A RIDDLE..

What becomes of the wool in the suit of clothes that is sold to the man at $5, reduced from $12?

If he buys

such a bargain, then, of course, the wool is pulled over his eyes.

This kind o' talk

means that we don't carry any $5 men's "all wool" suits. We don't buy that kind, ergo, can't sell 'em.

Say for instance your'e a poor man . . . . .

Even at that you're not so poor but what you can afford $10 for an honest and durably made suit of clothes. In this store at this price you get a real, bona fide clothing value—something you need not be ashamed of, something that will wear and hold its appearance, and at the end you're "money in."

DUTCHESS TROUSERS at $1.35 and up. Remember those Lycoming Pants—$3 values for $1.75.

ONE PRICE AND PLAIN FIGURES.
