All parties indebted to me will please call and settle with Mrs. Meyer, who will be found at I. A. Fort's office over Hub grocery store. VICTOR E. MEYER.

It is said that a number of stockmen in the county find themselves short of hay, and as a result are losing more or less cattle. The winter season up to the middle of February was so pleasant that the stockmen thought they had surplus hay and sold considerably more than they should. The late storms and cold weather has therefore caught them with a short supply.

The remains of J. C. Walker were shipped Wednesday night to Mt. Clemmons, Mich., for interment. It had been announced that the funeral and interment would be held here, but later arrangements were made to ship the body east. A short funeral service was held Wednesday evening by Rev. Beecher which was attended by relatives and members of the Knights of Pythias lodge.

John W. Welch died at his home in Buchanan precinct Wednesday morning from the effects of la grippe at the age of seventy-six years. The funeral will be held at the residence today and the body deposited in the cemetery at Wellfleet. The deceased came to Lincoln county fifteen years ago, and resided on his farm during that time, and his death removes a prominent resident of the south part of the county. He leaves a wife, two sons and a daughter.

Tuesday was the most quiet election North Platte has known for years, about one-half of the vote being polled. Lester Walker, republican candidate, was elected mayor over Farrington by about 125. With the exception of councilman in the First ward there was no opposition to the republican candidates. In that ward Warren Lloyd defeated John Sorenson by six votes. The officers elected were: Mayor, Lester Walker; Clerk, Greeley Bundy; Treasurer, Robt. Shuman; Police Judge, A. S. Baldwin; City Engineer, C. P. Ross; Councilmen, Warren Lloyd, W. J. Crusen, H. O. Evans; Members Board of Education, E. A. Cary and N. E. Workman.

Lutheran Church.

The Easter festival will be fittingly celebrated. Joy will be the keynote of all services. The church will be profusely decorated. New members will be received and the catechumens confirmed. Sixty additional chairs have been secured to provide as far as possible for the large number who will be present. Sunday school will not begin until 12:30.

The order of service which begins at 10:30 a. m. is as follows: Anthem, "The Christ is Risen." Ashford. Introit. Kyrie. Gloria in Excelsis. Collect. Commandments and Kyrie Eleison. The Epistle, 1 Cor. 5:6, 8. Hymn, "The Happy Morn is Come." The Gospel, John 20:1-19. Nicene Creed.

Hymn, "Christ the Lord is Risen." Confirmation of catechumens. Reception of members by confirmation, etc. Offertory solo, "Glory to God." Rotoli, by Mrs. C. F. Scharmann. Easter offering. The prayer. Anthem "The Lord is Risen." Ashford. The Holy Communion. Nunc Dimittis. Benediction.

In the evening the Sunday school assisted by the choir, will render the easter service, "Who is This," by B. F. Alleman, D. D., and give the annual offering for church extension. Rev. Seibert will deliver a short address on the resurrection. The Lord's Supper will again be administered for such as cannot be present in the morning.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Railroad men! Do you want to sleep next Sunday afternoon between the hours of 3:30 and 4:30? If you do; don't come to the special Easter services that will be held in the rooms at that hour, because it will be a bright wide awake service consisting of five minute talks, interspersed with songs. Special numbers will be sung by the quartette and others. All men cordially invited, but we do hope that every railroad man will feel that this is his meeting and will be there.

Wanted! Song books called Best Hymns used in the Schivera meetings last year in Lloyd's opera house. There are a number of them laying away in the homes of North Platte people unused that would give good service in the meetings at the Y. M. C. A. We would like to have them at once. Who will kindly respond? Sunday men's meetings are getting better. One of North Platte's brightest young men was beautifully saved in the rooms last Sunday.

A meeting will be held in the Y. M. C. A. parlor on Tuesday, April 9th, at 4 p. m., to reorganize the Ladies Auxilliary. All ladies that have been members, and all others interested, are urged to be present. The association has prospered, having on March 31st, 325 members in good standing and about twenty-five others that may be soon. This means an increase in work and responsibility. We believe the ladies can greatly help us, and we need their help now. We trust that every lady reading this notice will feel that this means her and will speak to others about it and come to the meeting.

The social and entertainment to be given on the evening of the 13th in the K. P. Hall under the direction of the Reception Committee promises a good program.

Ice cream and cake will be served. The whole thing for 15 cents. Tickets on sale by the committee and the secretary. Proceeds to finish paying the last $25 on the piano. S.

AMERICAN BEET SUGAR CO.

Grand Island, Neb.

Terms of Contract for 1901.

Under the provisions of this contract the grower is assured of a fixed price for his crop. All beets testing 14 per cent or less will be paid for at the rate of $4.00 per ton, 25 cents being paid for each per cent of sugar above 14, tractions in proportion. That is beets testing 14.1 per cent being $4.02; 14.2 being $4.05; 15 per cent $4.25; 15.1 per cent $4.27 1/2. An additional 20 cents per ton will be paid for all beets siloed. The factory will pay freight on all beets delivered by rail, cars to be loaded to their capacity, thus placing the grower at a distance on a satisfactory footing.

Further information or blank contracts can be obtained by applying to American Beet Sugar Company, Grand Island, Neb., or E. F. Seeberger, Hershey, Neb.
