Wallace Baskin came down from his Logan county ranch yesterday and went back this morning with a four-horse wagon load of supplies—Game Boards! Game Boards! Game Boards at Doolittle's. The higher priced Boards as cheap as the lower-priced ones were last year. 54 games on one board! What do you think of that?

There was dropped into the city post office the other day a letter addressed in juvenile writing to "Santa Claus, North Pole." The little writer evidently desired Santa to get the letter in plenty of time.

A social under the auspices of the Lutheran ladies will be given at the elegant Frederickson home on Friday evening for the benefit of the Midland College, the Lutheran institution located at Atchison, Kansas, which has just completed a $6,000 addition to the ladies' hall to accommodate the growing patronage. The entire house will be lighted and numerous games distributed, thus insuring a pleasant time to the large crowd expected. Refreshments will be served during the evening. The public cordially invited.

Doolittle's is not a crockery store you know, but makes a specialty of dainty odd pieces of china especially for gifts. Artistic China we keep and shall always aim to keep. Come and see.

An Idaho stockman enroute to Chicago lost his pocketbook Sunday at this station. The book contained five twenty dollar bills, checks amounting to two hundred dollars and a certificate of deposit. Later in the day the checks and certificate were found in the vicinity of the freight house. The party who found or had stolen the book kept the money and the book but threw away the checks and certificate in order to escape possible detection.

Mrs. Elizabeth Donaldson entertained twenty friends at high five last evening in a manner that required pleasantly to the guests. At the conclusion of the games Mesdames Laing, Baldwin and Ferguson were found to have equal scores and in cutting to decide, the latter lady won. For the gentleman's orize Messrs. Seeberger, Baldwin were a tie and in playing off the tie Mr. Field won.

The line of gold plated and other Photograph Frames at Doolittle's are prettier than last year and that you know is saying a great deal.

In the district court yesterday seventy-two county tax foreclosures were heard and about twenty orders for confirmation of sales entered. The jury will be called at noon today and the first case heard will be that of Anna L. Beckett against Emery Loudon on the charge of bastardy. This case comes from Logan county on a change of venue.

For Sale or Rent—My house; will also sell stove and house plants. 3-1* MRS. W. H. BROACH.

The records of the local weather bureau show last month to have been five degrees warmer on the daily average than is usual for the month. The warmest day registered sixty-nine degrees and the coldest fifteen degrees. The rainfall for the month was less than one-third of an inch, which is less than the average for twenty-eight years past.

Doolittle's line of Gift Books this Holiday season is something exquisite and something that will interest you is that they are from 10 to 25 per cent cheaper than last year.

The Y. M. C. A. entertainment committee received word today that the quartette booked for next Monday evening would not appear on that date. It is probable that the quartette will be here later in the season, but if not the committee will secure an attraction to take its place in the course.
