Furnished front room for rent. Mrs. Pat Norris one block east and south of Catholic church.

Messrs. Muldoon, Grimes and Halligan have improved the appearance of their residences by having a brick walk laid in front of the block in which they reside. Let the good work continue.

There will be a grand picnic on July 4th, at Stebbin's grove. An excellent program will be rendered, including dancing, baseball and other amusements. An effort will be made to insure all who attend a pleasant time.

George H. Carter, deputy game and fish warden expects to leave June 20th for South Bend, Neb., where a meeting of the wardens will be held. The fish hatcheries will be inspected and other important business transacted.

Why don't you buy a Brownie Kodak for $1.00 for your boy or girl and furnish them endless amusement and instruction during the summer. For sale at Doolittle's.

The Gordon Silver Cornet Band met at the First Ward hose house last evening and reorganized. James Hart was elected leader and Walter Vroman as president, secretary and treasurer. This action on the part of the boys is a good idea, as the original band had broken up, and North Platte is certainly able to support a good band and ought to have one. The boys will practice Monday and Thursday evenings and will soon be in excellent shape. It is hoped that they will soon be in shape to furnish the band concerts which is such a pleasant feature during the summer.

THE FAIR.

Rev. James A. Gerhart of Maryland, Mo., is in the city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hershey and will probably remain during the greater part of the summer. Mr. Gerhart was one of the pioneers of this city having been Presbyterian pastor here in 1876. When Mr. Gerhart was first in the city he held services in the court house and later in the Baptist church. During his pastorate the present Presbyterian church was erected. Mr. Gerhart's health has been quite poor for some time and he hopes that this climate will prove beneficial to him.
