

Local News in Brief.

J. R. Elliott, of Brady, transacted business in town yesterday.

George E. French has accepted an invitation to deliver an address at Ogalala on Memorial day.

George McEvoy, who is suffering from appendicitis, will probably be taken to Omaha for an operation the early part of next week.

Mrs. A. Samelson, and daughter Lilly, living southeast of town, went to Omaha yesterday to have the latter's eyes examined and treated.

Archdeacon Atmore, of Kearney, held services at the Episcopal church Sunday morning and evening, giving a lecture on foreign countries at the later service.

A girl baby was born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wood, and as they now have a pair their cup of happiness is full. The mother and young lady are doing nicely.

The ladies' guild is holding a social this afternoon at the Rincker residence in favor of Mrs. H. J. Roth, who leaves in a few days for Grand Junction, Col.

H. C. Langdon goes to Cheyenne tomorrow and while there will confer with W. R. McKeen in regard to the date of the banquet which it is proposed to tender the latter.

George Vroman brought down a six car train from Julesburg the other day in seventy-four minutes. As the distance is eighty-one miles, the average speed was about sixty-six miles per hour.

Farmers took a day off from corn planting Saturday and transacted business in town. The stores were well filled with customers and the merchants had a very satisfactory business.

Fred Smith, a resident of North Platte twenty years ago, but now running an engine on the Denver branch, brought engine 1317 down to this point for repairs a few days ago.

Miss Mabel Orr has been designated as the salutatorian of the class of 1901 and Miss Blanche Warner the valedictorian, these two young ladies standing highest in their studies.

THE TRIBUNE editor is indebted to Earl Trout for a mess of fine fish which represented part of a catch he made in Fremont slough. His success pretty clearly demonstrates his ability as a disciple of Izaak Walton.

J. A. McMichael has been awarded the contract for building the C. A. Dill residence on west Fourth street and has begun work on it. He is also building an addition to the J. C. Hupner house in the Third ward.

Frank Powers, of Rawlins, a son-in-law of Mrs. Kate Brown, has been in town for several days with a view of purchasing a tract of land southeast of town. Mr. Powers is an engineer on the Union Pacific.

H. C. Phelps, who has been stationed at Argentine, Kan., for past seven years, arrived in town Sunday morning and will act as agent for the fruit express companies. Mr. Phelps is an old-timer in the west, having frequented through here in 1859, and tells some very interesting tales of his experiences in those days.

Con Walker, D. H. Davis, P. H. Sullivan, Syl Friend, J. F. Fillion and L. B. Isenbart left Sunday night for Nebraska City to attend the bi-ennial convention of the A. O. U. W. This convention will be an important one, as permanent state headquarters for the order will be selected, and for this honor Omaha, Lincoln, Hastings, Grand Island and one or two other towns are striving. Officers for the coming two years will also be elected.

See Clinton for bargains in Bicycles. Only three left.

Mike Cronin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Cronin of the Third ward, died Sunday afternoon of consumption. He had been in a critical condition for some time and his death was not unexpected. A year or more ago while employed at the shops he contracted a bad cold, which later settled on his lungs, and though every attention was given him the ravages of the insidious disease could not be stopped. The deceased was an excellent young man and his death is deeply regretted by all acquaintances. The funeral was held from the Catholic church this forenoon.

BOYS' CLOTHING Celebrated for Money Saving.

There is no part of the family expense that needs to be watched more than what is paid out for Boys' Clothing, and there is no part of a clothing establishment that will more easily make or mar a store's success. Clothing providers keep coming, and all that makes them come is to save money. When we say save money we mean you can buy as good Boys' Clothing as you can anywhere else and get it for less money. That's what we call saving money.

The land has been leased for this season, but next fall it will be occupied by Mr. Weingand's father-in-law who now resides in Wisconsin.

Cox Succeeds Roth.

An order was issued today announcing the promotion of Harry E. Cox as chief train dispatcher at this point, succeeding H. J. Roth, who handed in his resignation several weeks ago. The change becomes effective tomorrow. Mr. Cox has been a dispatcher for a number of years and is accounted a first class man.

Stewart Comes This Week

Alex Stewart, who succeeds W. R. McKeen, Jr., as division foreman, will arrive this week and assume charge. The transfer from Rawlins to North Platte is a promotion for Mr. Stewart, the responsibility being greater and the salary larger at this place. Mr. Stewart learned the machinists trade in the shops here, and he will have under him many employes who were in the shops when he entered as an apprentice. His ascendancy has been rapid but it has been merited.

Rev. Haley Resigns.

In his sermon last Sunday Rev. Haley of St. Patrick's church stated that at the request of Bishop Scannell he would tender his resignation as priest of this parish. It has been known for some time that a number of the parishioners had filed complaints against Father Haley with the bishop, and the latter probably thinks that a change of priests will be best for all concerned. In his sermon announcing his resignation, Rev. Haley gave his congregation some pretty hot shots. The resignation takes effect June 1, next.

W. G. T. U. Organized.

Mrs. Welton state organizer and Mrs. Walker, state president, of the W. G. T. U. arrived in town last Friday and in the afternoon organized a local society at the Methodist church with the following officers: President, Mrs. J. D. Pulis; Vice-president, Mrs. Barton; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Chas. Ware; Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. P. Kelly; Treasurer, Mrs. S. Hartman.

Friday evening Mrs. Walker gave an address upon the principal temperance workers of the world, some of whom she had met at a convention of the W. G. T. U. held in London. She also gave stereopticon views of places she had visited in London.

Saturday afternoon a domestic science meeting was held at the Baptist parsonage at which Mrs. Welton gave demonstrations of cake baking and making desserts. This demonstration proved very interesting to the fifteen or more ladies present. The W. G. T. U. believes in making home life and living as attractive as possible to the male members of the family, hence these instructions in domestic science.

Saturday evening Mrs. Walker gave another exhibition of stereopticon views, accompanying the scenes with a lecture. One notable view was Napoleon after the battle of Waterloo.

Sunday evening a union meeting was held at the opera house, the attendance being large. Addresses were made by Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Welton and Rev. Wimberly. This meeting was very entertaining and instructive throughout and awakened much interest in the cause of temperance.

The local society starts with a membership of thirty-five, but it is thought that with a little soliciting that number can be trebled in a short time. Men are taken into the society as honorary members by the payment of a fifty cent fee.

The next meeting will be held at 2:30 next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. L. McGrew, opposite the second ward school building. All ladies interested in the work are cordially invited to be present.

Mesdames Walker and Welton created a very favorable impression during their stay by their earnest work and charming personality.
