A W. R. C. social will be held at the home of Mrs. C. L. Black to-morrow afternoon.

Mrs. C. A. Weir and sister, Miss Nan Manifee, left this morning for Denver and other Colorado points.

Two rooms for light housekeeping or will board the roomers.

MRS. EDITH GANETT.

Loose hay and baled hay always for sale.

Harrington & Tobin.

Cash in advance subscribers to THE TRIBUNE will be given a year's subscription to the weekly Kansas City Star free. This offer is only for a limited time.

Quite an exodus of North Platte people to Denver occurred Sunday night, but we failed to get the names of those who went.

Between fifty and sixty tickets for Denver were sold at the local U. P. office yesterday and to-day.

The Kearney Hub says the time is not far distant when the telephone line running from Kearney to Gothenburg will be extended to North Platte.

Messrs. Gentzler and Ashburn, of the Fremont Creamery Co., arrived last night and will attend the opening exercises of the separator station this afternoon.

Quite a number of our citizens will go down to Lexington Thursday to take a look at the street fair being held there this week.

The funeral of Mrs. J. Q. Wilcox yesterday afternoon was very largely attended, the seating capacity of the church being insufficient to accommodate the audience.

North Platte dealers have not yet received their supply of hard coal. There is said to be a scarcity of the article in the market, and prices will probably rule rather high.

A leading grocery house of the city reports that its business for July, August and September will break all records. Other establishments report equally gratifying business.

W. F. McGlone & Co. are selling Mason fruit jars at the following prices. Pints 40c., quarts 50c., half gallons 55c.

Rhodes Longley has received the appointment of assistant chemist at the state university. As Rhodes is in the junior class, the appointment certainly speaks well for his standing in studies.

Hay shipments from this station are a little light at present, the principal dealers, Harrington & Tobin, shipping an average of two cars a day. The big demand for hay usually occurs in November, and at that time prices will probably rule a little higher than at the present.

Dr. Lucas was called thirty miles north yesterday to attend a man who had accidentally shot himself in the stomach. The particulars of the accident could not be learned.

Anthony J. Powers, of Chicago, died in this city last night of consumption. The deceased was a railway mail clerk and came here a short time ago for his health. He was a member of the A. O. U. W. and the local members of the order are looking after the preparations of the remains for shipment.

Pillsbury's Best flour is the best Minnesota flour sold in the west. $1.15. Harrington & Tobin.

Rev. Randolph, who has charge of the North Platte circuit, is very desirous of having a parsonage built in this city. As Rev. Randolph has been a very energetic worker and accomplished much good for the people of his charge, they, as well as the people of the city, should give him the necessary assistance in having the parsonage become a reality.

The Star Restaurant will be opened to the public to-morrow morning.

A company of high class and refined vaudeville performers will be at Lloyd's opera house next Monday and Tuesday evenings, Oct. 2d and 3d. The world famous drummer boy of Shiloh, who has no equal in the world, is with the company. Among the specialties is a prima dona balladist, a king of comics, a lady legerdemaine artist, a premier xylophone artist, a renowned king of lights and a celebrated piano soloist. There will also be a display of moving pictures. This company showed 342 consecutive times in Chicago, six weeks in Boston and eleven weeks at Saratoga, N. Y. You can't afford to miss it.

Misses Kate and Maggie Barker went to Denver Saturday night.

The coming of the Carrington Entertainers will be the amusement event of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Waltemath went to Omaha this morning to attend the exposition and take in the Ak Sar Ben parade.

Consult Dr. Miller of the Romine Dental Co. before you go elsewhere for your dental work. Office over Streitz' drug store.

Order baled hay from Harrington & Tobin.

W. S. Ross, of Myrtle precinct, marketed a hundred dollars worth of hogs in town to-day which he fattened on this year's corn.

Tile culverts are being put in at the intersection of Fourth and Elm streets. The wooden culverts, let it be said to the credit of the city, are fast disappearing.

S. E. Douglas is behind the counters at McCabe's drug store while I. E. Bush is out in the country precincts looking after his political interests.

Received our fall supply of the celebrated Club House brand of canned goods. Harrington & Tobin.

Chicago forecast for North Platte and vicinity: Fair to-night and Wednesday. Cooler Wednesday. The maximum temperature yesterday was 71; one year ago it was 90.

About twelve hundred pounds of milk were delivered at the separator station this forenoon. This is considered a very fair quantity for the opening day. In a short time it is believed the quantity will run from 3,000 to 5,000 pounds daily.

Will receive a car load of choice winter apples about Oct. 10th. Harrington & Tobin.

The North Platte Telephone Co.'s line to Hershey, which has been in operation for a week or so, is working first-class. Within the next week the company will have the line extended to Sutherland. It is quite probable that the company will run a line east to Brady, connecting there with the line which will be extended west from Gothenburg.

Mrs. H. S. Ridgley is teaching Miss Vernon's room during the latter's absence in Denver.

Walter States and Ed Barracough will probably begin an apprenticeship in the U. P. shops next Monday.

Mrs. J. G. Anderson and daughter Miss Bessie are among the North Platte people who are spending this week in Omaha.

It is rumored that Tom O'Neill will be transferred to Cheyenne to take charge of the boiler shop, and that John Owens will succeed Mr. O'Neill at this place.

The Y. M. C. A. entertainment committee is well pleased with the result of the first entertainment of the season's course, and are inclined to believe that the present one will be even more successful than that of last season.

The grade at Bosler hill just west of Ogallala is being lowered about six feet at the highest point. This will lessen the amount of emphatic language used by engineers when pulling heavy west-bound trains on a cold frosty morning.

The plan to establish a hospital in this city is being pushed with considerable vim. An option on the lease of the Dillon brick residence in the east part of town and on the Cody residence in the west end has been secured, and it is probable that one or the other will be taken. Eight or ten citizens have agreed to furnish rooms in the hospital, and a number of business men have made financial contributions toward furnishing an operating room. Miss Frey will have associated with her two other trained nurses. There is no question but that the hospital will be a good thing for the city.

Our people can afford to buy the celebrated Pillsbury's Best Minnesota flour at only $1.15 a sack. Harrington & Tobin.
