

Local News in Brief.

Services will be held at the Church of Our Saviour Ascension Day (Thursday) at 10:30 a. m.

Mrs. Peter Muir, wife of a well-known resident of Sunshine precinct, died at her home last Saturday. The deceased was about forty-five years of age.

C. W. Burklund, of Sutherland, was in town yesterday completing the purchase of one thousand head of sheep, which he will pasture this season on his ranch south of Sutherland.

Mike McLaughlin has ordered THE TRIBUNE sent to his address at Cheyenne. This is pretty good evidence that Mike was not killed as reported, or that he is in a Denver hospital.

Ray Langford, who recently purchased and leased a large body of land northeast of town, is gathering quite a herd of two and three year old steers, and will devote his time to the cattle business.

Alvin Pool is planning to spend the fall and winter in Chicago taking instructions on the violin. He is a good amateur violinist, and being ambitious, he desires to become more proficient.

The water in the South Platte is again receding and the stream can now be forded with comparative safety. Several arteries Sunday, however, choose the lead safe plan of driving around by the Nichols bridge in order to reach town.

County Clerk Holtry and Deputy Evans are now at work on the tax list, and will have it in the hands of treasurer before the expiration of the time prescribed by law. Last year, for the first time in a decade, the list was completed on time.

Saturday evening Judge Baldwin rendered a judgment of $825.50 in favor of A. T. Nichols and against M. J. Nichols. The amount sued for was $960.00. This is the wind-up of a case that has been in the county court for two or three weeks.

Miss Jennie Jackson, a deaconess in the Omaha hospital spoke to a large audience at the Methodist church Sunday evening. Miss Jackson is a fluent talker and her theme, that of charity and the work of a deaconess, was handled in an interesting manner.

A subscription paper soliciting funds to assist the Boers in their struggle against English tyanny will be found at Strietz's drug store by those who desire to help the Boer cause. Quite a number of our citizens have subscribed sums ranging from fifty cents to one dollar.

The local gun club is not in the least discouraged by the two defeats it has met with at the hands of the Grand Island club, and another contest between the two clubs is being arranged. The coming contest will be held at the Island, and it is said that a purse of two hundred dollars will be hung up.

Mrs. C. L. Patterson received a telegram from her sister, Mrs. Fred Hess, of Buffalo, Wyo., yesterday stating that the latter's oldest daughter had died of diphtheria. This is the third child Mr. and Mrs. Hess have lost from that dread disease within two weeks. Mrs. Hess who was formerly Miss Belle Sutherland, is well known to a great many of our people, and to her their deepest sympathy will go forth.

A North Platte man who was in Callaway last week expressed much surprise at the business done at that point, and found upon inquiry that the bulk of the trade comes from northern Lincoln and Logan counties. Perhaps some day North Platte merchants will be awakened to the fact that Calloway receives thousands of dollars worth of trade which should come here, and they will make a move toward securing it.

Miss Anna C. Kramph, who for over two years so creditably filled the position of city editor of THE TRIBUNE, severed her connection with the paper Saturday. After a brief vacation, which she will pass in Colorado, Miss Kramph will take up short-hand with a view of making it a permanent calling. She was a faithful, earnest and valued employe, and her resignation was accepted with much regret by the editor.

Julius Sheppard, who succeeds H. B. Hollingsworth as secretary of the Y. M. C. A., arrived Saturday from Argentine, Kansas, accompanied by his wife and daughter. Mr. Sheppard is an experienced Y. M. C. A. worker and under his supervision the local association will lose none of the effectiveness which has prevailed during the incumbency of Mr. Hollingsworth. We are glad to welcome Mr. Sheppard and family to the city.

The people of Brady have sent a petition to U. P. headquarters asking that the village be made a flag station for train No. 101. As the trains now run, no west bound passenger is scheduled to stop at Brady, and this is very inconvenient for the people of that section who desire to come to North Platte. The matter should be so arranged that the people could come here on No. 101 and return on No. 4.

It has been suggested and the suggestion is worthy of consideration, that merchants and others who sweep paper and refuse on the streets provide boxes or barrels in which to store the refuse. This would result in less litter on our business streets and give them an infinitely neater appearance. Then again the flying papers in the streets occasionally frighten horses and runaways occur.
