makes the appetite keen and hearty. It is the greatest blood-maker and flesh-builder. It cures 98 per cent of all cases of consumption, weak lungs, spitting of blood, obstinate coughs and kindred ailments. Thousands who were given up to die have testified to their recovery under this marvelous medicine. An honest dealer will not urge a substitute for the sake of a little extra profit. He gives you what you ask for.
