Harrington & Tobin are always ready to accommodate any responsible person for 30 or 60 days' time on grocery bills whenever sickness or misfortune invades your home and temporarily absorbs your ready cash. At the same time we absolutely guarantee to sell you goods at all times as cheap as if you planked down the cash with every purchase. We invite the closest comparison of our prices with those of spot cash stores, and if we are not in line let us know it.

Harrington & Tobin.

It is stated that the car repair shops at Grand Island will be closed and hereafter the class of work performed there will be done at the shop here. This will probably add a few men to the force at this point. It is also said that from this time forward all engines on the Fourth district needing repairs will be sent to the North Platte shops. Heretofore the engines on that district have been repaired at Cheyenne. It is the general belief that in the end North Platte will profit by the change in the ownership of the Union Pacific.

We have 15 kegs of mixed nails for sale at $2.00 per 100 pounds, Harrington & Tobin.

Dr. Galbraith, chief surgeon of the Union Pacific, will be present at the union meeting of the railroad orders in this city on the 22d inst., and will confer with the delegates in regard to the hospital fund. The several phases of this matter will be fully considered, as each delegate will have instructions from his lodge as to what action is desired by the members. Dr. Galbraith will come prepared to give full information in regard to the fund and all matters pertaining thereto. The meeting at which this will be considered will be held the day following the general meeting.

REMOVAL SALE!

Previous to my removal to my own building—made vacant through the failure of John H. Day I will sell my entire stock of Dry Goods, Silks, Velvets, Shoes and Carpets at for one month, beginning March 10th. We do not wish to move these goods and in order to close out this most choice stock will sell goods just at cost. Look at these prices:

Black Dress Goods which formerly sold for $1 and $1.25 are now offered at 75 cents. $1 and $1.25 Silks, fancy and plaids, at 75 cents. $1.25 and $1.75 Silk and Satin Dress Goods in black at $1 per yard. This is a genuine sale—no humbug. You know we carry the only choice goods in this line in North Platte. Colored Dress Goods just received, worth $1 and $1.25, will be sold for 75 cents. These goods were bought in good faith to sell in the store we now occupy, but you all know why I have to move. Fifty and 65 cent Dress Goods in black and colors, at 25 cents per yard. We ask you all to call and examine these goods before you purchase elsewhere and be convinced that we are selling goods at less price than any house in Nebraska.

We have just opened twenty pieces of all-wool Laurel Carpets in handsome Spring patterns, which cost us 65 cents per yard and we offer them at 70 cents per yard. 1.25 and 1.50 Velvets: Bussels at this sale for one dollar a yard.

Ten thousand yards 15-cent Waist Goods, in all styles, one yard wide, at 11 1/2 cents a yard. Every lady in town knows what these goods are worth. Twenty pieces Black Ground Satines, costing 15 to 20 cents per yard, at this sale for ten cents. Five hundred yards 20 cent Organdies at 10 cents. We have many more bargains which space will not permit us to enumerate.

We have an immense line of J. B. Lewis Shoes and to sell them we will simply say ONE-HALF PRICE to all comers.

Rennie, the Leader, Rennie, the Stayer, Rennie always in the front. We are able to sell goods lower and give you a larger assortment than any other house in North Platte. We do not have to borrow money from the banks to run our business.

RENNIE'S. RENNIE'S.

John W. Wood, of New York City, general secretary of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, arrived on No. 1 Wednesday evening. He was met at the depot by a committee of the local chapter and given a short drive around the city. At 6:30 supper was served at the rectory to members of the chapter and the guest, and an hour later Mr. Wood delivered an address at the Episcopal church. He told of the scope of the brotherhood, which now numbers 12,000 in this country, and the work it is doing. Mr. Wood is a rapid and fluent talker and his address was entertaining and instructive. Following this service a conference meeting of the chapter was held.
